

FOR CRIMINAL LIBEL WILLIAM SMITH SCHOOLS REOPENED DELEGATES FILED

Dr. Demosthenes Generalis Indicted Today

HON. CHARLES N. BELL, JUDGE SUPERIOR COURT.

James B. Fisher Gets Two Years for Polygamy — Opening of Superior Court This Morning

The September term of the Middlesex superior court, criminal session, came in at the court house in Gorham street this morning with Judge Bell presiding, and Rev. Nathan W. Matthews delivering the opening prayer.

At the opening of court, when the clerk was instructed to call the roll of the jury the first name called was that of Freeman M. Bell. Mr. Bell was not in court at the time but appeared shortly afterward with a request to be excused from serving. Judge Bell upon hearing the facts immediately excused him. John C. King of this city who is a clerk in the registrar's office asked to be excused and was excused for four days.

Three other jurors were excused and there were three absentees.

The session of the morning was the notice of the indictment of Dr. Demosthenes Generalis for alleged criminal libel, the indictment containing several counts. Dr. Generalis was ordered in to plead at 10 o'clock this afternoon. He has retained John Harvey as counsel. The complainant in the case are the Terzakis brother and Prof. M. Iatros.

Before taking up the cases Judge Bell made an address to the jury in which he cautioned them to so conduct themselves as not to cast suspicion upon themselves or the administration of justice. "Keep away from the parties in a case," said Judge Bell, "the counsel and witnesses. Do not read or have read to you any comment appearing in the newspapers regarding any case under consideration. If any one speaks to you about a case on trial tell him at once that you are a juror."

CHARLES GLIDDEN

Tumbled Down Flight of Stairs

Charles Glidden, the harmonica expert, fell down a flight of stairs at the lodging house numbered 29 Bridge street and sustained a slight concussion of the brain. He was removed in the ambulance to St. John's hospital. Glidden has suffered from rheumatism for months and at times he was unable to give away. That was what happened to him when he reached the head of the stairs. His legs gave way and he tumbled backward. He was employed in the house as janitor. He will be able to leave the hospital today.

CIVIL SERVICE

EXAMINATIONS TO BE HELD IN BOSTON.

Examinations for the following positions will be held in Boston, Mass., on Oct. 23, 1906, and the United States Civil Service Commission:

Clerk, Departmental Service (females only).

Clerk, Isthmian Canal Service (males only).

Electrotype Finisher, Government Printing Service.

Electrotype Molder, Government Printing Service.

Eyes examined by expert eye sight specialists. Glasses right. Prices right. Open day and evening.

Caswell Optical Co.
2 Bridge st., Runnels' bldg., Merrimack sq.

Printing Service.
Guard, U. S. Penitentiary Service.
Messenger, watchman, skilled laborer, Departmental Service (males only).
Press Feeder, Government Printing Service.
Stenographer and Typewriter, Departmental Service, Isthmian Canal Service, and Philippine Service.
These examinations offer excellent opportunities for appointment in the government service. The required application form and information concerning the examinations can be secured from Mr. Geo. H. Gurney, at the Lowell postoffice, or from E. E. Stephens, secretary Board of Examiners, Box 158, Boston, Mass.

FORM ALLIANCE

Loomfixers of Three Cities to Meet

FALL RIVER, Sept. 10.—A meeting of New Bedford, Pawtucket & Fall River loomfixers is to be held next Saturday night at which a proposition to form an alliance of the loom fixers unions of the three cities will be considered. It is believed that such an alliance would prove of benefit to the unions in times of labor difficulties. The alliance, it is said, will in no way conflict with the United Textile Workers as that organization as the last convention sanctioned the organization of local unions into national associations of the different crafts provided each local was affiliated with the United Textile Workers independently.

Set Upon by Thugs in Dutton Street

RECEIVED MANY KNIFE WOUNDS

Another Man Sent to the Hospital

With several knife wounds on his body, a frightened look on his face and unable to tell what it was all about, William T. Smith, 22, called at the police station Saturday night and asked for protection. After "beating about the bush" for a while he said he had been set upon by a gang of thugs in Dutton street about 10:30 o'clock and that they "knived" him.

He said he was with a companion at the time and had reached a point in the vicinity of Fletcher street and near the canal bridge. He said he was walking along minding his own business when one of a gang of fellows going in the same direction pushed him from the sidewalk. He remonstrated and received a few short jolts that made his head dizzy. One of his assailants, he said, used a knife.

He was sent to the Emergency hospital where his wounds were attended to. Dr. Dugdale who dressed the wounds said they looked like knife wounds. There were eight or ten in all and one near the left elbow required three stitches to close. There were lacerations on the left hip and right knee. A book in the left hip pocket was cut as if with a knife.

Smith was unable to give a very good description of his assailants. He said they were foreigners. Smith's story was verified by his companion who was not molested.

FELL OR WAS PUSHED.

Denis Lowrey was taken to St. John's hospital last night suffering from a few bruises and slight lacerations on the head. Lowrey said he was attacked by two men in Bridge street near Tenth, a resident of that district, and that Lowrey was drunk and fell from the sidewalk. Lowrey told the following story:

"I was walking along Bridge street, near Tenth, minding my own affairs, when along came two men behind me and struck me on the head, flooring me. When I came to, I had severe pains in the head, and my pockets were filled of the 50 cents they contained before I was struck."

The story told by the Centralville resident was as follows: "Lowrey was walking along the sidewalk in Bridge street, near Tenth. He was staggering so that it was quite noticeable. In an endeavor to keep on the straight and narrow path he stumbled and fell headlong to the pavement, striking his head and face. No one was near him when he fell."

VESPER WON

BEAT LEXINGTON IN INTER-CLUB TENNIS MATCH.

The Vesper tennis team beat Lexington four points to one Saturday in the first inter-club tennis match ever held at Tyngs Island. The scores were as follows:

Miller and Garrison, Lexington, beat Bayard and Martin, Vesper, 2-6, 7-5, 6-2.

Abbott and Young, Vesper, beat Redmond and Hollins, Lexington, 6-3, 8-6.

L. H. Martin, Vesper, beat Hugh Miller, Lexington, 6-3, 6-4.

C. F. Young, Vesper, beat Mr. Garrison, Lexington, 3-6, 6-0, 6-4.

P. Bayard, Vesper, beat Mr. Redmond, Lexington, 6-2, 3-6, 6-1.

Vesper four points, Lexington one.

Old Coughs

New coughs are bad enough. Old coughs are worse, much worse. They always make one think of bronchitis, consumption, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral quickly cures new coughs. And it cures old ones, too. The next time you see your doctor, ask him why this medicine so promptly relieves coughs. Then follow his advice.

We have no agents! We publish the medicine of all our customers!
J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

ASSOCIATE HALL

Is open for bookings from now on for next fall and winter. If interested, visit the hall, look at the floor, and make arrangements with the janitor.

ROLLAWAY

This week Thursday evening and Saturday afternoon and evening there will be skating at the Hurd Street Rollaway and next week Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons and evenings there will be skating.

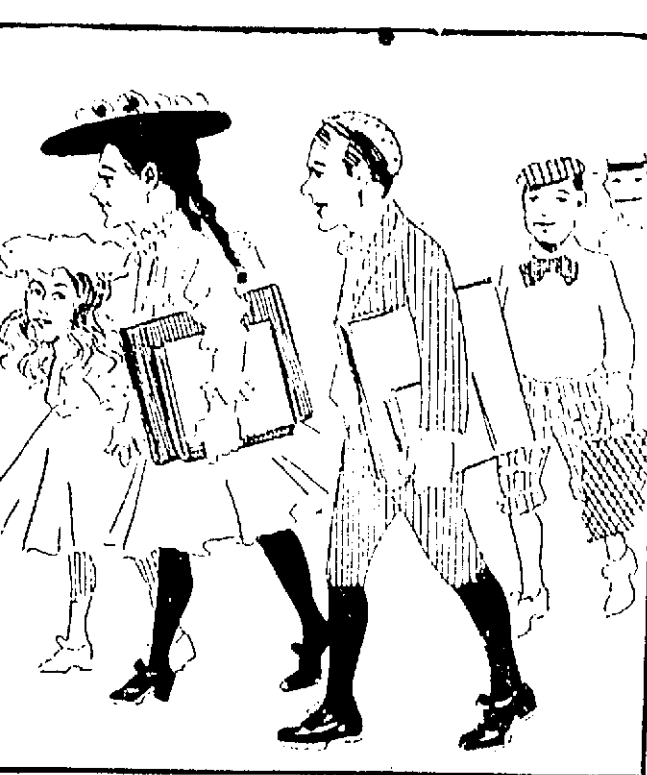

Remember the place, Hurd Street Rollaway. Everything slick and nice.

A Clear Complexion

IN 17 DAYS FOR 50 CENTS
If you have pimples, blotches or other skin imperfections, you can remove them and have a clear complexion by using

Beauty Skin Tablets

They Make New Blood They Improve the Health

SCHOOL CHILDREN ON THEIR WAY TO RESUME THEIR STUDIES THIS MORNING.

Supt. Whitcomb Assisted at Greenhalge School

Today marked the opening of the school term and shortly after eight o'clock this morning the doors of the public schools were thrown wide open to welcome the pupils. All the parochial schools except the French were also opened today.

The attendance at the different schools showed a perceptible gain over last year, though it is difficult at the present time to learn just how big the attendance is. It is safe to say, however, that it is several hundred larger than at the opening of the school term last year.

Supt. A. K. Whitcomb of the school department who generally makes a tour of the different schools on the first day spent the greater part of the forenoon at the Frederic T. Greenhalge school in Emerald street owing to this being the formal opening of the school.

While there are ten rooms in the school but seven are now in use, but those are filled so that it is expected that an eighth room will have to be opened tomorrow. The list of teachers assigned to the school was previously given, but changes have been made, and the teachers who reported at the school this morning were:

Miss Mary E. Thomas and Anna V. Donoghue, formerly of the Vermont school; Miss Maud E. Moody, a newly elected teacher who taught temporarily at the Lakeview avenue school last year; Miss Anna L. Mahoney, a newly elected teacher, who taught temporarily at the Franklin school last year; Miss Josephine Donohue and Martha Rogers of the Lakeview avenue school and Miss Jessie Davidson, a newly elected teacher who taught temporarily at the Lakeview avenue school last year.

Of the seven rooms opened today in the new school four were of the grammar grade and three of the primary.

The four teachers in the Lakeview avenue school are on duty today, but the annex has been discontinued.

Owing to an accident at the Museum of Natural History a short time ago some of the rooms are minus blackboards, but it is hoped the boards will soon be on hand.

At the high school there are about one thousand pupils, this being practically the same number as last year, though the entering class of 325 is large. Principal Fish, figuring up the applications made, expected about 100 pupils, but there is generally a drop of about ten per cent in the number who apply, but this year the drop is about 15 per cent.

Of course pupils will be entering the different schools for the next three or four weeks to come and this will bring up the attendance.

The principals of the schools throughout the city are to submit a report of the number of pupils in their schools by next Friday night and in all probability by Saturday of this week.

Monday of next week the total number of pupils in the different schools can be given.

The parochial schools of St. Michael's, St. Patrick's, Immaculate Conception and Sacred Heart parishes opened this morning. The pupils of the parochial schools attended mass at 8:30 o'clock and at the conclusion of the service they went to school. The attendance in each is reported normal.

ASSAULTED HER

body else. "It's a case of mistaken identity," he said.

Judge Hadley didn't think so and a fine of $15 was imposed.

The Judge suggested that it was too bad a big brother with a good right arm didn't appear upon the scene at the right time. His Honor said a good thrashing would fit the case better than a fine.

"THE DRUNKEN OFFENDERS."

Mary Orr pleaded for another chance. It was her third appearance within a year, and she was well known to the court.

"I'm doing well now and so is George," said Mary, "and I'll like another show." George Orr is her husband and he was in the court room.

"Come here, George," said Deputy Welch.

"Yes, come up here, George," said Mary, "and say a word for your wife."

George went to the front for Mary. He said she had been doing well of late.

"Did you have a drink this morning, George?" asked the deputy.

"Just a few," said George. "I can stand more drink than she can."

Mary won the day and was placed on probation.

Judge Hadley was disposed to be lenient and passed out four suspended sentences, to old offenders, in quick succession.

James Powers and Joseph Provencor were fined $2 each for drunkenness and $5 each for assault and battery on Joseph Guerlin.

Mary Flaherty was sent to the prison for women at Sherborn; Julius Hyer, three months in jail; Michael McGrath, Patrick Kiernan and Leon Teller were fined $6 each; Daniel Lynch, Edward A. Tompkins, James Hennessey and Joseph Kelly were sent to the state farm.

Four first offenders were fined $2 each and six were released.

HICK ON A CAR.

Cora Hollis of Warren street, Chelmsford Centre, was taken off on a Lowell bound Boston car last night and was removed to St. John's hospital in a semi-conscious state. A weak heart was the cause of the trouble.

Dunbar Will Have First Place on Ticket

Frank E. Dunbar, candidate for nomination to congress in the fifth district, secured a victory over his opponent, Congressman Butler Ames this morning by filing his list of delegates as soon as the headquarters of the republican city committee was opened. George W. Moore filed the list of delegates with clerk E. T. Howard and Mr. Dunbar's delegates will head the ballot in the primaries.

Mr. Moore was around the door leading to the committee room early this morning and expected that he would have to run a race with one of the representatives of Congress Ames in order to file the names, but he found there was no opposition. Up to noon the Ames delegates had not been filed.

Mr. Moore was around the door leading to the committee room early this morning and expected that he would have to run a race with one of the representatives of Congress Ames in order to file the names, but he found there was no opposition. Up to noon the Ames delegates had not been filed.

The borrowing of the money will have nothing to do with the debt limit as the water department will eventually pay for it out of its resources. At the beginning of the year there was a balance of $11,000 which if acted upon favorably will be transferred for the use of the department and the remaining $7,000 will be borrowed.

The teamsters employed at the Dracut lodge have a grievance, claiming that Mr. Morris is working them overtime. According to the law passed this year by the state legislature eight hours is considered a day's work for city employees.

In order to begin work at the lodge at seven o'clock it is necessary that the teamsters should report at the city stable before six o'clock each morning.

Supt. Morris says that the city cannot afford to lose the time involved by the strict adoption of the state law. He is of the opinion that if the men continue to object to reporting early in the morning it will be necessary for the city to build a stable at the lodge and then the teamsters will either have to walk or pay their own car fare.

The board of charities will meet in special session at city hall Thursday evening for the purpose of listening to the parents and relatives of people who are confined in different institutions and whose board is being paid by the city of Lowell. The purpose of the meeting is to ascertain how many of the relatives of the inmates can afford to reimburse the city.

The meeting will be confined to the discussion of cases at the dipomanic hospital at Foxboro, epileptic hospital at Muncie and Cottage hospital at Hallowville.

The city of Lowell has been paying $125 per week for each inmate. According to the law the next of kin or some relative of the inmate if able is supposed to reimburse the city.

The members of the board of charities think that there is a number of relatives of inmates who are in good circumstances and able to contribute.

ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE.

The committee on accounts will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of taking action on the transfer of $1500 interest money which the cemetery department has earned, and pay the employees of that department.

The employees of the cemetery department have not received any pay for the past six weeks owing to the fact that the transfer has been held up by the committee on accounts. At the meeting of the committee on accounts held last Friday Messrs. Hogan and Cheney were present, but owing to the absence of Chairman Crosby the two committees refused to take any action in the matter.

An Alderman Crosby has been in favor of the transfer of the money he has called a special meeting of the committee for tonight and in all probability the transfer will be made.

The committee on industries will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. The special committee appointed to make arrangements for the outing to be held at Hallowville will also meet at the same hour.

The regular meeting of the board of aldermen will be held tomorrow night at eight o'clock.

WATER EXTENSION LOAN.

Mayor Carey made a tour of inspection of the Wigglesville and South Lowell districts where it is proposed to extend the water system, this afternoon. As a result of his inspection it is understood that he will call a special meeting of the common council for tomorrow night to take action on the $50,000 loan order suggested by the water board to complete the work.

The matter was acted upon favorably by the upper board and it is expected that the lower board will concur.

The borrowing of the money will have nothing to do with the debt limit as the water department will eventually pay for it out of its resources. At the beginning of the year there was a balance of $11,000 which if acted upon favorably will be transferred for the use of the department and the remaining $7,000 will be borrowed.

The teamsters employed at the Dracut lodge have a grievance, claiming that Mr. Morris is working them overtime. According to the law passed this year by the state legislature eight hours is considered a day's work for city employees.

In order to begin work at the lodge at seven o'clock it is necessary that the teamsters should report at the city stable before six o'clock each morning.

Supt. Morris says that the city cannot afford to lose the time involved by the strict adoption of the state law. He is of the opinion that if the men continue to object to reporting early in the morning it will be necessary for the city to build a stable at the lodge and then the teamsters will either have to walk or pay their own car fare.

The board of charities will meet in special session at city hall Thursday evening for the purpose of listening to the parents and relatives of people who are confined in different institutions and whose board is being paid by the city of Lowell. The purpose of the meeting is to ascertain how many of the relatives of the inmates can afford to reimburse the city.

The meeting will be confined to the discussion of cases at the dipomanic hospital at Foxboro, epileptic hospital at Muncie and Cottage hospital at Hallowville.

The city of Lowell has been paying $125 per week for each inmate. According to the law the next of kin or some relative of the inmate if able is supposed to reimburse the city.

The members of the board of charities think that there is a number of relatives of inmates who are in good circumstances and able to contribute.

ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE.

The committee on accounts will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of taking action on the transfer of $1500 interest money which the cemetery department has earned, and pay the employees of that department.

The employees of the cemetery department have not received any pay for the past six weeks owing to the fact that the transfer has been held up by the committee on accounts. At the meeting of the committee on accounts held last Friday Messrs. Hogan and Cheney were present, but owing to the absence of Chairman Crosby the two committees refused to take any action in the matter.

An Alderman Crosby has been in favor of the transfer of the money he has called a special meeting of the committee for tonight and in all probability the transfer will be made.

The committee on industries will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. The special committee appointed to make arrangements for the outing to be held at Hallowville will also meet at the same hour.

The regular meeting of the board of aldermen will be held tomorrow night at eight o'clock.

WATER EXTENSION LOAN.

Mayor Carey made a tour of inspection of the Wigglesville and South Lowell districts where it is proposed to extend the water system, this afternoon. As a result of his inspection it is understood that he will call a special meeting of the common council for tomorrow night to take action on the $50,000 loan order suggested by the water board to complete the work.

The matter was acted upon favorably by the upper board and it is expected that the lower board will concur.

The borrowing of the money will have nothing to do with the debt limit as the water department will eventually pay for it out of its resources. At the beginning of the year there was a balance of $11,000 which if acted upon favorably will be transferred for the use of the department and the remaining $7,000 will be borrowed.

The teamsters employed at the Dracut lodge have a grievance, claiming that Mr. Morris is working them overtime. According to the law passed this year by the state legislature eight hours is considered a day's work for city employees.

In order to begin work at the lodge at seven o'clock it is necessary that the teamsters should report at the city stable before six o'clock each morning.

Supt. Morris says that the city cannot afford to lose the time involved by the strict adoption of the state law. He is of the opinion that if the men continue to object to reporting early in the morning it will be necessary for the city to build a stable at the lodge and then the teamsters will either have to walk or pay their own car fare.

The board of charities will meet in special session at city hall Thursday evening for the purpose of listening to the parents and relatives of people who are confined in different institutions and whose board is being paid by the city of Lowell. The purpose of the meeting is to ascertain how many of the relatives of the inmates can afford to reimburse the city.

The meeting will be confined to the discussion of cases at the dipomanic hospital at Foxboro, epileptic hospital at Muncie and Cottage hospital at Hallowville.

The city of Lowell has been paying $125 per week for each inmate. According to the law the next of kin or some relative of the inmate if able is supposed to reimburse the city.

The members of the board of charities think that there is a number of relatives of inmates who are in good circumstances and able to contribute.

ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE.

The committee on accounts will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of taking action on the transfer of $1500 interest money which the cemetery department has earned, and pay the employees of that department.

The employees of the cemetery department have not received any pay for the past six weeks owing to the fact that the transfer has been held up by the committee on accounts. At the meeting of the committee on accounts held last Friday Messrs. Hogan and Cheney were present, but owing to the absence of Chairman Crosby the two committees refused to take any action in the matter.

An Alderman Crosby has been in favor of the transfer of the money he has called a special meeting of the committee for tonight and in all probability the transfer will be made.

The committee on industries will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. The special committee appointed to make arrangements for the outing to be held at Hallowville will also meet at the same hour.

The regular meeting of the board of aldermen will be held tomorrow night at eight o'clock.

WATER EXTENSION LOAN.

Mayor Carey made a tour of inspection of the Wigglesville and South Lowell districts where it is proposed to extend the water system, this afternoon. As a result of his inspection it is understood that he will call a special meeting of the common council for tomorrow night to take action on the $50,000 loan order suggested by the water board to complete the work.

The matter was acted upon favorably by the upper board and it is expected that the lower board will concur.

The borrowing of the money will have nothing to do with the debt limit as the water department will eventually pay for it out of its resources. At the beginning of the year there was a balance of $11,000 which if acted upon favorably will be transferred for the use of the department and the remaining $7,000 will be borrowed.

The teamsters employed at the Dracut lodge have a grievance, claiming that Mr. Morris is working them overtime. According to the law passed this year by the state legislature eight hours is considered a day's work for city employees.

In order to begin work at the lodge at seven o'clock it is necessary that the teamsters should report at the city stable before six o'clock each morning.

Supt. Morris says that the city cannot afford to lose the time involved by the strict adoption of the state law. He is of the opinion that if the men continue to object to reporting early in the morning it will be necessary for the city to build a stable at the lodge and then the teamsters will either have to walk or pay their own car fare.

The board of charities will meet in special session at city hall Thursday evening for the purpose of listening to the parents and relatives of people who are confined in different institutions and whose board is being paid by the city of Lowell. The purpose of the meeting is to ascertain how many of the relatives of the inmates can afford to reimburse the city.

The meeting will be confined to the discussion of cases at the dipomanic hospital at Foxboro, epileptic hospital at Muncie and Cottage hospital at Hallowville.

The city of Lowell has been paying $125 per week for each inmate. According to the law the next of kin or some relative of the inmate if able is supposed to reimburse the city.

The members of the board of charities think that there is a number of relatives of inmates who are in good circumstances and able to contribute.

ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE.

The committee on accounts will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of taking action on the transfer of $1500 interest money which the cemetery department has earned, and pay the employees of that department.

The employees of the cemetery department have not received any pay for the past six weeks owing to the fact that the transfer has been held up by the committee on accounts. At the meeting of the committee on accounts held last Friday Messrs. Hogan and Cheney were present, but owing to the absence of Chairman Crosby the two committees refused to take any action in the matter.

An Alderman Crosby has been in favor of the transfer of the money he has called a special meeting of the committee for tonight and in all probability the transfer will be made.

The committee on industries will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. The special committee appointed to make arrangements for the outing to be held at Hallowville will also meet at the same hour.

The regular meeting of the board of aldermen will be held tomorrow night at eight o'clock.

WATER EXTENSION LOAN.

Mayor Carey made a tour of inspection of the Wigglesville and South Lowell districts where it is proposed to extend the water system, this afternoon. As a result of his inspection it is understood that he will call a special meeting of the common council for tomorrow night to take action on the $50,000 loan order suggested by the water board to complete the work.

The matter was acted upon favorably by the upper board and it is expected that the lower board will concur.

The borrowing of the money will have nothing to do with the debt limit as the water department will eventually pay for it out of its resources. At the beginning of the year there was a balance of $11,000 which if acted upon favorably will be transferred for the use of the department and the remaining $7,000 will be borrowed.

The teamsters employed at the Dracut lodge have a grievance, claiming that Mr. Morris is working them overtime. According to the law passed this year by the state legislature eight hours is considered a day's work for city employees.

In order to begin work at the lodge at seven o'clock it is necessary that the teamsters should report at the city stable before six o'clock each morning.

Supt. Morris says that the city cannot afford to lose the time involved by the strict adoption of the state law. He is of the opinion that if the men continue to object to reporting early in the morning it will be necessary for the city to build a stable at the lodge and then the teamsters will either have to walk or pay their own car fare.

The board of charities will meet in special session at city hall Thursday evening for the purpose of listening to the parents and relatives of people who are confined in different institutions and whose board is being paid by the city of Lowell. The purpose of the meeting is to ascertain how many of the relatives of the inmates can afford to reimburse the city.

The meeting will be confined to the discussion of cases at the dipomanic hospital at Foxboro, epileptic hospital at Muncie and Cottage hospital at Hallowville.

The city of Lowell has been paying $125 per week for each inmate. According to the law the next of kin or some relative of the inmate if able is supposed to reimburse the city.

The members of the board of charities think that there is a number of relatives of inmates who are in good circumstances and able to contribute.

ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE.

The committee on accounts will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of taking action on the transfer of $1500 interest money which the cemetery department has earned, and pay the employees of that department.

The employees of the cemetery department have not received any pay for the past six weeks owing to the fact that the transfer has been held up by the committee on accounts. At the meeting of the committee on accounts held last Friday Messrs. Hogan and Cheney were present, but owing to the absence of Chairman Crosby the two committees refused to take any action in the matter.

An Alderman Crosby has been in favor of the transfer of the money he has called

NO INDICTMENT

Grand Jury Reports on the Schaefer Case

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—When the Suffolk county grand jury reported its list of indictments in the superior court today, no direct mention was made of the John Doe proceedings which were instituted by District Attorney John B. Moran as a result of certain charges made by Henry T. Schaefer in connection with his candidacy for lieutenant-governor on the democratic ticket. Mr. Schaefer in an open letter printed in the newspaper of Tuesday, September 4, said that he had been approached by a man who had asked Mr. Schaefer how much he would contribute to the campaign fund in consideration of the nomination he desired. Prominent leaders of the democratic party in this

THREE KILLED

Freight Train Backed Into Trolley Car

PANIC AMONG THE PASSENGERS

When the Great Smash Came

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—Owing to most culpable negligence, on both sides, a rapid transit company street car, bringing 29 passengers home from the Point Breeze stopovers, was struck full in the side by the rear end of a Pennsylvania railroad freight train, which backed down upon it. The collision occurred at Passunk ave. and 25th street at 6:40 yesterday morning.

Such was the force that when the train struck the car the latter was pushed off the street crossing entirely and turned around. It stood front end towards the crossing at right angles to the street car tracks and 29 feet away.

MGR. AVERZA

CONSECRATED TITULAR ARCHBISHOP OF SARDI

ROME, Sept. 8.—Monsignor Averza, apostolic delegate to Cuba today was consecrated titular archbishop of Sardi. The solemn ceremony was performed at the Vatican by Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, assisted by Mgr. Kennedy, rector of the American college and the American students. Interest in today's ceremony was heightened by a recently announced decision of anti-clerical circles to make a demonstration today against Cardinal Merry del Val and the policy of the Vatican. The police interfered with the proposed arrangement to the extent of forcing the demonstrators to hold their meeting in private and the ceremony at the Vatican was marked by no outward incident.

REPORT OF DEATHS

FOR THE WEEK ENDING SEP. 7, 1906.

- Aug. 29.—John N. Flunkin, 71, pneumonia. Harriet Hartford, 85, old age. Helene Allard, 22, phthisis. Arthur J. Albert, 11, heart disease.
- Sept. 1.—Bridget Maloney, 58, arterio sclerosis. Michel J. Brown, 15, tub. meningitis. Henry Letendreau, 5 mos., colitis. Elizabeth T. Crowley, 2 mos., convulsions.
- 2.—Loretta M. Morrill, 71, arterio regurgitation. Juliette Abare, 58, phthisis. John O'Toole, 7, stenosis. Mary Smith, 17, nephritis. James L. Smith, 6 mos., dysentery. Daniel J. Corbett, 1 mo., colitis.
- 3.—Margaret Ducey, 72, apoplexy. Zelle Vesna, 45, heart disease. William Dillon, 45, fracture skull. William P. Quinn, 15, phthisis. Rosalie Brown, 3 mos., meningitis. Gertrude Polier, 3 mos., diarrhoea. Marie Lucette, 2 hours, mal. of heart. Mary Brady, 19, hernia.
- 4.—Mary A. Howard, 56, apoplexy. Susan Dowling, 80, sclerosis. James P. Keiffer, 3 mos., pneumonia. Petrus Muench, 6 mos., enteritis. Eugene Barilau, 15 days, enteritis. Margaret Browne, 13, tuberculosis. Thomas Daley, 2, diphtheria. Louis A. Davis, 3 mos., chol. inf. 6.—James P. White, 67, dropsy. Michael J. Hayes, 37, cong. of lungs. Lary Quinlan, 20, aneurism. Lary Quinlan, 20, aneurism. Oliver F. White, 3 mos., bron. cyste. Esther M. Yates, 3 mos., enteritis. Ellen Smith, 2 mos., enteritis. Henry J. Couture, 5 days, debility. 7.—Olivia V. Cunha, 1, bronchitis. Louis Goyette, 1 mos., enteritis. 8.—Henry Valle, 2 mos., group.
- GILBERT P. DADMAN, City Clerk.

MORTALITY OF LOWELL

For the week ending Sept. 8, 1906: Population, 9,339; total deaths, 42; deaths under five, 20; infectious diseases, 1; neuro. lung diseases, 1; diphtheria, 1; membranous group, 1.

Death rate: 22.66 against 25.1, 11.56 for previous two weeks.

Infectious diseases reported: Diphtheria, 1; membranous group, 1.

MRS. ASTOR BETTER

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—Mrs. William Astor, who has been ill at her apartments at the Hotel Somerset in this city, was far recovered today that her physicians gave her permission for her removal to Newport late in the afternoon. Dr. J. H. Stevens said today that Mrs. Astor had practically recovered from the severe cold and attack of indigestion with which she suffered about a week ago.

CLEARING HOUSE BANKS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The statement of the clearing house banks for the week is as follows: Loans, decrease $11,500,000; deposits, decrease, $2,543,000; circulation, decrease, $1,120,000; legal tenders, decrease, $4,000,000; specie, decrease, $12,494,000; reserve, decrease, $4,488,000; reserve, required, decrease, $6,500,000; deficit, increase, $3,447,325; Exch. S. deposits, deficit, $1,662,500; increase, $2,400,500.

BADLY BURNED

FOURTEEN WORKMEN WERE SERIOUSLY INJURED.

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 8.—While cleaning out a purifying tank in the Consumers' Gas company's premises this morning the gas ignited and an explosion resulted. Fourteen of the workmen were badly burned. Two or three of them may lose their eyesight.

PENNYROYAL PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND. Ladies! Ask your Druggist for the Diamond Brand. It is the only one that is guaranteed to cure all the troubles of women. It is the only one that is guaranteed to cure all the troubles of women. It is the only one that is guaranteed to cure all the troubles of women.

MAINE CAMPAIGN HEAD OF JESUITS

The Final Rallies Will be Held Tonight

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 8.—That the last day in the campaign for Monday's congressional and state election has been a gratifying one to the various candidates, scores of Maine speakers and several members of the national government including Speaker Joseph C. Cannon, of the national house of representatives who tonight completed a series of ten speeches within six days in widely scattered sections of the state. Rallies arranged by the republican and democratic state committees have been held in nearly every town of reasonable size the past month, the list of republican speakers being very extensive.

The republicans have been aided by eight or ten congressmen from outside the state including Senators Lodge of Massachusetts and Beveridge of Indiana, Congressman Cole of Ohio, Foster of Vermont, Hamilton of Michigan and Johnston of Indiana. Most distinguished among the speakers was Secretary of War Taft, whose address in speech, which was delivered at Bangor in Congressman Littlefield's district was of importance because of his closeness to President Roosevelt. The Maine members have spoken in their second district having been untiringly active in protecting himself against the severe attacks by Samuel Gompers and others connected with the American Federation of Labor.

The democrats did not have a speaker from outside the state, but confined their arrangements to Maine speakers and limited their discussions to state issues. This was the exact opposite of the method of the republicans who have interjected national affairs prominently by the best and most prominent speakers of the country who have urged that republican congressmen should be re-elected as an endorsement to President Roosevelt and big republican journals ought to be given the entire ticket.

Tonight Speaker Cannon, who shows the effects of his remarkable feat of making nine addresses in five days and traveling hundreds of miles will speak at Ellsworth with Senator Eugene Hale who will make his only speech of the campaign in his home town. Mr. Cannon will be the guest of Senator Hale over Sunday and possibly election day.

A demonstration will be made this evening at Waterville, the residence of Charles W. Davis, the democratic candidate for governor, and Mr. Davis will make his concluding address there. Gov. William T. Cobb, who was nominated for a second term in the gubernatorial chair, is assigned to speak at Vinland Haven, Congressman Littlefield at Rockland, his own city. Congressman Powers of the Fourth Maine district at Lincoln, Senator Lodge at Gardiner, Congressman Cole at Dennistown and Congressman Hamilton at Presque Isle.

ROME, Sept. 8.—Francis Xavier which to become effective requires the papal sanction. It is predicted that the choice of Father Wernz as general of the Company of Jesus will result in the infusion of new life into the organization. He is recognized in church circles as a progressive man of the present day ideas and extremely energetic.

CONDEMNED TO DIE

Minister of Foreign Affairs Escaped From Prison

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 8.—News of the condemnation to death and subsequent escape from prison of Emilio De Leon, minister of foreign affairs in Guatemala, was brought yesterday by Jose Maria Gamboa, brother of the Mexican minister to Guatemala, Frederico Gamboa. Jose Gamboa said that about the middle of last month, DeLeon was suspected of treason and sentenced to be shot. Through the influence of a foreign diplomat, Gamboa said, the condemned minister was able to escape from prison and was taken safely aboard a steamer at San Jose, Guatemala. DeLeon is now in Mexico City, Gamboa said, with his estates in Guatemala confiscated and his family still in that country.

SHAH MUST SIGN FRENCH PEOPLE

Stores in Tehoran Willing Martyrs Says Archbishop Farley

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The Most

Rev. John M. Farley, archbishop of New York, arrived today from Liverpool on steamer Campania. He was asked about the pope and replied: "He is quite well. I saw him three times."

Speaking of the French situation, Archbishop Farley said: "I have written compromise with the clergy before the 11th of December or the French clergy will be stripped of all they have. The feeling of the French clergy on the subject may be well illustrated by what Monsignor Leont and others of the clergy said: 'We have written "no surrender" on our banner. We are ready to be stripped of everything, and if that is done, we will begin all over again and evangelize France as the apostles did.' "The French are willing martyrs if not be," continued the archbishop. "No man can be a more willing martyr than the Frenchman. They are being martyred every day in the east. You know that a few bad men can make more noise than a whole city. It is all nonsense to suppose that there is no faith in France. The bad element among the laity at the head of the government have encouraged all this discussion of church property that they might benefit thereby. I will give you an instance. A group of men made fifteen million francs by the confiscation of the convent of the Sacred Heart alone. This confiscation business is simply a game of stealing on the part of the irreligious men."

There is but One Real Soda Cracker because there is but one that comes to you just as it comes from the oven.

Others lose their value by being exposed to the air, absorbing moisture and collecting dust.

The real soda cracker is Uneeda Biscuit kept fresh and clean by the protecting package

5c

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY.

REPORT IN COTTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The department of agriculture today announced that on Monday next there will be issued a report of the condition of cotton in the United States. On the same day the agricultural department also will issue a report on the condition of various crops and will embrace a much larger list than heretofore.

Something New

Vermont Yellow Colored Butterine at 15 cents per pound. Absolutely impossible to tell it in color or taste from the best creamy butter.

FLYNN'S MARKET, 137 Gorham St.

Wall Paper

97 Appleton St.

High Grade Plumbing and Steam Work

AGENTS FOR THE CRAWFORD BOILER

THE H. R. BARKER MFG. CO.

158-170 Middle Street

LOWELL MASS.

Every Woman

Interested and should know about the wonderful MARVEL Hairing Spray. The new hairing spray. Apply to the hair and it will grow full, thick and shining. It is the only one that is guaranteed to cure all the troubles of women. It is the only one that is guaranteed to cure all the troubles of women. It is the only one that is guaranteed to cure all the troubles of women.

FOR ONE DOLLAR

you can get more advertising and a wider distribution throughout the city and suburbs in The Sun than you can get for three dollars in all the other papers in Lowell. Why? Because The Sun has a larger circulation than all the other daily papers combined. It is

LOWELL'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

PLUMBING DONE AS IT SHOULD BE

BY

CARROLL BROS.

Plumbers, Steam Fitters and Sheet Metal Workers

36 MIDDLE ST. TELEPHONE 1650

CLARA CLEMENS

DAUGHTER OF MARK TWAIN GOING ON STAGE

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The World today says: Clara Clemens, a daughter of Mark Twain will become a professional singer this season and will make her first professional appearance in this country at Norfolk, Conn., on Sept. 22.

Miss Clemens who is the possessor of a rich contralto voice has spent several years preparing for concert work at the best school in Europe. She made her professional debut at Florence, Italy, a year ago.

WEDS CHINAMAN

WHITE GIRL GOT LICENSE IN NASHUA.

NASHUA, N. H., Sept. 8.—Wong Goo, a Chinaman of Cambridge, Mass., and Miss Grace Black, a white girl, who were recently refused a license to marry by the city clerk at Cambridge, were married here yesterday afternoon by City Solicitor Ivory C. Eaton.

City Clerk C. Eaton

City Clerk C. Eaton declined to issue the license, until he had called on the Cambridge city clerk to ascertain the grounds upon which that official had acted in refusing. Under the New Hampshire law the Nashua city clerk found himself obliged to issue the license. But he refused to issue a license to marry them. The city solicitor was then sought and the knot was tied.

Mr. and Mrs. Wong Goo left on a late afternoon train for Cambridge, where they are to live. The bride gave her name as Grace Black, the daughter of Joseph Black of Framingham, Mass., and said she was 19, and was born in Medway, Mass. She declared that she was an orphan and said Wong was the only friend she ever had, and she loved him.

COTTON FUTURES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Cotton futures closed steady; closing bids: Sept. 8.50, Oct. 8.41, Nov. 8.35, Dec. 8.27, Jan. 8.14, Feb. 8.08, March 8.02, April 7.92, May 7.87.

Spot closed quiet; mid ups 9.50, mid gulf 10.65, sales, 20 bales.

NORTH ATLANTIC FLEET.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—When the North Atlantic fleet completes its target practice and maneuvers it will be sent south for a winter cruise, prior to which, however, the ships will rendezvous at Hampton Roads for repairs.

Boston & Northern Street Railway Co.

NOTICE TO PATRONS

Regular trips will begin on the new Fletcher street route Tuesday a. m., September 11th, 1906.

The Christian Hill and Varnum avenue lines will be connected via Prescott, Central, Middlesex, Thorndike, Fletcher and Parkstreet streets.

The lines will be connected via Merrimack and Parkstreet streets.

See Monday's papers for detailed schedule.

O. A. STEVENS, Division Superintendent.

Lowell, September 5, 1906.

Lowell Commercial College

The Oldest School Newest Methods

FOUNDED 1859, INC. 1905

Register Now.....

Fall Term Begins Sept. 4

Day and Evening Sessions. Endorsed by Business Men

ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE FREE.

No Better School Anywhere

7 MERRIMACK STREET.

Shorthand

Typewriting

Bookkeeping

Situation Departments

In Boston and Lowell.

TEXTILE NOTES

Interesting Items From Mill Centres

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 10.—Shoemaker Bros., proprietors of the Capital City Woolen Mills, are having plans drawn for a new factory building to be added to their present plant on Eighth Street between Vine and Market streets. It is expected that the contract will be awarded within a few days and the building completed this fall. The building now being planned is 100 by 100 feet, high, it being the intention to add more stories as the business requires. It will be located between their two large buildings, and when added to the present properties will give the plant almost a solid quarter block of factory buildings. It will be necessary to raise the office room, which is on the north side of the operating plant. The new building will be used almost exclusively for the operating department. The management states that the capacity of the plant is not equal to the business and they are not able to keep up with orders, although they are now working a force of 200 people. The company is behind with orders and is not able to go after new business, as would be possible with more room and increased factory equipment. It is the intention to increase the number of operating machines from 18 to 20 and have one of the latest, best lighted and sanitary rooms possible.

MANY NEW NEW JERSEY MILLS

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Sept. 10.—Since the first of the year New Jersey has been going through a remarkable industrial development, as evidenced by the unprecedented volume of the building operations in factories and mills in the state. Statistics available from several cities indicate that the building operations of this character throughout the state between Jan. 1 and Aug. 1 of the current year aggregated about $10,000,000. This constructive evidence of industrial growth is not confined to any one section of the state, but is distributed.

MILLS CHANGE HANDS

WESTERVILLE, R. I., Sept. 10.—The Roger Williams Cotton Mills at Arcadia have changed hands and are now the property of George C. Guden and Edward M. Tillinghast. Beginning with the first of September the plant commenced operations under the firm name of Guden & Tillinghast. The mills are to be stocked with new machinery, and the production will be all kinds of cotton goods. The company will employ about the same number of help as heretofore, and are now ready to receive employees in place of those who left during the time the plant was still.

COTTON MILL EJECTS OFFICERS

SHELBYVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 10.—J. H. Peterson, Ernest Caldwell, R. S. McGill, T. M. Robinson and W. J. McGill have been elected directors of the Shelby Cotton Mills for the current year. The board at once organized by the election of the following active officers: J. B. Peterson, president; T. M. Robinson, vice-president; W. J. McGill, secretary-treasurer; Ernest Caldwell, attorney. A thorough examination showed that the mills were in excellent financial condition, and the recent placing of new machinery, while largely increasing the capacity of the mills, will greatly aid to their value and efficiency.

WOOL MARKET STRONG

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 10.—A buyer for the American Woolen Co. has been here most of the week looking over the field and has given the wool market a stronger tone. It is reported that he has bought large lines of Soda Springs wools in original bags, and also a good bright unwashed wools. Before his arrival the market here was drab, but holders now feel confident that the tide has turned. The effect of the purchases has certainly been beneficial.

THE CARPET MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—In the carpet and rug trade the fall season is fast proving to be one of the largest in the history of the trade. The demand for rugs, both domestic and imported, has been enormous, but this does not appear to have in any way cut down the request for carpetings. Very large sales have been made of three-quarter goods, and the orders continue to come forward in a steady stream.

Owing to the high cost of raw material and the fact that many of the mills are heavily sold ahead prices are being advanced from time to time on many lines. Since the opening of the fall season last May advances have been named on tapestries, wool velvets, wiltons and ingratins. What prices will be named at the opening of spring lines in November remains to be seen, but members of the trade are predicting very stiff advances all along the line.

Quite a few of the larger retail houses who have sized up the situation are confident that higher prices will be named and have been putting in many orders for staple lines of rugs and carpets in order to be covered to some extent when advances are made. This is particularly true with regard to rugs.

During the past season the demand for rugs has been very heavy, and stocks of wiltons, Brussels, axminsters, velvets, tapestry and Smyrna rugs have been greatly reduced. The various mills in this country are well supplied with orders, and while some are now refusing to look any further orders at present, others are taking on new business only at higher prices. Reports from Philadelphia state that business has shown a little improvement, but is still anything but satisfactory. The higher cost of raw materials, however, has cut down profits considerably, and as the demand has not been sufficient to warrant an advance, there is little margin of profit. It is now claimed that about 10 per cent of the business in Philadelphia is running, but there also seems to be doubt as to whether this can be maintained.

During the summer there has been a very heavy demand for Chinese and Japanese matting, and also a good request for domestic made grass matting. The mills have had all the business they could handle. Linoleums and oilcloths have sold exceptionally well, and several manufacturers have now withdrawn their lines from the market as their plants are sold up.

FIGHT TO FINISH

McClellan Begins His War on Hearst

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—There is to be no compromise between Mayor McClellan and Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall. Compromise is impossible, even in the face of the possibility of the nomination of William R. Hearst at Buffalo. So far as the mayor is concerned, it is to be war to the knife on both Mr. Hearst and Mr. Murphy, and this war is to be carried to the floor of the state convention.

The mayor will do all in his power to have delegates chosen at the primaries and district conventions favorable to William T. Jerome, and he believes New York county will vote for the district attorney in the convention. All this was made clear yesterday. The mayor views with contempt the efforts of democrats who are seeking an alliance with the Independence League, which is designed to bring to an end party rule in this state. He is not alarmed at reports of alliances between Murphy, Hearst, Odell and other strange bed-fellows.

The mayor intends to have an alignment of his friends and enemies. He will regard as his enemy anyone who is not for Jerome in this election. Any man who talks compromise is also to be regarded as an enemy. Circumstances make it impossible that the mayor and Murphy should ever be friends again. It is not a quarrel between two old friends. It goes deeper than that, because it affects the integrity of the city government and honesty in public affairs and politics. The whole truth as to why the mayor will not again ally with Murphy and J. Sergeant Crann may be revealed during the primary canvass.

In the primary canvass itself two questions are understood to be considered involved by the mayor. One is whether a man holding a responsible position in the party and in the city government should have his subordinate vote against his administration and the public interest.

Another is whether an irresponsible "boss" should give these subordinates orders against the interests of the responsible head of the city government, and against the interests of the city and the public.

These considerations will guide Mayor McClellan in his conduct during the primary struggle. He intends to swing the axe, as he indicated in his interview given on the American line pier, when he landed from Europe Saturday night. If city employees elect to cast their lot with Murphy and the Independence League they will all have their chance to say what they stand. No sentimental reasons will be any of them if they are obdurate to what the mayor considers the interests of the city and the democratic organization, to which he owes his election.

OFFER MADE FOR THE FAIR GROUNDS IS PENDING.

In all probability the fair grounds will be sold to a Lowell party on Wednesday. The overtures were made Saturday at a meeting of the committee empowered to sell. The papers have not been passed yet and the proposed purchaser has until next Wednesday to sign or decline final documents.

ELMS CHAMPS

Ketchups Badly Beaten in Deciding Game

The Elms defeated the Ketchup A. C. in the "rubber" game of the season and made them look like bad money, winning the game, championship, for purse and gate receipts by the one sided rout of 3 to 2. The Elms pounded the two Ketchup pitchers and took the heart out of their opponents by scoring 9 runs in the first inning. The score:

ELMS.	At bats	Runs	Hits	Errors
Leppert, 2d	4	1	1	0
O'Brien, 3d	4	2	2	1
Bochard, 1st	4	3	2	1
Fox, 1b	4	1	2	1
Lynn, 2b	4	2	0	0
Giam, 3b	4	1	1	0
Hunt, 3b	4	2	2	0
Allen, 3b	4	3	4	0
Gandy, p	4	3	0	1
Totals	36	21	27	4

KETCHUP CLUB.	At bats	Runs	Hits	Errors
T. Huddy, 2d	5	1	0	2
McAlon, 1st	5	1	2	0
Pahey, 3b	4	1	2	0
McCarthy, 2b	5	2	2	1
McDon, p	5	1	2	1
Edmund, 1b	5	2	0	1
Kelly, 3b	4	1	2	1
Donovan, 1b	4	1	1	1
Mullin, 1b	4	2	0	1
Totals	40	14	24	10

Two more hits by Lyons, 2, Leppert, O'Brien, McEllen, Phiney, Kelly, Gandy, at Kelly, Stolen bases—Leppert, 2, DuCharme, 2, Fox, Lyons, Phiney, 2, Donovan, 2, Huddy, Pahey, Kelly, McCarthy, 1. Hit by pitched ball—Hunt, Wild. Out—Gandy, Cronin. Struck out—by Gandy, Donovan, Mullin, by McCarthy, Fox, 2, Lyons, O'Brien, 2, DuCharme, Leppert. Bases on balls—O'Brien, Hunt, Lyons. Innings pitched by Gandy, by McCarthy, 7. Umpire Nestor. Attendance 70.

N. E. LEAGUE STANDING.

	Won	Lost	P. C.
Worcester	53	42	.55
Lynn	48	41	.54
Lawrence	46	41	.52
New Bedford	43	53	.44
Manchester	37	57	.39
High River	35	59	.37
Lowell	31	62	.33
Wells	29	65	.30

N. E. LEAGUE RESULTS.

(Saturday Games.)
At Worcester—(First game)—Worcester 2, Lowell 1. (Second game)—Worcester 14, Lowell 2. (Tie.)
At Fall River—(First game)—Fall River 2, Manchester 1. (2nd innings.) (Second game)—Manchester 1, Fall River 1.
At Haverhill—(First game)—Haverhill 2, New Bedford 1. (Second game)—New Bedford 13, Haverhill 6.
At Lawrence—Lawrence 5, Lynn 0.

AMERICAN LEAGUE STANDING.

	Won	Lost	P. C.
New York	77	48	.616
Chicago	76	49	.608
Cleveland	68	54	.561
Philadelphia	68	56	.550
St. Louis	65	61	.516
Detroit	56	67	.454
Washington	49	77	.390
Boston	40	83	.323

AMERICAN LEAGUE RESULTS.

(Saturday Games.)
Washington 6, Boston 2.
Chicago 4, Detroit 3.
Cleveland 4, St. Louis 0.
New York 11, Philadelphia 4.
(Sunday Games.)
At St. Louis—(First game)—Cleveland 2, St. Louis 0. (Second game)—St. Louis 3, Cleveland 1.
At Chicago—Chicago 4, Detroit 0.

GAMES TODAY.

Boston at New York.
Washington at Philadelphia.
Detroit at Chicago.

GAMES THIS WEEK.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Monday—New York at Boston, Philadelphia at Brooklyn.
Tuesday—New York at Boston, Philadelphia at Brooklyn, Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.
Wednesday—New York at Boston, Philadelphia at Brooklyn, Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.
Thursday—Philadelphia at Boston, Brooklyn at New York, Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.
Friday—Philadelphia at Boston, Brooklyn at New York.
Saturday—Philadelphia at Boston, Brooklyn at New York, Chicago at St. Louis, Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.
Sunday—Pittsburgh at Chicago, St. Louis at Cincinnati.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Monday—Boston at New York, Washington at Philadelphia, Detroit at Chicago.
Tuesday and Wednesday—Boston at New York, Washington at Philadelphia, St. Louis at Chicago, Cleveland at Detroit.
Thursday—Boston at Philadelphia, St. Louis at Chicago, New York at Washington, Cleveland at Detroit.
Friday—Boston at Philadelphia, New York at Washington, Detroit at Cleveland, St. Louis at Chicago.
Saturday—Boston at Philadelphia, Cleveland at St. Louis, Detroit at Chicago.
Sunday—Detroit at Chicago, Cleveland at St. Louis.

AMATEUR BASEBALL.

Saturday games:
At Met's field, Chelmsford 15, West Chelmsford 4.
At the Westlands, Lowell 8, 12, Dragons 6.
At Middlesex Village, Middlesex 21, M. C. A. 8.
At Cambridge, Westford A. A. 15, Lowell Americans 12.
At Billerica, T. R. & T's 13, Wampanoag 8.

CARS COLLIDED

ON CURVE IN BOSTON SUBWAY YESTERDAY.

There was a collision of electric cars in the subway on a curve near Scollay square in Boston yesterday afternoon. A Revere car crashed into another that was standing on the track on the curve. Two heavy women who were sitting near the front were thrown over the seat in front of them and a little girl was thrown forward out of the car and was seriously bruised. The women were badly scared. There were three other passengers on the car and they saw the collision coming and escaped injury by bracing themselves against the seats.

MAINE ELECTION

HON. CHARLES E. LITTLEFIELD, REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

Big Vote Being Cast in Pine Tree State

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 10.—A fair September day, interesting and important issues, and the determination of party leaders to get out every possible vote, all combined today to bring throngs of citizens to the polls shortly after they were opened. Voting will be continued until 5 o'clock in the afternoon and it is generally expected that a big vote will be cast.

DANIEL J. MCGILICUDDY, DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

not only with the liquor question, but also indirectly with the question of labor legislation in the lower branch of congress. This condition was brought about by Charles E. Littlefield's failure to vote for certain labor measures advocated by the American Federation of Labor.

Mr. Littlefield's candidacy for reelection brought about strong opposition from the leader of the federation, Samuel Gompers, who personally virtually a "stand-pat" issue, means a continuance of the prohibitory laws, backed by the Cobb-Sturgis bill, which was passed by the last legislature and which was the object of severe criticism by the Democrats during the campaign. A republican legislature would not only strengthen the position of a republican chief executive but it would assure the reelection of United States Senator William P. Frye.

COAL DEALERS

To be Sued for Alleged Conspiracy

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 10.—Papers are being prepared in a suit of considerable public interest to be brought probably today or tomorrow in the United States district court of this city. The suit will be instituted by Charles H. Hale, a coal dealer and one of several local dealers, under the original clause of the Sherman anti-trust law, the allegation being a conspiracy to injure Mr. Hale who is an independent dealer, the plaintiff claiming also that the action of the dealers is in restraint of trade. Mr. Hale says that the local dealers have used their influence to cause him to be experienced much difficulty in getting coal. Wholesalers refused to take his orders he claims, while others would accept them and deliver but did not deliver as much coal as he was entitled to. He would make so much delay as to be embarrassing to Mr. Hale. Sixteen of the local dealers will be made parties defendant in the suit.

PANIC ON A CAR

Explosion in Controller of Lowell Electric

WOMEN TRAMPLED UPON

Several Persons Were Badly Injured

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—An explosion in the front controller on an outward bound Lowell electric car on Broadway, opposite Mt. Pleasant street, East Somerville, about 10.50 last night caused a small-scale panic among the passengers who rushed to the doors, and in the wild scramble some of them jumped or fell from the car and were injured more or less.

A number of women fainted in the car and on the street from the shock. They were assisted to the drug store of E. B. Carpenter & Co., where restoratives were applied to them.

Mrs. W. T. Battle, of 61 Adams street, Somerville, was the most seriously affected by the shock. She lapsed into unconsciousness upon being carried to the drug store. She was taken to her home in an ambulance.

Mrs. J. J. Beals, of 551 Broadway, Somerville, was assisted to the drug store, where she was given treatment. She was taken home by her husband.

Mrs. William A. Atwell, who resides at the corner of Broadway and Adams street, Somerville, jumped off the car in her effort to escape being burned and was knocked down by the excited passengers in the rush behind her. She was trampled upon and bruised. She also suffered from shock. She was assisted home by her husband.

Most of the women who suffered from shock at the sight of the flames leaping up were able to resume their journey home when given restoratives. Their dresses were soiled and torn in falling to the ground and by being walked upon by the excited crowd.

The screams of the women added to the excitement in the car. The car was in charge of conductor 220 and motorman 707. It left the Sullivan square station about 10.15 with about 50 passengers aboard.

RIGBY FAMILY

SURPRISED BY THEIR FRIENDS SATURDAY NIGHT.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rigby of Pawtucketville were agreeably surprised at their home Saturday night when forty friends came unexpectedly at their home. Mr. Rigby was formerly an overseer in the Merrimack mill works, and owing to his popularity his friends presented him a gold watch, chain and chain. Miss Isabel Phelps made the presentation speech with words that were timely and well chosen; then Mr. Rigby, with some embarrassment, thanked them for the kindly proof of friendship exemplified by the gift. The evening passed in merry fashion and music and refreshments were enjoyed. There were guests from Boston, Everett and Nashua. Mrs. George Rigby and Miss Alice Axon served.

HATHAWAY'S

DAILY MATINEE Beginning Monday, Sept. 10 DAILY MATINEE PRICES—Matinee Only 10, 20, 30c. Evenings, 10, 20, 30 and 50c.

ANOTHER BIG SHOW

Vaudeville's CLEVEREST SINGING NOVELTY SIDNEY DEAN & CO. Presenting "CHRISTMAS ON THE ISLAND."

Arthur & Mildred Boylan & Co. Presenting Jack and Jill.

THOMAS & PAYNE Colored Singers and Dancers.

FLORENCE SAUNDERS A Real American Soprano.

America's Foremost Comedians, Barney—FERGUSON & MACK—John STIEFF PIANOS USED.

COAL DEALERS

To be Sued for Alleged Conspiracy

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 10.—Papers are being prepared in a suit of considerable public interest to be brought probably today or tomorrow in the United States district court of this city. The suit will be instituted by Charles H. Hale, a coal dealer and one of several local dealers, under the original clause of the Sherman anti-trust law, the allegation being a conspiracy to injure Mr. Hale who is an independent dealer, the plaintiff claiming also that the action of the dealers is in restraint of trade. Mr. Hale says that the local dealers have used their influence to cause him to be experienced much difficulty in getting coal. Wholesalers refused to take his orders he claims, while others would accept them and deliver but did not deliver as much coal as he was entitled to. He would make so much delay as to be embarrassing to Mr. Hale. Sixteen of the local dealers will be made parties defendant in the suit.

PANIC ON A CAR

Explosion in Controller of Lowell Electric

WOMEN TRAMPLED UPON

Several Persons Were Badly Injured

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—An explosion in the front controller on an outward bound Lowell electric car on Broadway, opposite Mt. Pleasant street, East Somerville, about 10.50 last night caused a small-scale panic among the passengers who rushed to the doors, and in the wild scramble some of them jumped or fell from the car and were injured more or less.

A number of women fainted in the car and on the street from the shock. They were assisted to the drug store of E. B. Carpenter & Co., where restoratives were applied to them.

Mrs. W. T. Battle, of 61 Adams street, Somerville, was the most seriously affected by the shock. She lapsed into unconsciousness upon being carried to the drug store. She was taken to her home in an ambulance.

Mrs. J. J. Beals, of 551 Broadway, Somerville, was assisted to the drug store, where she was given treatment. She was taken home by her husband.

Mrs. William A. Atwell, who resides at the corner of Broadway and Adams street, Somerville, jumped off the car in her effort to escape being burned and was knocked down by the excited passengers in the rush behind her. She was trampled upon and bruised. She also suffered from shock. She was assisted home by her husband.

Most of the women who suffered from shock at the sight of the flames leaping up were able to resume their journey home when given restoratives. Their dresses were soiled and torn in falling to the ground and by being walked upon by the excited crowd.

The screams of the women added to the excitement in the car. The car was in charge of conductor 220 and motorman 707. It left the Sullivan square station about 10.15 with about 50 passengers aboard.

RIGBY FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rigby of Pawtucketville were agreeably surprised at their home Saturday night when forty friends came unexpectedly at their home. Mr. Rigby was formerly an overseer in the Merrimack mill works, and owing to his popularity his friends presented him a gold watch, chain and chain. Miss Isabel Phelps made the presentation speech with words that were timely and well chosen; then Mr. Rigby, with some embarrassment, thanked them for the kindly proof of friendship exemplified by the gift. The evening passed in merry fashion and music and refreshments were enjoyed. There were guests from Boston, Everett and Nashua. Mrs. George Rigby and Miss Alice Axon served.

SEE Pinehurst Park Count Rumford's Birthplace And All the Many Interesting Sights of the Interesting City of Woburn.

HATHAWAY'S

DAILY MATINEE Beginning Monday, Sept. 10 DAILY MATINEE PRICES—Matinee Only 10, 20, 30c. Evenings, 10, 20, 30 and 50c.

ANOTHER BIG SHOW

Vaudeville's CLEVEREST SINGING NOVELTY SIDNEY DEAN & CO. Presenting "CHRISTMAS ON THE ISLAND."

Arthur & Mildred Boylan & Co. Presenting Jack and Jill.

THOMAS & PAYNE Colored Singers and Dancers.

FLORENCE SAUNDERS A Real American Soprano.

America's Foremost Comedians, Barney—FERGUSON & MACK—John STIEFF PIANOS USED.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

3 Nights Commencing Tonight—1 Matinee, Wednesday, Sept. 12 Wm. A. Brady and Jos. R. Gieseler's Production of "AS YE SOW" Prices—25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00.

THURSDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 13, THE OLD HOMESTEAD Including the famous Old Homestead Double Quartette. Seats on sale Tuesday.

Friday and Saturday Evenings, Sept. 14 and 15—Matinee Saturday. Henry W. Savage offers "COLLEGE WIDOW" Seats on sale Wednesday.

Preserving Time...

Two articles you need for preserving time that you can't afford to get along without:

OUR IDEAL FOOD CUTTER 95c

Cuts all kinds of fruit and vegetables.

Our Slanting Dial Scale $1.19

Weights 24 lbs. and is accurate. The dial is slanting, requiring no stooping to see the figures.

PARAFFINE WAX for sealing Jelly, fruits, etc.

Time to Touch Up Your Floors

OUR NO-MAR FLOOR STAIN

does not scratch like ordinary stains, and gives splendid results.

FLOOR WAX—All kinds.

FLOOR BRUSHES—For hard wood floors.

WEIGHTED BRUSHES.

DRY MOPS.

BRONZE PAINTS.

The Thompson Hardware Co. 254-256 Merrimack Street

COOK WILL DIE JEWS IN A PANIC

Legislator Stabbed by Irate Fugitives Throng Railroad Station at Siedloe

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 10.—State Representative Lawrence B. Cook of the 5th legislative district in Mercer county, dying of stab wounds inflicted by Justice of the Peace Andrew W. McMillan of Carnegie. McMillan is locked up.

McMillan for some time had been suspicious of undue intimacy between his wife and Cook. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. McMillan left her home in Carnegie, a borough adjoining the city, saying she was going to visit a sister in the East end. McMillan followed her and saw her meet Cook. He trailed ad the two until they entered a house on Lawn street. In a presumably respectable residence district of Pittsburgh, McMillan waited some time and went to the house. He brushed aside the woman of the house and finding a room with the door locked burst it open and discovered his wife and Cook under circumstances that left no doubt of their guilt. McMillan attacked Cook. The battle lasted for some minutes, when McMillan drew his pocketknife and stabbed Cook five times. Two of the wounds are in the breast, one in the side and two in the back.

the way in which God manifests his power." WHITCOMB ON EDUCATION. Arthur K. Whitcomb, superintendent of the Lowell schools, spoke on "Education" at the Centerville M. E. church Sunday evening. He spoke of the educational movement in New England and of its progress everywhere on the planet during the last 40 years. He said that at the present time practically all the children in Massachusetts attend school. He spoke of the triumph of the public school system in France, and the movement along similar lines in England. He discussed the advantages of modern educational methods over the earlier methods, the better schoolhouses and school books, the complete change in the feeling that exists between the pupils and the teacher and the necessity for education in competing with trained minds in modern days.

TALK ON ATHEISM

Interesting Sermon by Rev. Mr. Billings

AT FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH

Supt. Whitcomb Spoke on Education

At the First Unitarian church Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. C. T. Billings, preached on "The Atheism of Today." He found his text in Gen. 3:8, and he said, in part: "And the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of Jehovah God amongst the trees of the garden." "There is a practical and a theoretical atheism," Mr. Billings said. "The dwelling in Eden believed in God, yet felt there was a place there where he was not. "So our atheism is practical rather than theoretical. Most men believe in God or take refuge in agnosticism. Few deny this existence, and yet the practical atheism is very prevalent. Even with us there seem to be large tracts God does not occupy. "With most of us the vital sense of God is rare. It comes in crises, in the presence of the wonders of nature, or from the reading of great passages of literature, or from the contact with noble lives, or from the deeper experiences of our own lives. "When evolution was first heralded, men thought it did away with God altogether. But deeper study showed that it was not a power in itself, but

VISITING KNIGHTS

ENTERTAINED AT THE GENOA CLUB YESTERDAY.

Members of the Knights of Columbus, Brighton, Allston, Brookline and Newton, came to Lowell yesterday by special cars and went up the river to the Knights of Columbus camp, known as the Genoa club. There were three carloads of the members and they spent a most enjoyable day. The return trip was made during the evening.

J. V. DONOGHUE

ADDRESSES ST. JOHN'S T. A. SOCIETY.

The St. John's T. A. Society of North Chelmsford held a special meeting yesterday morning, and had for a guest, President John V. Donoghue of the C. T. A. lecturing bureau of New England, in whose charge that society is, as district deputy of the C. T. A. U. of the archdiocese. Mr. Donoghue gave an interesting talk on the objects and aims of the union and also the lecturing bureau. He was warmly applauded at the close.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10.—The predictions made in these despatches on August 13 of a Jewish massacre at Siedloe, Russian Poland, unhappily have been justified by the fighting which broke out Saturday night and developed yesterday into a carnival of indiscriminate slaughter and pillage in which the soldiers and the mob took part. Jews were shot and bayoneted in the streets of the town. Houses and shops were broken into and sacked. Valuables were carried off and offered for sale by soldiers to passengers on passing trains.

In addition to the Jews a number of Christians and even some officers met their death in the fighting. The number of victims has not yet been established but a conservative estimate places it at 10. The Jewish fugitives who thronged the railroad stations at Siedloe are in a state of panic.

Reports received here from Warsaw and other towns in the vicinity of Siedloe place the number of victims at several hundred. The early reports of the Siedloe massacre put the responsibility at the door of the terrorists but fugitives do claim that the soldiers never would have been allowed to get so completely out of hand without the complicity, if not the actual direction of their officers. The first reports received of the Siedloe massacre last June said the terrorists were to blame there also. It is difficult to obtain details of the trouble at Siedloe as the town was surrounded yesterday by soldiers who allowed nobody to enter. Passengers, however, who arrived at Warsaw during the night gave the following account of the slaughter. After the murder of a policeman by terrorists on Saturday night and the firing of a volley by troops into the crowd which resulted in the killing of two citizens and the wounding of many more, the terrorists met and decided to exact vengeance by inaugurating a general campaign against the police and the troops, similar to the recent activity along the same lines in Warsaw. During Sunday morning 12 policemen and soldiers were killed. As a result of this the Lithuanian regiment, in a state of infuriated anger left its barracks in the afternoon and marched into the Jewish quarter, shooting right and left as it went. The troops were joined by crowds of hoodlums who operated in the plundering and wantonly destroyed everything they were unable to carry away. The scale of the violence was such that under the very eyes of the soldiers, who were under the impression that they were under the control of the police, a correspondent of the Associated Press who was not able to get into Siedloe yesterday started for Transcoulthi this morning.

IN FLAMES

BUILDINGS AND BAZAAR WERE DESTROYED.

SIEDLOE, Sept. 10.—Six buildings and the big bazaar of the city are now in flames, adding another terror to the killing and plundering which has been going on here for the last 36 hours. Frequent shots and occasional volley firing is still heard in various parts of the town but because of the general panic it is difficult to learn what is transpiring.

Apparently there have been thus far about 60 persons killed and 200 wounded. Hundreds of Jews today are at the railroad station trying to get out of town but Siedloe is surrounded by troops who do not permit exit or entrance. Field guns occupy points of vantage on the principal streets. Without doubt the terrorists are responsible for provoking the massacre by their fusillades against soldiers and policemen. Troops surrounded the houses from which this firing came and poured in volleys through windows and doors. This was followed by a search of the premises, which soon developed into wholesale plundering and then into massacre and slaughter. The trouble began on Plekhan street and spread rapidly to a large portion of the town. Almost all the Jewish shops have been looted. Owners who defended their property were killed or wounded. Any person seen leaving a house or looking out of a window was shot without mercy.

REVOLUTIONISTS

FIRING AT SOLDIERS FROM THE WINDOWS.

WARSAW, Sept. 10.—A telegram received here from Siedloe today says the rioting and shooting there continue. The revolutionists are firing at the soldiers from windows and the troops reply with volleys. The Lithuanian regiment took the principal part in the massacre. Some passengers on a through train were hit by stray shots on Sunday. The authorities have sent in a detachment of artillery from Rembertow.

OPERA HOUSE

One of the most touching episodes ever written in a drama is the pathetic story of the baby stolen from the mother by the father, for revenge, as told by Dr. Snyder, in his "AS YET SOW," which will be presented here for three nights commencing tonight and one matinee on Wednesday at the Opera House. The author, Dora Leblond, the heroine, tells of her little girl who was stolen from her arms by its selfish and unnatural father while she is holding the minister's adopted child sleeping in her arms. She tells how she is reminded of her own lost child. In her grief, she says "John, she makes me think of my own baby who, maybe, is lying in a cage and wretchedness, and maybe is dead."

Afterwards, she learns that the very child on whom she has lavished so much affection is her own child, who has always been tenderly cared for. In one of the large audiences that have characterized every performance of this rural drama during its stay in Chicago, there was a quiet, pale-faced woman who was much affected by this pathetic story, so realistically presented and brought out the author following story: "It is like a bit of my own story. Five years ago I lost a dear, little girl, in almost the same way, for I was divorced from a cruel, drunken husband, and the Judge decreed that the child should be mine. My husband was much enraged at this. He and I, watching his opportunity he came to my house and stole the baby. I have been unable to find the slightest trace of him. I have searched every children's home I could learn of. I understand that my husband has married again, but I cannot ascertain if the child is still with him or not. The story, in your play, of the little child has brought back my sorrow, comforted me, for it is possible that my child is still living may have found a happy home, where she is as well taken care of as though I had her myself. Witnessing your play has been a great comfort to me. You all seem so real," she said, smiling through her tears.

"THE OLD HOMESTEAD"

How far the famous old New England play, "The Old Homestead," will go in the affections of the theatre-going public seems to be a query as unanswerable as the famous question as to who smote Billy Patterson. Suffice it to say that it is now in its twentieth year and is still vigorous in its drawing does not wither nor fade in its popularity. This firm hold on the popular imagination is not yet. This season it is being presented by a company which is practically the same as for a dozen years past. The scenic environment is superb, and the famous double quartet is said to be the best in the world. Mr. Thompson has ever had. The Old Homestead will be seen at the Opera House on Thursday evening, Sept. 13.

"THE COLLEGE WIDOW"

Mrs. Patty Allison has the laughing hit of "The College Widow," which comes to the Opera House on Friday and Saturday evenings, Sept. 14 and 15, and matinee on Saturday. She impersonates Flora Watkins, the daughter of the boarding house keeper and the Nemois of any student behind in his bills. Flora suggests several of Ade's famous separately elaborated in his "Fables in Slung" but the original came under his observation when he was a Chicago newspaper man. She was a proud and unbending cashier in an all-night restaurant, were chosen for the number of rough and ready comedians were always ready to give the cashier a shot. One night she had been under the fire of a long string of bantering customers, the last of whom had given her an awful broadside at which she merely smiled. Ade was right behind ready to pay his check. "You are not angry?" he asked. "Now, do you know," said Haughty Harriet, "that is something I never get."

HATHAWAY THEATRE

"We don't know how they do it, but they do." is the remark that is universally made by Hathaway's theatre patrons, in compliment to the excellence of the vaudeville talent with which the theatre is opening up the season. That isn't the best of it, either, for it is the intention to have each week's entertainment as much better and more popular than the one preceding, with the purpose of making Hathaway's a playhouse where everyone may go with the absolute assurance of a pleasant afternoon or evening. This week's program is calculated to help toward the furtherance of that object.

DEAN & CO.

Dean & Co., in their remarkable singing novelty, "Christmas on the Island," Mr. Dean is seen in the part of a wealthy and somewhat snobbish New Yorker, who is arrested for over-speeding his auto, on the night before Christmas. It is his misfortune to be unable to obtain bail, and he goes to prison at Blackwell's Island for the night. While there he is assigned to the duty of passing out the dinner to the other prisoners, and during the scene in the prison, Mr. Dean and the most delightful ensemble singing. The conversation between the "Feminine Jail-birds" supplies an abundance of fun in addition to the fine singing and the act has scored a tremendous hit wherever it has appeared. Elaborate special scenery is used, the prison, with the convicts in their cells, making a very striking stage picture.

KILLED HIMSELF

Boy Was Rebuked for Keeping Late Hours

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Jesse Weinstein, aged 15, who lived with his parents at 402 East 19th street, killed himself in the hallway of the home shortly after midnight yesterday morning. The boy had a love affair, and had been cautioned by his father for remaining out after 12 o'clock. When he reached his home with two boy companions, he bade them good night, adding, "I'm going on a long journey, and you'll never see me again." On entering the hall he placed a revolver to his head and killed himself. His parents were sitting at the window and saw him enter the house, but did not rebuke him for the late hour he had kept Saturday night.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Williams

THE BELL OF RICHMOND, in which the theatre is opening up the season. That isn't the best of it, either, for it is the intention to have each week's entertainment as much better and more popular than the one preceding, with the purpose of making Hathaway's a playhouse where everyone may go with the absolute assurance of a pleasant afternoon or evening. This week's program is calculated to help toward the furtherance of that object.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The Severin DeDeyn Block company opens its second week at the Academy of Music this evening, with Sidney Toier's beautiful story of Southern life, "The Belle of Richmond," in which the

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The Severin DeDeyn Block company opens its second week at the Academy of Music this evening, with Sidney Toier's beautiful story of Southern life, "The Belle of Richmond," in which the

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The Severin DeDeyn Block company opens its second week at the Academy of Music this evening, with Sidney Toier's beautiful story of Southern life, "The Belle of Richmond," in which the

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The Severin DeDeyn Block company opens its second week at the Academy of Music this evening, with Sidney Toier's beautiful story of Southern life, "The Belle of Richmond," in which the

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The Severin DeDeyn Block company opens its second week at the Academy of Music this evening, with Sidney Toier's beautiful story of Southern life, "The Belle of Richmond," in which the

A Sure Oven That's why the Glenwood

"Makes Cooking Easy"

COOKIN BROS. CO.

35 Market Street. Lowell, Mass.

Your old range taken in exchange.

THE LATE FRANK J. MURRAY.

DIED OF INJURIES

Frank J. Murray Fell From Elevator

Frank J. Murray, aged 45 years, died at the Lowell hospital Saturday night at 10:15 o'clock as a result of injuries received while at work in the Lawrence mills last Tuesday. Shortly before noon Tuesday Murray fell from an elevator in the new mill of the Lawrence company and was removed to the hospital with what were thought to have been slight injuries. Later internal injuries developed and the man's condition gradually grew worse until Saturday when he was placed on the dangerous list.

Deceased lived at 14 Ardell street and was a prominent parishioner of St. Patrick's church, being an active member of the Holy Name society. He was married by a wife, two sons, William and George, and two daughters, Alice Murray and Miss Molly Murray of Montpelier, Vt., and four brothers, William Frederick, John and Edward, and a mother, all of Montpelier, Vt. The body was taken to his home, 14 Ardell street, by J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

The funeral of Frank J. Murray will take place at 8 o'clock tomorrow from his home and at 9 o'clock a requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Patrick's church. O'Donnell & Sons undertakers.

AUTOS CRASHED

SEVERAL PERSONS WERE BADLY INJURED.

HAMPTON BEACH, N. H., SEPT. 10.—In a head-on collision between two automobiles on the North Beach road yesterday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Endicott, chauffeur, and maid of the hotel, were badly shaken up and Miss Mary Toppin and Mrs. Chester Macdon of Hampton had fractured ribs and were cut about the head, while Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sanderson of Hampton were bruised and J. B. Holmes, also of Hampton, was cut and bruised.

DANDROCIDE

A HAIR IN EVERY DROP

For Sale by ELLINGWOOD & CO.

MORE THAN 1200

Shirt waists were sold by us last week. Fashion says that white shirt waists will be the style all winter.

Waists of good lawn or batiste, open front or back, all long sleeves, values up to $1.50, now 69c

Waists of fine lawn, button front or back, long or short sleeves, values up to $1.98, now 97c

Waists of fine lawn or batiste, button front or back, long or short sleeves, values up to $2.98, now $1.93

White net lace waists, front of dainty applique, wash silk lining, button back, long or short sleeves, worth $3.50 special at $1.93

Five styles of cambric corset covers, deep yoke of lace, run with ribbon front and back. You can't find as good value elsewhere for less than 39c; for a few days only 19c

Your choice of our entire stock of shirt waist suits and house dresses now 79c

Bring this ad. with you any time Monday and Tuesday you can have your choice of any of our "Johnny Jones" waists that sold up to $1.25 for 29c

We cannot allow any exchanges or refunds on these

THE UNDERWEAR STORE

114 MERRIMACK ST.

A. G. POLLARD & CO.

The Store for Thrifty People

High Grade Linens

At Unusual Prices

A few pieces from a belated importer that have come to us at under prices. Your Fall Linens may be bought cheaply at these prices.

A heavy bleached Damask, 72 inches wide, worth $1.39, only $1.00 a yard

A fine Irish Damask, worth $2, only $1.25 a yard

A heavy Double Damask, worth $2, only $1.39 a yard

22 inch full bleached Napkins, worth $3.98, only $2.75 a dozen

Odd dozen of 3-4 size Napkins, $7.50 quality, only $5.00 a dozen

Some of John S. Brown's Pattern Cloths, sizes 8-4 by 10-4, usually $7.50, only $5.00 each

40 dozen All Linen Huck Towels, sizes 22 inch by 40 inch, regular price 39 cents, only 25 cents each

On Sale Today, Palmer Street, Left Aisle

The Allenburgs' Foods

Will Save Your Baby

When mother's milk fails don't wait—begin at once with The Allenburgs' Foods. They have saved thousands of babies' lives—they will save your baby. Ask your dealer for book "Infant Feeding and Management" or write direct.

THE ALLENBURGS' FOODS CO., LTD.

114 MERRIMACK ST., LOWELL, MASS.

114 MERRIMACK ST., LOWELL, MASS.

114 MERRIMACK ST., LOWELL, MASS.

114 MERRIMACK ST., LOWELL, MASS.

114 MERRIMACK ST., LOWELL, MASS.

114 MERRIMACK ST., LOWELL, MASS.

114 MERRIMACK ST., LOWELL, MASS.

114 MERRIMACK ST., LOWELL, MASS.

SANITARY NECESSITIES

DISINFECTANT 15c PINT

SULPHUR CANDLES 10c-25c EACH

CHLORIDE OF LIME 10c CAN

C.B. Coburn Co., 63 Market Street

THE LOWELL SUN

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, PROPRIETOR.

Member of the Associated Press.

Three Dollars per Year. Twenty-five Cents per Month

The Sun receives the full day service of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, the greatest news-gathering organization in the world. The entire service received over a leased wire, by our own operator, in our own office in The Sun building.

SWORN CIRCULATION OF THE SUN

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1905 was 14,829

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1906.

JOHN J. HOGAN, Notary Public.

This is a larger circulation than the combined circulation of all the other daily papers in Lowell.

An advertisement placed in The Sun is of more value to the advertiser than if it were inserted in all the other newspapers in Lowell, and the cost of inserting it in The Sun is about ONE-THIRD the price charged by the other papers.

The navy has been indulging in target practice dangerously near the shore. The "navies" is apparently spoiling for a fight.

The demand of the Cuban Insurrectionists is preposterous. They want the present government, which was legally elected, driven from power and a government of their own number installed. Their action in precipitating a rebellion is the best proof that they are unworthy of confidence.

THE CUBAN CRISIS.

The crisis in Cuba shows no improvement, and now some are heard to propose annexation as a remedy. But the expenses of the Insurrection will be so great as to form an obstacle to annexation on the American side. The United States does not want to take a state loaded down with debt.

HOME TARIFF OUTRAGES.

Barter is the basis of all trade. If we would sell, we must also buy. This is true of all nations and men. A tariff is "protective" only to the same extent to which it is prohibitive of trade, and is injurious to both buyer and seller to the extent to which it is prohibitive.

It gives an unjust advantage to one class, that is to those who have a monopoly in the exclusive market produced by it. It discriminates against all who buy in that market, and against all who use houses or commodities within the "protected" zone.

The protection of a monopoly enables it to fix its own price and levy tribute on the people, whereas if no such monopoly exists the importer adds the amount of the tariff to the price of the goods, thus increasing the cost to the consumer in the protected country.

But the plainest and most palpable proof of the overprotection afforded monopolies in this country is that they sell their products abroad much cheaper than at home and yet the stand-patters say there is no need of tariff revision.

AN EDITOR'S TROUBLES.

Our heart-felt sympathies go out to the editor of the Schenectady, N. Y. Monitor in the base ingratitude shown him by the management of a local fair. To make the fair a success for several years past, the editor of the Monitor made great personal sacrifices even to the extent of risking his life on several occasions for the amusement of the crowd. But now that the management of the fair finds itself on solid footing with money to spend, it forgets all about the editor and his printing establishment and sends its printing to a concern out of town. But hear the editor tell the story himself:

"It will be remembered that in the year 1902 the fair management found themselves short of attractions, and at the request of the gentlemen, the editor of the Monitor made a balloon ascension and parachute drop in order to advertise the fair. The stunt proved to be a drawing card and the largest attendance in recent years was the result. The following year, 1903, we were asked to repeat the act, and did so with the result that the management was greeted with a large attendance.

"Beloon ascending and parachute drops were becoming too tame for these fastidious gentlemen, and the next year, 1904, we were asked to enter a case of lions two days in succession. Something had to be done to advertise the fair and we consented, and in the presence of the crowd we entered the cage of lions on the roof garden on two different days. The attendance was large on both these days.

"Most people would have appreciated a favor of this kind and would have reciprocated at the first opportunity. Not so with the members of the system. Forgetting that we had on four different occasions jeopardized our life in order to help advertise the fair, they have sent every dollar's worth of printing out of town, ignoring the home paper entirely."

This is but another proof of "man's ingratitude for benefits forgot" but the editor of the Monitor should not notice little things of that kind but should pursue the even tenor of his way unperturbed by the inability of some people to appreciate his service.

"Great minds, like heaven, are pleased in doing good. Though the ungrateful subject of their favors are barren in return."

The fair people apparently did not think much of the editor's parachute jumps so long as the rope did not break in mid-air so as to make the performance more thrilling.

GOVERNOR GUILD'S PREDICAMENT.

Governor Guild is at odds with his party on the question of tariff revision. He has declared that he would not run again on any platform less liberal than that of last year.

That platform while declaring for the principle of protection, "approved the position taken by our senators and representatives at the last session of congress in favor of present action and we urge that they should continue to press upon their party associates in congress from other states the wisdom of a consideration of the tariff for the purpose of revision and readjustment."

But Gov. Guild had added to that declaration by insisting upon putting five articles on the free list—iron ore, coal, lumber, hides and paper pulp stock. "In his paper, the Commercial Bulletin," says the New York Evening Post, "he has argued long for the principles of revision and reciprocity. Now comes the Roosevelt letter. The chairman of the committee on resolutions for the republican state convention is already selected—Attorney General Moody. Of course a member of the cabinet cannot do otherwise than write tariff resolutions in line with the president's position. Therefore as the tariff revisionists see it today, the tariff plank for Massachusetts republicans is as good as written, for it must be on stand-pat lines to be in accord with the president."

All of which goes to show that in spite of the president leaving the tariff revision republicans in the lurch, the question of revision will not down. Those republicans who feel that they are being robbed by the tariff protected trusts must either take to the woods on election day, or boldly vote for the democratic candidates for congress and for the legislature, who will elect United States senators. The last hope of the republican revisionists for tariff reform within the party went glimmering when President Roosevelt went over to the stand-patters. He evidently regards party more than principle.

In this predicament then it is interesting to watch what Governor Guild will do. If he takes a position against revision this year or opposed to that which he held last year, the inconsistency will be difficult to explain. Under such a situation it should be easy for a strong democratic candidate to defeat him but at present there is no such candidate in sight.

SEEN AND HEARD

She was a thin, narrow, dark-visaged woman with "upside-down" eyes and she carried a package of traps and baskets, which she carried about her neck, and a large watermelon out of her pocket. The woman with the package handed one immediately to this fact, however.

"Thank you," she said, "I am a nurse, and I am going to the hospital to see a patient. I am a nurse, and I am going to the hospital to see a patient. I am a nurse, and I am going to the hospital to see a patient."

"What are you waiting for?" she asked. "I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

"I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient. I am waiting for a patient."

NARROW ESCAPE

CLAREMONT, N. H., Sept. 10.—The bath, oil and main upper portion of the two-story, double tenement at 24 Elm street, owned by Austin L. Hurd, were burned at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, together with a horse and 49 hens belonging to Mr. Hurd. The fire started in the kitchen. The lower tenement was occupied by Mrs. Charles Mulhern and daughters Mary and Winifred, the upper by Mrs. L. J. Green and granddaughter Florence Fisher. Pauline Mackey and little daughter Fannie and Mr. Hurd.

All had narrow escapes from suffocation, and Mrs. Green, an invalid, and Fannie Mackey were removed in their night clothes from rooms on second and third floors. Mrs. Green was taken out on a mattress.

The firemen saved the main building, loss and damage to household goods partially insured. Total estimated loss $2500, insurance $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

CLAREMONT, N. H., Sept. 10.—The bath, oil and main upper portion of the two-story, double tenement at 24 Elm street, owned by Austin L. Hurd, were burned at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, together with a horse and 49 hens belonging to Mr. Hurd. The fire started in the kitchen. The lower tenement was occupied by Mrs. Charles Mulhern and daughters Mary and Winifred, the upper by Mrs. L. J. Green and granddaughter Florence Fisher. Pauline Mackey and little daughter Fannie and Mr. Hurd.

All had narrow escapes from suffocation, and Mrs. Green, an invalid, and Fannie Mackey were removed in their night clothes from rooms on second and third floors. Mrs. Green was taken out on a mattress.

The firemen saved the main building, loss and damage to household goods partially insured. Total estimated loss $2500, insurance $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

CLAREMONT, N. H., Sept. 10.—The bath, oil and main upper portion of the two-story, double tenement at 24 Elm street, owned by Austin L. Hurd, were burned at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, together with a horse and 49 hens belonging to Mr. Hurd. The fire started in the kitchen. The lower tenement was occupied by Mrs. Charles Mulhern and daughters Mary and Winifred, the upper by Mrs. L. J. Green and granddaughter Florence Fisher. Pauline Mackey and little daughter Fannie and Mr. Hurd.

All had narrow escapes from suffocation, and Mrs. Green, an invalid, and Fannie Mackey were removed in their night clothes from rooms on second and third floors. Mrs. Green was taken out on a mattress.

The firemen saved the main building, loss and damage to household goods partially insured. Total estimated loss $2500, insurance $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

CLAREMONT, N. H., Sept. 10.—The bath, oil and main upper portion of the two-story, double tenement at 24 Elm street, owned by Austin L. Hurd, were burned at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, together with a horse and 49 hens belonging to Mr. Hurd. The fire started in the kitchen. The lower tenement was occupied by Mrs. Charles Mulhern and daughters Mary and Winifred, the upper by Mrs. L. J. Green and granddaughter Florence Fisher. Pauline Mackey and little daughter Fannie and Mr. Hurd.

All had narrow escapes from suffocation, and Mrs. Green, an invalid, and Fannie Mackey were removed in their night clothes from rooms on second and third floors. Mrs. Green was taken out on a mattress.

The firemen saved the main building, loss and damage to household goods partially insured. Total estimated loss $2500, insurance $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

CLAREMONT, N. H., Sept. 10.—The bath, oil and main upper portion of the two-story, double tenement at 24 Elm street, owned by Austin L. Hurd, were burned at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, together with a horse and 49 hens belonging to Mr. Hurd. The fire started in the kitchen. The lower tenement was occupied by Mrs. Charles Mulhern and daughters Mary and Winifred, the upper by Mrs. L. J. Green and granddaughter Florence Fisher. Pauline Mackey and little daughter Fannie and Mr. Hurd.

All had narrow escapes from suffocation, and Mrs. Green, an invalid, and Fannie Mackey were removed in their night clothes from rooms on second and third floors. Mrs. Green was taken out on a mattress.

The firemen saved the main building, loss and damage to household goods partially insured. Total estimated loss $2500, insurance $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

CLAREMONT, N. H., Sept. 10.—The bath, oil and main upper portion of the two-story, double tenement at 24 Elm street, owned by Austin L. Hurd, were burned at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, together with a horse and 49 hens belonging to Mr. Hurd. The fire started in the kitchen. The lower tenement was occupied by Mrs. Charles Mulhern and daughters Mary and Winifred, the upper by Mrs. L. J. Green and granddaughter Florence Fisher. Pauline Mackey and little daughter Fannie and Mr. Hurd.

All had narrow escapes from suffocation, and Mrs. Green, an invalid, and Fannie Mackey were removed in their night clothes from rooms on second and third floors. Mrs. Green was taken out on a mattress.

The firemen saved the main building, loss and damage to household goods partially insured. Total estimated loss $2500, insurance $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

CLAREMONT, N. H., Sept. 10.—The bath, oil and main upper portion of the two-story, double tenement at 24 Elm street, owned by Austin L. Hurd, were burned at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, together with a horse and 49 hens belonging to Mr. Hurd. The fire started in the kitchen. The lower tenement was occupied by Mrs. Charles Mulhern and daughters Mary and Winifred, the upper by Mrs. L. J. Green and granddaughter Florence Fisher. Pauline Mackey and little daughter Fannie and Mr. Hurd.

All had narrow escapes from suffocation, and Mrs. Green, an invalid, and Fannie Mackey were removed in their night clothes from rooms on second and third floors. Mrs. Green was taken out on a mattress.

The firemen saved the main building, loss and damage to household goods partially insured. Total estimated loss $2500, insurance $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

CLAREMONT, N. H., Sept. 10.—The bath, oil and main upper portion of the two-story, double tenement at 24 Elm street, owned by Austin L. Hurd, were burned at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, together with a horse and 49 hens belonging to Mr. Hurd. The fire started in the kitchen. The lower tenement was occupied by Mrs. Charles Mulhern and daughters Mary and Winifred, the upper by Mrs. L. J. Green and granddaughter Florence Fisher. Pauline Mackey and little daughter Fannie and Mr. Hurd.

All had narrow escapes from suffocation, and Mrs. Green, an invalid, and Fannie Mackey were removed in their night clothes from rooms on second and third floors. Mrs. Green was taken out on a mattress.

The firemen saved the main building, loss and damage to household goods partially insured. Total estimated loss $2500, insurance $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

CLAREMONT, N. H., Sept. 10.—The bath, oil and main upper portion of the two-story, double tenement at 24 Elm street, owned by Austin L. Hurd, were burned at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, together with a horse and 49 hens belonging to Mr. Hurd. The fire started in the kitchen. The lower tenement was occupied by Mrs. Charles Mulhern and daughters Mary and Winifred, the upper by Mrs. L. J. Green and granddaughter Florence Fisher. Pauline Mackey and little daughter Fannie and Mr. Hurd.

PUTNAM & SON CO.

166 CENTRAL STREET

FALL OVERCOATS

In all of the new models—handiest garment in your outfit for these nights and mornings.

New French Back Overcoats

Body fitting, handsome grays and gray mixed chevrons, $15 to $25

Half Body Fitting, Regulation Length Fall Overcoats

In grays, gray mixtures and black, $10 to $30

Covert Coats

The new length, correct shades, all with satin sleeve linings $10 to $20

Long Raincoats

Of new and handsome fabrics, plain worsteds, neat dark mixed worsteds—stylish overcoats that are waterproof $8 to $25

FAREWELL SERMON

Archbishop O'Connell Reviews Work in Portland

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 10.—There was a very impressive scene at the cathedral of the Immaculate Conception yesterday. Most Rev. William H. O'Connell, co-adjutor archbishop of Boston, formerly bishop of Portland, said farewell to his people here. There was a great congregation, one testing fully the capacity of the cathedral. The day was beautiful, and in the congregation were representatives of every Catholic church in the city. No attempt had been made to advertise the fact that the archbishop would preach his farewell sermon, and the attendance was in itself a high mark of love and respect.

Archbishop O'Connell was attended by Very Rev. Mr. Charles W. Collins. As the procession advanced out of the sanctuary to the sanctuary the hymn, "Ecce Sacerdos Magnus" was sung by the full choir with beautiful effect. Mass was sung by Rev. James A. Carr, assisted by Rev. J. H. Hamilton and Rev. John Quinn. The music was of a very high order.

When his grace advanced to the altar rail to deliver his last sermon the scene was most touching, and at times the strain on his feelings showed itself in a trembling of his voice.

ARCHBISHOP'S ADDRESS.

Archbishop O'Connell said in part:

"I have come to say farewell to the city and diocese of Portland. The same day of authority which five years ago gave the ecclesiastical government of the priests and people of this see into my hands—the only authority which has power to call and send in the church—has now spoken, dissolving the bond which bound us together in duty and directing me to take up my duties in another see."

"I look back upon the five years passed among you and I am grateful to God for all they contain. Looking back to the day when I came to Portland as a young bishop, with a great work to be accomplished, I can say here in the presence that I have given all I had to give in doing that work. And I can say with full consciousness in all that has transpired during my occupancy of this see that as far as my lights, as far as my powers have reached, I have done my duty—to you to this city—to this diocese and to this state."

"You know what has been done and with what limited means at my disposal. This temple has been completely renovated from the floor to the ceiling. If in all America there is a better equipped cathedral in all that pertains to the dignity of worship and the glory of the house of God, I do not know it. And the work has been so thorough and so complete that for many years to come nothing more will be needed."

"The same precious vestments which the prelates in the great basilicas of the world adorn this sanctuary. The music of the church, so important and so executed in a manner very seldom to be heard even in the great cathedrals of the old world. Five hundred children and the whole congregation chanting from beginning to end the whole service of vespers or benediction in all its entirety, and with a precision to excite wonder is a sight to be seen but rarely in a lifetime. Here it has grown so common as scarcely to call for a comment."

"But the real glory of God's house is not in the beautifying of the walls nor even in the richness of ceremony and ritual. It is in the hearts of his children, the hearts which more than even cathedral shrines are destined to be the temples of the Holy Spirit."

"I feel confident here also, that nothing which could be done was allowed to pass, to minister to the spiritual wants, to defy and raise up a people God-fearing and virtuous."

CIVIL AND SOCIAL LIFE.

"More than this. Looking out on the civil and social life of Catholics here, I discerned that many needs not merely religious existed. The stock laborer stood in the cold of long winter nights without a roof to cover them, or a fire to warm them, unless, indeed, the roof and fire that led to bad company and vice. Today, facing the wharves at the very place where before intemperance lured them to itself, a splendid club house stands, equipped with every form of innocent amusement, and where every form of food and drink, except those which destroy the body and the soul, is at their disposal. That workman's club has transformed that district."

"Besides this really great work, not less great because its results come slowly, during the five years were founded the Catholic union, for the older men, the Ozanam club, for the younger men, the Holy Name society for the boys. Among the societies founded here during my regime none deserves higher praise than the reading circle. "Financially these five years have been very successful. The cathedral debt has been very materially diminished."

"Going over again in memory the events of my government, recalling here during the many details of questions, of causes, of persons and affairs, again here in this sacred place I feel profoundly at peace in spirit."

The archbishop said it was his deepest desire to attach the people to the unity of faith. He spoke of Christian education and said that he has always endeavored to lend his best aid to the religious engaged in this work. He urged his people to love their church and respect their priests and prelates. He referred to the many kindnesses shown by the people of Maine irrespective of their religious belief, and expressed his thanks to the governor, mayor and other public men who had been so kind to himself, the priests and people of the Portland diocese. In closing he asked God's blessing for the diocese of Portland and the state of Maine.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

MIDDLEBORO, Sept. 10.—The fears of the White family at White's hill, carried out his threat to take his life were confirmed yesterday morning, when his body was found hanging to an oak tree, not 200 feet from his house.

Arthur McCann of a New street has purchased the cottage of the Singleton heirs on Lyon street and is fitting it up with modern improvements.

DAUGHTER OF BILERICA.

Miss Gertrude Nason of Billerica, daughter of Rev. W. W. Nason, has been appointed supervisor of drawing of public schools, vice Miss Alice L. Belt, resigned.

CLAMBAKE YESTERDAY.

The members of Engine Company No. 1 of North Billerica enjoyed a clambake yesterday. The bake was held at "Camp de Shallow" on the banks of the upper Concord river. The spread was one of the best that could be procured and was highly enjoyed by all present. At the conclusion of the feast a social hour was enjoyed and vocal and instrumental selections were rendered.

MILLS OPEN UP.

The Talbot and Faulkner mills opened up this morning after the annual two weeks shutdown.

TALBOT SCHOOL REPAIRED.

The Talbot school has been greatly improved since the closing of the school term several months ago and when the pupils of that school entered the building this morning quite a change was noticed. The desks in each of the rooms have been varnished and repaired and are now in the best condition that they have been since the opening of the building, several years ago. The floors have been oiled, while the building has been thoroughly disinfected from top to bottom and is now in a clean and healthful condition. In doing this work the school committee has expended about $200.

Two new teachers began their duties in the school today. They are Misses Doris Kobler and Mary H. Downey. The former was appointed by the school committee some time ago while the latter was appointed at a meeting of the school board held Wednesday evening to take the place vacated by the resignation of Miss F. Marion Dutton.

Miss Gertrude Nason of Billerica, daughter of Rev. W. W. Nason, has been appointed supervisor of drawing of public schools, vice Miss Alice L. Belt, resigned.

CLAMBAKE YESTERDAY.

The members of Engine Company No. 1 of North Billerica enjoyed a clambake yesterday. The bake was held at "Camp de Shallow" on the banks of the upper Concord river. The spread was one of the best that could be procured and was highly enjoyed by all present. At the conclusion of the feast a social hour was enjoyed and vocal and instrumental selections were rendered.

MILLS OPEN UP.

The Talbot and Faulkner mills opened up this morning after the annual two weeks shutdown.

TALBOT SCHOOL REPAIRED.

The Talbot school has been greatly improved since the closing of the school term several months ago and when the pupils of that school entered the building this morning quite a change was noticed. The desks in each of the rooms have been varnished and repaired and are now in the best condition that they have been since the opening of the building, several years ago. The floors have been oiled, while the building has been thoroughly disinfected from top to bottom and is now in a clean and healthful condition. In doing this work the school committee has expended about $200.

Two new teachers began their duties in the school today. They are Misses Doris Kobler and Mary H. Downey. The former was appointed by the school committee some time ago while the latter was appointed at a meeting of the school board held Wednesday evening to take the place vacated by the resignation of Miss F. Marion Dutton.

Miss Gertrude Nason of Billerica, daughter of Rev. W. W. Nason, has been appointed supervisor of drawing of public schools, vice Miss Alice L. Belt, resigned.

CLAMBAKE YESTERDAY.

The members of Engine Company No. 1 of North Billerica enjoyed a clambake yesterday. The bake was held at "Camp de Shallow" on the banks of the upper Concord river. The spread was one of the best that could be procured and was highly enjoyed by all present. At the conclusion of the feast a social hour was enjoyed and vocal and instrumental selections were rendered.

MILLS OPEN UP.

The Talbot and Faulkner mills opened up this morning after the annual two weeks shutdown.

TALBOT SCHOOL REPAIRED.

The Talbot school has been greatly improved since the closing of the school term several months ago and when the pupils of that school entered the building this morning quite a change was noticed. The desks in each of the rooms have been varnished and repaired and are now in the best condition that they have been since the opening of the building, several years ago. The floors have been oiled, while the building has been thoroughly disinfected from top to bottom and is now in a clean and healthful condition. In doing this work the school committee has expended about $200.

Two new teachers began their duties in the school today. They are Misses Doris Kobler and Mary H. Downey. The former was appointed by the school committee some time ago while the latter was appointed at a meeting of the school board held Wednesday evening to take the place vacated by the resignation of Miss F. Marion Dutton.

Miss Gertrude Nason of Billerica, daughter of Rev. W. W. Nason, has been appointed supervisor of drawing of public schools, vice Miss Alice L. Belt, resigned.

CLAMBAKE YESTERDAY.

The members of Engine Company No. 1 of North Billerica enjoyed a clambake yesterday. The bake was held at "Camp de Shallow" on the banks of the upper Concord river. The spread was one of the best that could be procured and was highly enjoyed by all present. At the conclusion of the feast a social hour was enjoyed and vocal and instrumental selections were rendered.

MILLS OPEN UP.

The Talbot and Faulkner mills opened up this morning after the annual two weeks shutdown.

TALBOT SCHOOL REPAIRED.

The Talbot school has been greatly improved since the closing of the school term several months ago and when the pupils of that school entered the building this morning quite a change was noticed. The desks in each of the rooms have been varnished and repaired and are now in the best condition that they have been since the opening of the building, several years ago. The floors have been oiled, while the building has been thoroughly disinfected from top to bottom and is now in a clean and healthful condition. In doing this work the school committee has expended about $200.

Two new teachers began their duties in the school today. They are Misses Doris Kobler and Mary H. Downey. The former was appointed by the school committee some time ago while the latter was appointed at a meeting of the school board held Wednesday evening to take the place vacated by the resignation of Miss F. Marion Dutton.

Miss Gertrude Nason of Billerica, daughter of Rev. W. W. Nason, has been appointed supervisor of drawing of public schools, vice Miss Alice L. Belt, resigned.

CLAMBAKE YESTERDAY.

Peter's Sunday school class, Miss Ginty, Mary Ivers.

KARAMIS.—The funeral of Peter Karamis took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of C. H. Moley & Sons. There were many floral offerings and a large attendance. Burial was in the Edison cemetery.

GARRIGAN.—The funeral of Eustace May Garrigan took place yesterday afternoon from the home of her parents, 2422 Connors street, at 2.30 and was largely attended. Among the many beautiful floral tributes were: Willow, "Faded" from parents; basket, Mrs. Brodson, Grace M. and Mrs. Edward Holmes, Spots John, Jr. and Mrs. Curran Lawrence, Mr. P. Graham. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Peter H. Savage.

DEATHBEGARD.—The funeral of Miss Rose Deatbegard took place Saturday morning from her home, 3 McIntyre street. Floral tributes were held at St. Jean parish church at 9 o'clock. Rev. Fr. McLaughlin officiating. The casket was borne by the following: Fred McLaughlin, George and Louis Deardard. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery, and Rev. Fr. Audthoff, O. M. I., officiated at the committal services at the grave. Undertaker Joseph Albert the auctioneer as soon

The indications are that it will be fair and somewhat cooler tonight; There will be light, variable winds.

ESTABLISHED 1878

LOWELL MASS. MONDAY SEPTEMBER 10 1906

PRICE ONE CENT

NIGHT EDITION

MAYOR CASEY

Wants St. Railway Co. to Pay for Paving

Mayor Casey has asked the city solicitor for an opinion as to whether or not the street railway company is obliged to pay for a part of the paving of Fletcher street where the company has laid tracks to complete a belt line. The mayor is of the opinion that the company should stand its proportionate share of the cost and so has requested the opinion of the city solicitor. The cost of macadamizing the street will be about $6000 of which amount the mayor wants the street railway company to pay $1000. The letter of the mayor is as follows:

Lowell, Mass., Sept. 10, 1906.
James G. Hill, Esq., City Solicitor, Lowell, Mass.
Dear Sir:—

I would respectfully request an opinion as to the obligation, if any, that exists upon the Boston and Northern Street Railway company, under the terms of a resolution passed by the board of aldermen, May 5, 1891, to co-operate with the city to place Fletcher street in a safe condition for public travel.

The city is about to macadamize Fletcher street. Recently the Boston and Northern Street Railway company laid tracks in Fletcher street. The street is in wretched condition, largely as a result of the laying of the car rails. This office requested the company to assume the expense of macadamizing the easterly side of Fletcher street from Cross street to West Clark street. The company has refused to accede to the request, claiming that when the company paved between the tracks, and eighteen inches outside, that all legal obligations were complied with.

The issue between the city and the company is upon the construction of the following paragraphs of the resolution granting the location:—

"All tracks, spurs, turnouts and side-tracks shall be constructed so as to conform to the present grade of said streets, unless otherwise ordered by the board of aldermen or the surveyors of highways, and except as herein provided, as near the center of said streets as a proper construction of said tracks will reasonably allow, and said streets are to be put in substantially as good order and condition when said tracks shall have been constructed or moved as the same now are or shall be put in to before said tracks are constructed or moved, and without expense to said city."

"If said board of aldermen or surveyors of highways shall require said Lowell and Suburban Street Railway company to construct its tracks below the surface grade of said streets, said company shall not be required to change the grade of said streets other than that portion occupied by its tracks."

Awaiting an early decision, I beg leave to remain,

Truly yours,
JAMES B. CASEY, Mayor.

A TEMPORARY SIDEWALK.
Mayor Casey has addressed the following letter to Supt. O'Connor of the lands of buildings department:

Lowell, Mass., Sept. 10, 1906.
John J. O'Connor, Inspector of Buildings, Lowell, Mass.
Dear Sir:—

Public convenience, in my opinion, requires that the provisions of section 25 of the building ordinance be enforced at the Chaffinch building now in course of construction. Part of this section reads as follows:—

"Whenever any new building fronting a street within the fire limits shall have attained the height of one (1) story, or whenever it may become necessary to unroof or take down any building within the above described territory, or to perform any work therein whereby risk may be incurred to any person or persons passing the same it shall be the duty of any person or persons erecting, unroofing, taking down or performing any work on such building, or of the owner thereof, to erect a good and substantial covering over the sidewalk, at least six (6) feet wide and ten (10) feet high, to be approved by the inspector."

"During the time of such occupation of the street for such building operations, the person or persons so occupying said street shall maintain and keep

ASSOCIATE HALL
Is open for bookings from now on for next fall and winter. If interested, visit the hall, look at the floor, and make arrangements with the janitor.

ROLLAWAY
This week Thursday evening and Saturday afternoon and evening there will be skating at the Hurd Street Rollaway and next week Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons and evenings there will be skating.

Remember the place, Hurd Street Rollaway. Everything slick and nice.

In repair both said temporary sidewalk and fence."

The fence now erected and extending half way into the street causes much inconvenience to the public, which may be obviated by the construction of a temporary sidewalk in accordance with the provisions of the building ordinance.

Truly yours,
JAMES B. CASEY, Mayor.

THE CITY LIBRARY.

Mayor Casey today sent this letter to the city council today:

Lowell, Mass., September 10, 1906.
To the City Council, Lowell, Mass.:
Gentlemen:—As a result of the de-credited appropriation placed to the credit of the City Library the trustees have been unable to purchase books of current fiction, the demand for which is incessant. The library is handicapped in being unable to meet this demand.

I would respectfully recommend that the unexpended balance of $282.69 from the Fourth of July appropriation be transferred to the General Treasury Fund and that the sum of $500 be appropriated from the General Treasury Fund and placed to the credit of the city library appropriation.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES B. CASEY, Mayor.

ROWDY ELEMENT

Disturbing the People of Dracut

The people of the Navy Yard are up in arms against a rowdy element in that part of Dracut and an old resident said today that in order to restore peace in that neighborhood it would be necessary to seek annexation to Lowell.

"It is not really a case of restoring peace," he said, "because there has always been a rough element there and a great deal has happened of an unsavory nature that the police did not interfere with. There have been high-way robberies at the Navy Yard that the police never touched. I have heard of men being shaken on their heads and their money stolen from their pockets. I understand that is the method employed by the Navy Yard gang."

"The latest disturbance we had occurred a few days ago and no arrests have as yet been made. There's a young man out there who poses as the bully of the place. He gets drunk and goes looking for fight. He is well known to the police and it must be that they are afraid of him as he has thus far escaped arrest."

"A few days ago, assisted by other members of the gang, he beat a young man very badly. He was the one who led the fighting and the other fellow was beaten almost to death's door. It was one of the most brutal assaults in the history of the place. I understand that the young man who was beaten refused to appear against the bully and his pals, because he is afraid they would tackle him again and finish the job. I never was in favor of annexation, but if it is necessary for the peace of the neighborhood, then I would vote and work for it. This gang in question are more boisterous on Sunday than any other day and they ought to be taken care of."

UNDER ARREST

NEGRO IS SUSPECTED OF ASSAULT.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 10.—Walter Russell, colored, was arrested today near Centerville, on suspicion that he is the negro who committed the assault on Mrs. Beatrice Francis and her daughter, Miss Gusie Leach, last night. Russell was brought here to avoid an attempt at lynching. He denied his guilt.

Mrs. Francis and her daughter are better today and an examination shows that they did not, as was feared, sustain fractured skulls as a result of the beating they received at the hand of their assailant.

MISS PORTER DEAD.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 10.—Miss Rose Porter, widely known as an authoress, died at her home here early today, aged 66 years. She was the daughter of David Collins and Rose Anne Hardy Porter and was born in New York. Her burial will take place Friday at Catskill, N. Y.

WRITING OUT TAX BILLS.
About ten clerks are busily engaged in writing out tax bills in the public hearing room at city hall.

FOR CRIMINAL LIBEL

Dr. Demosthenes Generalis Indicted Today

HON. CHARLES N. BELL, JUDGE SUPERIOR COURT.

James B. Fisher Gets Two Years for Polygamy — Opening of Superior Court This Morning

The September term of the Middlesex superior court, criminal session, came on at the court house in Gorham street this morning with Judge Bell presiding, and Rev. Nathan W. Matthews delivering the opening prayer.

At the opening of court when the clerk was instructed to call the roll of the jury the first name called was that of Freeman M. Hill. Mr. Hill was not in court at the time but appeared shortly afterward with a request to be excused from serving. Judge Bell upon hearing the facts immediately excused him. John C. King of this city who is a clerk in the registrar's office asked to be excused and was excused for four days.

Three other jurors were excused and there were three absentees. The session of the morning was the notice of the indictment of Dr. Demosthenes Generalis for alleged criminal libel, the indictment containing several counts. Dr. Generalis was ordered to be placed at the bar at 10 o'clock this afternoon. He has retained John Harvey as counsel. The complaint in the case are the Terzakis brother and Prof. M. Tatro.

Before taking up the cases Judge Bell made an address to the jury in which he cautioned them to conduct themselves as not to cast suspicion upon themselves or the administration of justice. "Keep away from the parties in a case," said Judge Bell, "the counsel and witnesses. Do not read or have read to you any comment appearing in the newspapers regarding any case under consideration. If any one speaks to you about a case on trial tell him at once that you are a juror. If he persists in talking about the case with you come and tell me and I will deal with him."

DELEGATES FILED

Dunbar Will Have First Place on Ticket

Frank E. Dunbar, candidate for nomination for congress in the fifth district scored a victory over his opponent, Congressman Butler Ames this morning by filing his list of delegates as soon as the headquarters of the republican city committee was opened. George W. Moore filed the list of delegates with clerk E. T. Goward and Mr. Dunbar's delegates will head the ballot in the primaries.

Mr. Moore was around the door leading to the committee room early this morning and expected that he would have to run a race with one of the representatives of Cong. Ames in order to file the names, but he found there was no opposition. Up to noon the Ames delegates had not been filed.

Old Coughs
New coughs are bad enough. Old coughs are worse, much worse. They always make one think of bronchitis, consumption, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral quickly cures new coughs. And it cures old ones, too. The next time you see your doctor, ask him why this medicine so promptly relieves coughs. Then follow his advice.

Caswell Optical Co.
28 Bridge st., Runcie Bldg., Merrimack sq.

STRUCK BY TRAIN

James Donohoo Mot With Horrible Death

WELL KNOWN IN LOWELL

His Companion Was Not Injured

James Donohoo, aged 14 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Donohoo of Ayer, well known and frequent visitor to Lowell, met a horrible death yesterday morning in that town about 8.40 o'clock, by being struck by a trolley on the Worcester division of Boston & Maine R. R. while riding in a milk wagon belonging to Mr. Thomas Griffin. Young Donohoo had only been working on the wagon but one week and had just returned from 6 o'clock noon when he started out delivering milk with young Mr. Griffin. About 8.30 when at a point near the Park street grade crossing, and where the street takes a sharp curve making it impossible to see for any distance on account of the many houses, the horse took a sudden start and driver Griffin in turning the curve, seeing the approaching train, attempted to stop the animal but without avail. Mr. Griffin, however, on reaching the crossing had the presence of mind to jump and escaped unhurt while his co-worker, young Donohoo, was struck by the engine and instantly killed. The horse, attached to the wagon was hurled some distance and was badly cut necessitating shooting immediately. Willing hands picked up the unfortunate and laid him tenderly and word was sent for Undertaker Wright and Dr. Colver. Nothing medical examination while an ambulance was dispatched to carry the news to the parents who were attending the parish mass. The remains were later removed to the warehouse of Undertaker Wright and later to the home of deceased, where the sorrow-stricken parents were almost prostrated by the sad occurrence.

For one who had passed through a railroad accident his body was free from the horrible disfigurements that usually set in and the only serious injury was one at the base of the skull which caused his death.

Deceased was a most lovable and devoted son, kind yet unassuming though always of an indomitable turn. In school he was studious, leading his class in many things and had hoped to resume studies today. For one of his years he was remarkably strong and tall and always had a smile for everyone. Many were the tears that were shed for the unfortunate lad in the town yesterday for everywhere he went he was universally beloved. Indeed his industry and thrift at so early an age might have brought him success had his life been spared. He was a frequent visitor to his relatives in Lowell.

Besides his parents, James and Bridget Donohoo, he is survived by one brother, Joseph, and one sister, Ellen.

POOR JOSEPHINE

Bumped Into Everything in Sight

WITH A STOLEN TEAM

She Wound Up at the Police Station

Josephine Raymond went out on a dark Sunday morning. She quaffed a few "high balls" before leaving home and then she said she didn't care what happened.

As she passed Michael Gloddy's wood yard in Front street she spotted a horse and wagon. It was Michael's gray gelding. Josephine allowed that it would be an ideal day for a ride and she decided to take the team.

She drove "over town" and on her way over she collided with a number of teams in Bridge street. "Excuse me," Josephine would say every time she bumped into a team and everybody seemed disposed to excuse her. She drove up Merrimack street to Moody and in Tremont street, and various other streets in that locality.

Josephine was about all in and suddenly suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a woman stepped up and said she knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

It was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gloddy. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motormen and very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

WORKING ON MOODY STREET.

City Engineer Powers had his surveyors at work in Moody street this morning marking out new lines for the sidewalk, curbstones, catch basins, etc., preparatory to the proposed repaving of the street from Tilden to Spaulding streets.

EXTRA

RIGHT TO VOTE

For People of the Recently Annexed District

City Solicitor Hill has decided that the voters of that section of Tewksbury recently annexed to Lowell have the right to vote at the primaries this month. Today he sent the following opinion to the registrars of voters:

Lowell, Mass., September 10, 1906.
John P. Farley, Esq.,
Chairman, Board of Registrars of Voters,
Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir:—

In answer to your request under date of September 7th, asking, in behalf of your board, my opinion as to whether or not the inhabitants of that portion of the town of Tewksbury, recently annexed to the City of Lowell, and who are otherwise qualified to vote in the coming state election, have the right to vote in the coming primaries to be held in Lowell on the twenty-fifth day of September, current, I have the following reply to make.

The right to nominate is founded upon the right to vote. Unquestionably the voters in the annexed district will be entitled to vote in Lowell at the coming state election.

As they are to vote in Lowell they have the right to participate in the primaries to nominate the candidates to be voted for at the state election, unless there is some statutory provision preventing.

Section 12 of Chapter 11 of the Revised Laws relates to the qualifications to electors, and this apparently because of the general principle that the right to vote in cases is founded upon the right to vote at election.

Chapter 431 of the Acts of 1903, the joint primaries act, in sections 2 and 7 provides that certain provisions of the election law shall apply to caucuses held under it, but it does not intend, in my opinion, that the sections relative to qualifications of voters should apply so as to prevent participation in the caucuses by those who will be qualified to vote at election.

It and no other statutory provision that tends to change the general principle above laid down.

The corollary of the above proposition is also true, that a nomination cannot be made by those who for any reason are not entitled to vote, though they may have been qualified electors previous to making the nomination.

Therefore, it would seem that said voters could not participate in the caucuses to be held in Tewksbury. As said voters have become inhabitants of Lowell by the act of the Legislature and not by any act of their own, and as election statutes are to be interpreted with a leaning to liberality, in view of the great public purposes to be accomplished by them, the equities of the case are in their favor, and in my opinion the courts would be slow to construe the statutes as to prevent their exercising the right to nominate candidates to be voted for by them in November.

It is my opinion then, that said inhabitants have the right to vote in the coming primaries to be held in Lowell on September twenty-fifth, current.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES GILBERT HILL,
City Solicitor.

TWO INDICTMENTS

May be Reported in Jury Box Juggling Case

It was reported at the court house this afternoon that the grand jury had found two indictments in the alleged jury box juggling case.

It will be recalled that at a meeting of the board of aldermen the week before last the name of Freeman M. Hill was drawn from the box by Alderman William J. Hayes and when the city clerk received the slip he found that the name was written in ink and that the address read "Element" instead of "Eleventh street."

The matter was reported to the district attorneys and Aldermen Hayes and Walker and City Clerk Dedman and his employees were called to testify before the grand jury. It was stated that the indictments would be reported about four o'clock this afternoon.

FOOT CRUSHED

LOWELL MACHINE SHOP EMPLOYEE MET WITH SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Thomas Gergerles, residing at 422 Market street, while at work at the Lowell machine shop today met with a painful accident, a heavy casting falling on his foot crushing it severely, and the ambulance was summoned and the injured man was removed to the Lowell hospital.

DEATHS

MAGUIRE—Miss Mary Ann Maguire, aged 40 years, died this morning at her home, 40 Chambers street. She was an employee of the Bay State mills and leaves to mourn her loss a mother, Rose Maguire, three sisters, Mrs. Sarah Miner, Mrs. Elizabeth Moran and Miss Rose Maguire and two brothers, James and John Maguire.

FINE HOME FOR SALE

On Centralville Heights
At a Great Bargain

The undersigned, being about to move to his new residence in Belvidere, offers his present home at 119 Fremont street, for sale. The premises consist of a large two and one-half story house with a fine stable on a nicely graded and stone curbed double lot of land containing 11,000 square feet. The house is in first-class condition throughout. It has twelve good rooms besides an attic room, pantry and modern bath room. The plumbing is modern and first class in every particular. The steam heating plant consists of a fine steel boiler, set in brick with ten radiators, piped in the best possible manner. Cellar bottom cemented and sub-drained. Walks and driveway concreted and lot front curbed with granite.

The stable is one of the finest on the hill. The carriage house is concreted and drained into the street sewer. There are three stalls (one a box stall) fine harness room and a finished room for a hostler, together with all the facilities necessary for a high grade stable. The location is slightly, airy and healthy and the street cars are within one minute's walk of the house. There are several nice fruit and shade trees and an excellent lawn.

To build such a home today with the prevailing price of labor and material would cost nearly double the sum for which I am willing to sell. Further particulars will be cheerfully given to anyone desirous of buying such a residence.

APPLY AT SUN OFFICE, TELEPHONE 269; OR ON THE PREMISES, TELEPHONE 408-4; OR AT NEW RESIDENCE, TELEPHONE 1850.

Very respectfully,
JOHN H. HARRINGTON.

6 O'CLOCK

HE GOT $110,800

Methods Employed by Hering to Loot Bank

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Foster metacranial covering illegal transactions in the Standard bank were found today by Police Inspector Shippy among the effects of Frank Kowalski, the teller who had followed the exposure of the bank's condition. The record kept by Kowalski, it is alleged, indicates apparently that in less than a year Henry W. Hering, the imprisoned cashier personally obtained $110,800 of the money of depositors by the same means adopted by Sternbach in the notorious looting of the vault. In four months by the use of cash tickets which he placed in the drawers he obtained $110,800, according to Kowalski's records and in another month $100,000. The discovery of Kowalski's letters today was a result of the opening yesterday of a wooden cupboard in one of the bank vaults that had remained unopened since Frank Kowalski's arrest. The charge of the institution Aug. 4

BOARD OF CHARITY

Wants the Relatives of Paupers to Pay

FOR CASES IN OUTSIDE HOSPITALS

Cemetery Employees Unpaid for 6 Weeks

The board of charities will meet in special session at city hall Thursday evening for the purpose of listening to the parents and relatives of people who are confined in different institutions and whose board is being paid by the city of Lowell. The purpose of the meeting is to ascertain how many of the relatives of the inmates can afford to reimburse the city.

The meeting will be confined to the discussion of cases at the dispensary hospital at Foxboro, epileptic hospital at Munson and Cottage hospital at Haverhill.

The city of Lowell has been paying $25 per week for each inmate. According to law the next of kin or some relative of the inmate if able is supposed to reimburse the city.

The members of the board of charities think that there is a number of relatives of inmates who are in good circumstances and able to contribute.

ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE.

The committee on accounts will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of taking action on the transfer of $150 interest money which the cemetery department has earned, and pay the employees of that department.

The employees of the cemetery department have not received any pay for the past six weeks owing to the fact that the transfer has been held up by the committee on accounts. At the meeting of the committee on accounts held last Friday Messrs. Hogan and Cheney were present, but owing to the absence of Chairman Crosby the two committees refused to take any action in the matter.

As Alderman Crosby has been in favor of the transfer of the money he has called a special meeting of the committee for tonight and in all probability the transfer will be made.

WATER EXTENSION LOAN.

Mayor Casey made a tour of inspection of the Wigginsville and South Lowell districts where it is proposed to extend the water system, this afternoon. As a result of his inspection it is understood that he will call a special meeting of the common council for the purpose of taking action on the two-bond water system.

The regular meeting of the board of aldermen will be held tomorrow night at eight o'clock.

The matter was acted upon favorably.

WILLIAM SMITH

Set Upon by Thugs in Dutton Street

RECEIVED MANY KNIFE WOUNDS

Another Man Sent to the Hospital

With several knife wounds on his body, a frightened look on his face and unable to tell what it was all about, William T. Smith, 23, called at the police station Saturday night and asked for protection. After "beating about the bush" for a while he said he had been set upon by a gang of thugs in Dutton street about 10:30 o'clock and that they "killed" him.

He said he was with a companion at the time and had reached a point in the vicinity of Fletcher street and near the canal bridge. He said he was walking along holding his own business when one of a gang of fellows going in the same direction pushed him from the sidewalk. He remonstrated and received a few sharp jolts that made his head dizzy. One of his assailants, he said, used a knife.

He was sent to the Emergency hospital where his wounds were attended to. Dr. Langdale who dressed the wounds said they looked like knife wounds. There were eight or ten in all and one near the left elbow required three stitches to close. There were lacerations on the left hip and right knee. A book in the left hip pocket was cut as if with a knife.

Smith was unable to give a very good description of his assailants. He said they were foreigners. Smith's story was verified by his companion who was not located.

FELL OR WAS PUSHED.

Donk Lowrey was taken to St. John's hospital last night suffering from a few bruises and slight lacerations on the head. Lowrey said he was attacked by two men in Bridge street near Tenth but a resident of that district asserted that Lowrey was drunk and fell from the sidewalk. Lowrey told the following story:

"I was walking along Bridge street, near Tenth, minding my own affairs, when along came two men behind me and struck me on the head, flooring me. When I came to, I had severe pains in the head, and my pockets were filled of the contents of the bottles I was carrying."

This story told by the Centralville resident was as follows: "Lowrey was walking along the sidewalk in Bridge street, near Tenth. He was staggering so that it was quite noticeable. In an endeavor to keep on the straight and narrow path he stumbled and fell headlong to the pavement, striking his head on a curb. No one was near him when he fell."

Charles Glidden, the harmonica expert, fell down a flight of stairs at the lodging house numbered 29 Bridge street and sustained a slight concussion of the brain. He was removed in the ambulance to St. John's hospital.

Glidden has suffered from rheumatism for months and at times his legs would give way. That was what happened to him when he reached the head of the stairs. The loss gave way and he tumbled backward. He was employed in the house as janitor. He will be able to leave the hospital today.

ONE KILLED

FIVE OTHERS INJURED BY COLLAPSE OF BUILDING.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—One man was killed and five others seriously injured by the collapse of a new building at Minnola, N. Y. today. Another man is reported buried in the ruins and is probably dead. The building was to be a garage and was being built for Robert Hayes. The men buried in its ruins were Italian.

USED CLUB

AND PATROLMAN IS HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 10.—Patrolman Arel B. Holloway was arraigned in the third district court today on the charge of manslaughter in having caused the death of Edward Greenwood. Greenwood was arrested Saturday afternoon by the patrolman on the charge of drunkenness. As the result of the blows struck by the patrolman's club, the man died today of a fractured skull. Patrolman Holloway pleaded not guilty and was held in bonds of $50 for a further hearing September 15.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTRIC RAILWAYS

WESTERN DIVISION

Change of Time

FALL AND WINTER SCHEDULE

In Effect Monday, Sept. 10, 1906.

Cars leave Merrimack St., Lowell, for Pelham, Hudson, Nashua, Salem and Haverhill at 5:45 a.m., then hourly until 9:45 p.m. 10:45 to Draught line only. 11:15 to Pelham Centre. For Canobie Lake Park change cars at Point A. For Lawrence take the above cars and change at Pelham and Point A.

Returning, leave Haverhill for Lowell (via Pelham) at 6:30 a.m., then hourly until 9:30 p.m. Leave Nashua (via Pelham) at 7 a.m., then hourly until 10 p.m. Leave Pelham at 6:35 a.m., then hourly until 10:35 p.m. Leave Lawrence at 6:45 a.m., then hourly until 9:45 p.m., change at Point A and Pelham.

A half hour schedule will be maintained on Sundays until further notice.

NEGRO CREMATED

He Tried to Burn His Way Out of Jail

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Minnola, Tex., says: In an effort to burn his way out of jail yesterday, Silas Johnson, a negro, mated while a noose hung around his neck watching his last agonies through the iron window bars but unable to save him.

Johnson was arrested on a drunkenness charge and started a fire in the prison hoping to burn his way out. The fire got beyond his control and his turnkey could not be found until too late.

EMPEROR'S FAVORITE

Is Charged With Maintaining Liquor Nuisance

TAUNTON, Mass., Sept. 10.—Once a famous beauty and stage favorite and a friend of the late Emperor Dom Pedro of Brazil, who paid her marked attention and lavished many jewels upon her, Mrs. Emma Burke, known widely in a quarter of a century ago as Miss Emma Linden, is to be given a hearing in the Taunton district court next Saturday on a charge of maintaining a liquor nuisance. She is under bonds of $100 pending the disposition of the case. The prosecution is the result of two raids made by town constables at her home in Raynham, a village three miles from here.

She was born in Raynham and passed her girlhood there until her beauty attracted the attention of a theatrical manager and as she proved to have some talent for the stage, she was presented in various attractions. She was in Brazil and remained on the stage for some time after returning from that country, but more recently conducted a large cafe in New York. After suffering business reverses and with her health shattered, she returned to her old home in Raynham. Her husband, M. H. Burke, who was at one time a magnate of considerable note died several years ago. Mrs. Burke engaged a plea of not guilty through her attorney to the liquor nuisance charge brought against her.

OPPOSES BRYAN

Williams Against Government Ownership of Railroads

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 10.—The Times Dispatch yesterday telegraphed that John Sharp Williams, minority leader in congress at Yazoo City, Miss., in an expression of his views on Bryan's plans for government ownership of railroads, and received the following reply:

"I am opposed to government ownership of railroads, irrevocably, now and forever, in theory and in practice—a question concerning which Mr. Bryan and I agree to disagree. But I see no good to be attained by rushing into the subject. We will simply vote it down if offered as a plank of the democratic platform. Meanwhile let us put magnificently democratic differences. There are so many things we are agreed upon, let us magnify them. Push them to the front if we can. Bryan is not infallible and does not pretend to be. He is right about so many things, eloquently and greatly right, but absolutely and altogether wrong about this one thing, especially from the standpoint of racial peace and quiet in the south. Let us strongly regulate railroads, but not operate railroads."

CHARLES GLIDDEN FORM ALLIANCE

Tumbled Down Flight of Stairs

Loomfixers of Three Cities to Meet

Charles Glidden, the harmonica expert, fell down a flight of stairs at the lodging house numbered 29 Bridge street and sustained a slight concussion of the brain. He was removed in the ambulance to St. John's hospital. Glidden has suffered from rheumatism for months and at times his legs would give way. That was what happened to him when he reached the head of the stairs. The loss gave way and he tumbled backward. He was employed in the house as janitor. He will be able to leave the hospital today.

FALL RIVER, Sept. 10.—A meeting of New Bedford, Pawtucket & Fall River loomfixers is to be held next Saturday night at which a proposition to form an alliance of the loom fixers unions of the three cities will be considered. It is believed that such an alliance would prove of benefit to the unions in times of labor difficulties. The alliance, it is said, will in no way conflict with the United Textile Workers as that organization at its last convention sanctioned the organization of local unions into national associations of the different crafts provided each local was affiliated with the United Textile Workers independently.

ONE KILLED

FIVE OTHERS INJURED BY COLLAPSE OF BUILDING.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—One man was killed and five others seriously injured by the collapse of a new building at Minnola, N. Y. today. Another man is reported buried in the ruins and is probably dead. The building was to be a garage and was being built for Robert Hayes. The men buried in its ruins were Italian.

SIXTY INDICTED

Charged With Complicity With Rebels

HAVANA, Sept. 10.—Sixty more residents of Havana and its immediate vicinity have been indicted for complicity with the rebels. They have been refused the privilege of bail.

It now appears that the rebels are in possession of no junction at Kinross of the United Railway branches and trains on the western line are stopped and searched at will.

Kinross is 15 miles southwest of Havana.

MORE GOLD ENGAGED.

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—The National Shawmut bank of this city announced today that it had engaged a second million dollars of gold for shipment to Boston from abroad.

THE COTTON YIELD.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The crop estimating board of the department of agriculture estimates the yield of the cotton crop of 1906 up to Aug. 25 to 77.

BRYAN ACCEPTS.

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 10.—Gov. Vardaman yesterday received a despatch from W. J. Bryan accepting an invitation to visit this city and fixing Sept. 22 as the date.

WORK RESUMED.

MAHANNOY CITY, Pa., Sept. 10.—After being idle since Sept. 1 the 30 collieries of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron Co. in the schuylkill field, employing 30,000 men and boys, resumed operations today.

MOSQUITO MINARD'S BLACK FLY BITES LINIMENT

Quickly relieved 25c. and 50c.

CUT HIS THROAT STARVING MAN

Man Then Regretted His Act

Was Found in a Dying Condition

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Anthony Priddy, 42 years, a life insurance expert living at the Longacre Hotel, killed himself during the night by cutting his throat. Priddy, after slashing his neck, evidently regretted the deed for he called up on the telephone a nearby physician who had treated him for a heart affection. When the doctor answered Priddy said: "For God's sake come quick. I've cut my throat." Priddy died five minutes after the doctor's arrival. He was a collector of rare books. Illness caused the suicide.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 10.—Hospital and police ambulances throughout the state and especially in this city were kept busy all day yesterday and, in fact, ran into the night, responding to hurried calls. There were eight accident reports on the various station blotters, all narrow escapes from death. One man was found suffering with icy poisoning and in a starving condition, while three men narrowly escaped death from a small sail boat in the bay. There was but one death reported.

CIVIL SERVICE

EXAMINATIONS TO BE HELD IN BOSTON.

Examinations for the following positions will be held in Boston, Mass., on Oct. 8, 1906, by the United States Civil Service Commission:

Chief, Departmental Service (females only).
Chief, Isthmian Canal Service (males only).
Electrotype Finisher, Government Printing Service.
Electrotype Molder, Government Printing Service.

Guard, U. S. Penitentiary Service.
Messenger, Washington, skilled laborer, Departmental Service (males only).
Press Feeder, Government Printing Service.

Stenographer and Typewriter, Departmental Service, Isthmian Canal Service, and Philippine Service.

These examinations offer excellent opportunities for advancement in the government service. The required application form and information concerning the examinations can be secured from Mr. Geo. H. Gurney, at the Lowell postoffice, or from E. E. Stebbins, secretary board of Examiners, Box 158, Boston, Mass.

Completed applications should be on file with the Commission at Washington, on or before Oct. 1, 1906.

TEDDY JR. HOME.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Theodore Roosevelt Jr., eldest son of President Roosevelt, reached home today from the west, where he had been for several weeks on a hunting trip. He returned earlier than his original plans contemplated because of an injury to his hand.

$2,500,000 IN GOLD.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Kuhn, Loeb & Co. today announced that that firm had engaged $2,500,000 in gold eagles in London for import. Under the order of Secretary Shaw, a national bank acting for Kuhn, Loeb & Co., may draw upon the United States sub-treasury to the amount of $2,500,000 pending the arrival of the gold in this country.

SICK ON A CAR.

Cora Hollis of Warren street, Chelmsford Centre was taken ill on a Lowell bound Boston car last night and was removed to St. John's hospital in a semi-conscious state. A weak heart was the cause of the trouble.

HEAD OF JESUITS

Gives Apostolic Benediction to Delegates

ROME, Sept. 10.—At today's meeting of the Society of Jesus, Father Wernz, the newly elected general of the society in a speech in Latin summarized the program of the order in its complex fields of work. Father Wernz conveyed to all present the apostolic benediction as he had been charged to do by the pope. The meeting then turned its attention to the consideration of the internal affairs of the society.

Something New

Vermont Yellow Colored Butterine at 15 cents per pound. Absolutely impossible to tell it in color or taste from the best creamery butter.

FLYNN'S MARKET, 137 Gorham St.

Wall Paper

97 Appleton St.

Every Woman

is interested and should know the wonderful MARVEL Whirling Spray.

The new vaginal hygiene, for women and children, first-class, is a great discovery.

Ask your druggist for it. It cannot supply the MARVEL Whirling Spray. It is a great discovery.

Full particulars and directions valuable in ladies. Price $1.00. 46 N. 2nd St., NEW YORK.

LOWELL COMMERCIAL COLLEGE

The Oldest School New England

FOUNDED 1859 INC. 1905

Register Now.....

Fall Term Begins Sept. 4

Day and Evening Sessions. Endorsed by Business Men

ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE FREE.

No Better School Anywhere

7 MERRIMACK STREET.

Shorthand

Typewriting

Bookkeeping

Situation Departments

In Boston and Lowell.

PENNYROYAL PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND

For all ailments of the bowels, kidneys, bladder, and all other organs of the urinary system. It is a powerful purgative and is the only medicine that can be taken without danger to the health.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Smith, Lowell, Mass.

Each box contains 10 pills. Price 25c. per box. Sold everywhere.

MOSQUITO MINARD'S BLACK FLY BITES LINIMENT

Quickly relieved 25c. and 50c.

P. P. HAGGERTY

Choir Director, Tenor Vocalist, Teacher of Singing

Room 21, Swan Building

Will receive pupils on and after the 15th of September.

There is but One Real Soda Cracker because there is but one that comes to you just as it comes from the oven.

Others lose their value by being exposed to the air, absorbing moisture and collecting dust.

The real soda cracker is Uneda Biscuit kept fresh and clean by the protecting package

5c

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY.

LATEST

TERRIBLE MASSACRE

Soldiers, Police, Jews and Christians Slaughtered

SIEDLICE, Russian Poland, Sept. 10.—Terrorists Saturday evening shot and killed two soldiers who were on guard at a government alcohol store in this city. A detachment of infantry called to the scene fired a volley into the crowd that had gathered with the intention of avenging their comrades, killing two persons and wounding two. Immediately afterward the troops began to attack the Jews.

Yesterday morning the terrorists retaliated by beginning a massacre of policemen and soldiers patrolling the streets, and at noon the infuriated troops took matters into their own hands and began a general massacre, paying special attention to the Jewish quarter, of which the houses and shops were early destroyed. All the rest of the day the soldiers attacked civilians, robbing and murdering Jews and Christians without discrimination. Fires were set and many streets were nearly devastated. Hundreds of persons have been killed and wounded, and the slaughter is still in progress, while the city is in flames. Troops have now surrounded the city and no one is allowed access to it.

Siedlice is the capital of the province of the same name in Russian Poland, and is situated about 65 miles east-southeast of Warsaw. It is of no particular commercial importance, being little more than an administrative center. Its population is less than 10,000.

CHRISTIANS

WERE WARNED BY THE SOLDIERS.

SIEDLICE, Poland, Sept. 10.—The Jewish massacre supplanting in seriousness all previous ones in this city, took place here Saturday and Sunday. It had been carefully planned, the soldiers warning all of the Christian population in advance to hang out their lights so that they might remain unharmed. Saturday night some terrorists killed two soldiers and wounded two. The Jewish quarter broke forth in unbridled fury. They began murdering Jews, on every hand and continued the work of slaughter all night. Saturday and Sunday. The ghastly work of murdering and pillaging continued until an early hour this morning when Gov. General Skladkowski telegraphed permission to use the artillery. Four batteries then opened fire down Plonka street, Warsaw and Allena streets, which were inhabited by thousands of Jews. The destruction was horrible. As a result, it is estimated that fully 200 Jews have been killed and 1,000 wounded. There are 3,000 prisoners in custody, a great many of whom are wounded. Not a soldier was killed.

This morning squads of soldiers were parading through the streets selling pillage and looted property. The army officers openly contemplated the selling of loot. The local governor, Engelke, took no steps to prevent the outrage.

TWELVE HURT

MOTORMAN MAY BE INJURED FATALITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Twelve persons were injured, one of them a motorman, probably fatally, in a collision between two trolley cars at the New York end of the Brooklyn bridge today. None of the passengers was dangerously hurt, though nearly all had painful cuts or bruises.

WAR GAME

ENDED IN COLLISION BETWEEN CAVALRY AND ARTILLERY.

BERLIN, Sept. 10.—The German war game culminated today in a collision between the cavalry and artillery divisions of the Reds and Blues in which ten thousand lancers and two hundred quick firing machine guns took part. Emperor Wilhelm, accompanied by his American guests and other foreign guests and attended by a numerous staff observed the game from elevated grounds. The blues drove back the reds.

His majesty talked with Major Barry for ten minutes on military subjects. He was especially jolly and his remarks were instructive.

WILL NOT RESIGN.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co., bankers, in this city, received a telegram today from Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railways of San Francisco, in which Mr. Calhoun denies that he is to resign from the company. The telegram follows:

"I have no intention of resigning. You are authorized to deny the report emphatically and state that my interest in the property is just as great as ever."

METROPOLITAN OPERA CHORUS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Fifty members of the Metropolitan Opera chorus arrived today on the steamer La Bretagne. Later the chorus may have to go to Ellis Island to prove that they are not contract laborers. A theatrical agent, John J. Barry, filed a complaint with the department of commerce and labor in Washington and with the immigration authorities in this city in which he alleges that the chorus singers come under the contract labor law in that they are laborers brought to this country under contract.

LOCOMOTIVE FIREMEN.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 10.—The tenth biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen opened here today with about 700 delegates present. The convention will continue for about three weeks. The business will be secret. Frank B. Sargent, formerly head of the order is here and will remain a short time, his visit being of a social nature.

BIG GOLD OFFERING.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The United States secured practically the entire $2,500,000 gold offering on the market today, although the price had advanced one penny and three-eighths over Saturday.

In addition the United States took also $1,010,000 in eagles at the Bank of England.

BOSTON COPPER MARKET.

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—The Boston copper share market, during the early trading today had a firm tone but quickly turned strong under the leadership of Utah. The strength of American Telephone was the feature of the general list, the stock advancing to 139, up 1/2 on moderate transactions. American Agricultural Chemical was strong, advancing 1/4 to 2 1/4.

DAUGHTERS OF REVOLUTION.
BOSTON, Sept. 10.—Many members of the Massachusetts Daughters of the American Revolution left the city by boat and train today for Plymouth where the annual meeting of the society was held today. Exercises in the First church of Plymouth included addresses by several prominent members of the state society.

ASSAULTED HER

John Ferretier Was Very Bold

HE ASSAULTED MARY DUGAS

And Judge Hadley Fined Him $15

John Ferretier, a member in the Merchants club, was arraigned before Judge Hadley in police court today on a complaint charging him with assaulting Mary Dugas.

Mary said that John was an entire stranger to her. She was standing in French street, she said, waiting for her brother, when the defendant came along and spoke to her.

"He asked me," said Mary, "who I was waiting for."

"I told him I was waiting for my brother. He said that was an odd name and it wouldn't be long before he would find me and called me the vilest kind of names."

"I told him that I would call an officer and have him arrested, and as I started to go in search of an officer he pushed me back and swore at me. My brother came along and I told the story to him. Later I pointed the man out to the officer and the officer arrested him."

Mary's story was corroborated by other witnesses including her brother. Ferretier claimed to know nothing about the affair. He said he had never seen the woman before and she must have mistaken him for somebody else. "It's a case of mistaken identity," he said.

Judge Hadley didn't think so and a fine of $15 was imposed.

The judge suggested that it was too bad a big brother with a hot temper should appear upon the scene at the right time. His Honor said a good thrashing would fit the case better than a fine.

THE DRUNKEN OFFENDERS.
Mary Orr pleaded for another chance. It was her third appearance within a year, and she was well known to the court.

"I'm doing well now and so is George," said Mary. "I like my new home." George Orr is her husband and he was in the court room.

"Come here George," said Deputy Welch.

"Yes, come up here George," said Mary, "and say a word for your wife."

George went to the front for Mary. He said she had been doing well of late.

"Did you have a drink this morning, George?" asked the deputy.

"Just a few," said George. "I can stand more drink than you can."

Mary won the day and was placed on probation.

Judge Hadley was disposed to be lenient and passed out four suspended sentences, to old offenders, in quick succession.

James Powers and Joseph Trovener were fined $2 each for drunkenness and $5 each for assault and battery on Joseph Guerlin.

Mary Flaherty was sent to the prison for women at Sherborn; Julius Hyer, three months in jail; Michael McGrath, Patrick Klenon and Leon Toller were fined $5 each; Daniel Lynch, Edward A. Donahue, James Hennessey and Josephine Raymond were each fined $5 each. John Kelly was sent to the state farm. Four first offenders were fined $2 each and six were released.

MESSANGER DISCHARGED.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—William A. Nelthoff, messenger of the New Amsterdam bank, who was arrested Saturday on complaint of George Harman, vice-president of the bank, under suspicion of having stolen $200 from the bank, was discharged in police court today at the request of the bank's officials.

CLAY PIERCE ARRESTED.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 10.—H. Clay Pierce, chairman of the executive board of the Water-Pierce & Co., was arrested today at the corner of Broadway and Olive streets on an attachment issued and served several weeks ago to compel his attendance as a witness in a civil suit. Mr. Pierce was taken to the sheriff's office in the court house.

STEAMER ENGINEERS.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 10.—The international union of steamship engineers met in convention here today with about 200 delegates in attendance. During the session several proposed amendments to the constitution will be acted upon.

12 YEARS OLD.

A pleasant party was held at 32 Bridge street Saturday evening, the occasion being the twelfth anniversary of the birth of Miss Frances Hamber. During the evening a fine literary and musical program was carried out and refreshments were enjoyed.

MRS. STEWART TO MARRY.

INVERNESS, Scotland, Sept. 10.—Hanns for the marriage of J. H. Smith of New York to Mrs. Rhineland Stewart were read in the parish church of St. Andrew, Inverness, yesterday. Mrs. Stewart arrived in England only a few days ago.

SHOOTING AT SEA GIRT.

SEA GIRT, N. J., Sept. 10.—Shooting at 500 yards in the national individual match, the last of the big rifle tournament was begun today. About 175 men were on the firing line when the shooting was begun. The 1000 yard stage will be shot as soon as the firing at 500 yards is completed. Lieut. Dillon, of the engineer corps who was the leader on Saturday was shooting well at 500 yards.

7-20-4

Cigar factory monthly output is now $41,000, or more than ten millions annually. Largest sale of any lot of cigars in New England. Quality counts. R. G. Sullivan, Mfrs., Manchester, N. H.

SCHOOLS

SCHOOL CHILDREN ON THEIR WAY TO RESUME THEIR STUDIES THIS MORNING.

Supt. Whitcomb Assisted at Greenhalge School

Today marked the opening of the school term and shortly after eight o'clock this morning the doors of the public schools were thrown wide open to welcome the pupils. All the parochial schools except the French were also opened today.

The attendance at the different schools showed a perceptible gain over last year, though it is difficult at the present time to learn just how big the attendance is. It is safe to say, however, that it is several hundred larger than at the opening of the school term last year.

Supt. A. K. Whitcomb of the school department who generally makes a tour of the different schools on the first day spent the greater part of the forenoon at the Frederic T. Greenhalge school in Canal street owing to this being the formal opening of the school.

While there are ten rooms in the school but seven are in use, but those are filled so that it is expected that an eighth room will have to be opened tomorrow. The list of teachers to be assigned to the school was previously given, but changes have been made, and the teachers who reported at the school this morning were:

Misses Mary E. Thomas and Anna V. Donoghue, formerly of the Vinton school; Miss Anna E. Moody, a newly elected teacher who taught temporarily at the Lakeview avenue school last year; Miss Anna L. Mahoney, a newly elected teacher, who taught temporarily at the Franklin school last year; Miss Josephine Donahue and Martha Rogers of the Lakeview avenue school and Miss Irene Davidson, a newly elected teacher who taught temporarily at the Lakeview avenue school last year.

Of the seven rooms opened today in the new school four were of the grammar grade and three of the primary.

Owing to an accident at the Munson Brite Works a short time ago some of the rooms are minus blackboards, but it is hoped the boards will soon be on hand. The four teachers in the Lakeview avenue school are reported normal.

AUK OUTPOINTED

In Today's Race With the Vim

MARBLEHEAD, Sept. 10.

The contest for the Roosevelt cup reached what might be called the semi-final stage today, with three yachts, the Americans Vim and Auk, and the German boat Wannee still in the running.

The Vim had a slight lead with two victories to her credit to one each for the Auk and the Wannee. Conditions early today with a triangular race scheduled seemed to favor the Auk.

A ten knot northeaster was blowing into the harbor when the yachts prepared for the day's event. Early in the morning there was no wind at all but at about 7 o'clock a breeze came in from the Beverly shore and an hour later it had increased to ten miles. With the steady rise in the barometer, there was every indication that the yachts would have plenty of motive power during the day.

There was considerable sea rolling in on the rocks and ledges at the entrance to the harbor, which seemed to indicate some heavy storm far off shore. The rolls were long ones yet even conditions resembled somewhat those of Saturday when the Wannee scored her first victory.

Skipper Protzen of the Wannee, before going out to his yacht this morning said that he thought it might win today, although he admitted that with an excellent breeze the Auk had a slightly better chance. He said the conditions on Saturday with a very light wind and a long rolling sea, favored his boat because she could take the sea better than any of the other yachts. He did not look however for a repetition of those conditions today.

A very small spectator fleet prepared to follow the racers over the course, although interest in the event among yachting enthusiasts was considerably intensified by the victory on Saturday of the Wannee.

It was shortly after 9 o'clock when the three racers left their moorings in the harbor. The Vim and Wannee were under sail but the Auk was towed out.

All headed for Half Way Rock, the starting point.

The northeaster breeze which has promised so well during the early part of the day, failed to hold. At 10 o'clock the wind was not faster than three or four miles an hour and the indications were that the race would be slow.

The racing committee decided to send the yachts on a beat to windward for the first leg, a course due east.

The second leg was a reach, southerly by south and the third leg north by west, also a reach. The wind increased steadily after the committee tug reached the starting point at 11 o'clock and when the preparatory whistle was blown it was blowing 12 miles an hour and a heavy sea had been kicked up. Before the preparatory signal two reefs were taken in the Wannee's main sail and the Auk took in one reef. The Vim carried full sail.

A shift in the wind from northeast to east brought up a heavy bank of fog and at 11 o'clock when the preparatory signal was sounded it was very dense two miles from the starting point. The committee sounded the warning signal at 11:15 and the fog came in so rapidly that it was difficult not to start the race under such conditions. The signal for a postponement of the start was then hoisted and half of the spectator fleet hurried back into the harbor.

The committee waited until nine minutes past 11, one minute before the time set for the start and then hoisted the postponement flag. It developed later that all three yachts were at the farther end of the line and did not see the signal or refused to heed it. Although no starting signal was sounded the three boats went over the line, the Auk first, the Vim on her weather quarter and the Wannee a little astern but still farther to windward. The Wannee had in two reefs, the Auk one and the Vim carried wide sail. The wind at the time was strong from the east and quite a sea was running.

The yachts were halted through a megaphone but kept on and in a few minutes disappeared in the fog. The steam yacht Wild Goose came alongside the committee tug and was sent after the yachts for the purpose of intercepting them and sending them back.

The committee started at 11:15 that if the yachts could be picked up and brought back again they would be started officially just as soon as conditions were suitable.

The Vim came in sight of the committee boat at noon. She was followed by the Auk and Wannee. The skip-

BREACH OF PROMISE

Lowell Woman Fixes Damages at $3000

There was filed today at the court alleging breach of promise, against Arthur E. Huntley of this city. Purke, Corbett and Harris will look after Mr. Huntley's interests. The amount named is $3,000.

BURIED ALIVE

255 Persons Met With Horrible Fate at Tiflis

TIFLIS, Sept. 10.—Practically without warning, the side of a mountain rising above the township of Kauruli broke away and in a rain of semi-burnt mud, sand and stones, swept down on the township and overwhelmed and obliterated it. Some 255 persons have been buried alive. Fifty-five bodies already have been recovered from the mire which is about six feet deep. In addition to the lives lost, countless heads of cattle perished and the crops were destroyed.

Kauruli township occupies an area of five kilometers in the district of Telavi in the Caucasus. Similar disasters are of common occurrence in Caucasian valleys.

FRANK E. DUNBAR

Awaits Acceptance of His Challenge

Col. Chadwick this afternoon sent the following note to Col. Ames' representative:

Mr. Joseph Legare,
Congressman Ames' Headquarters,
Dear Sir:

Mr. Dunbar has just telephoned me that he feels keenly the humiliation which our honest and earnest republicans must share with him because of the unanimously protracted negotiations for meeting Mr. Ames in debate. He wishes to reiterate his only challenge to debate at Lowell, Lawrence and Reading in accordance with Mr. Ames' own promise to meet him, "at any time and at any place."

Mr. Dunbar earnestly awaits a definite acceptance or a definite rejection of the challenge.

Yours truly,
A. M. CHADWICK.

The other statement bearing on this matter will be found on page 7.

INSURED HIS HAND.

Frederic Ducharme, residing at 68 Suffolk street, while at work in one of the local shoe shops today sustained a lacerated wound of the left hand as a result of having that member caught under a shoe die. He was taken to the Emergency hospital where he received treatment.

GOVERNMENT'S REPERT.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10.—The British embassy has received from the foreign office expressions of the government's regret for the attack in Tiflis, Sept. 8, upon Leslie Ughetto, the British vice consul and assurances that everything would be done to discover and punish the perpetrators of the act.

NO NEWS FROM KANYAHIN.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10.—No further news has been received here concerning the situation at Kanyahin on the Volga. It was reported yesterday that during the absence of troops and teams were expressed that the town might be in the hands of a mob. Communication with Kanyahin is still interrupted.

COKE-$4.50

Horne Coal Company

FREE THIS MONTH

DR. TEMPLE and associates will give consultation all this month free of charge. All those who are sick are invited to take advantage of this offer and learn their true physical condition.

DR. TEMPLE and associates cure pains in the side, back, under shoulder blade, smothering sensations, palpitation of the heart, tired feeling in the morning, poor appetite, coated tongue, blotches, or pimples on the face, head, and in the mouth, roaring, buzzing sounds in the head, dizziness, headache, restlessness at night, night sweats, bad dreams, feeling of fear, stiffness of limbs, skin troubles and all blood disorders.

You can consult with Dr. Temple and associates—free of charge—at their office, 97 Central street, Mansard block, every day, 10 to 12, 2 to 5; evenings, 7 to 8. Sun- days, 10 a. m. to 12 m. Office closed Wednesdays. The price of treatment is within the reach of all, payable as able. Free X-Ray Examination.

TEXTILE NOTES

Interesting Items From Mill Centres

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 10.—Shuterman Bros., proprietors of the Capital City Woolen Mills, are having plans drawn for a new factory building to be added to their present plant on Eighth Street between Vine and Market streets. It is expected that the contract will be awarded within a few days and the building completed this fall. The building now being planned is 100x120 and two stories high, it being the intention to add more space to the business quarters. It will be located between the two large buildings, and when added to the present properties will give the plant almost a solid quarter block of factory buildings. It will be necessary to raise the old room, which is on the north side of the operating plant. The new building will be used almost exclusively for the operating department. The management states that the capacity of the plant is not equal to the business and they are unable to keep up with orders, although they are now working a force of 20 people. The company is held with orders and is not able to go after new business, as would be possible with more room and increased factory equipment. It is the intention to increase the number of operating machines from 18 to 20 and have one of the largest best lighted and sanitary rooms possible.

MANY NEW NEW JERSEY MILLS

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Sept. 10.—Since the first of the year New Jersey has been going through a remarkable industrial development, as evidenced by the unprecedented volume of the building operations in factories and mills in the state. Statistics available from several cities indicate that the building operations of this character throughout the state between Jan. 1 and Aug. 1 of the current year aggregated about $8,000,000. This constructive evidence of industrial growth is not confined to any one section of the state, but is distributed.

MILLS CHANGE HANDS

WESTERLY, R. I., Sept. 10.—The Roger Williams Cotton Mills at Ardenia have changed hands and are now the property of George C. Gardner and Edward M. Tillinghast. Beginning with the first of September the plant commenced operations under the firm name of Gardner & Tillinghast. The mills are to be stocked with new machinery, and the production will be all kinds of cotton yarns. The company will employ about the same number of help as heretofore, and are now ready to receive employees in place of those who left during the time the plant was still.

COTTON MILLS EJECT OFFICERS

SHELBYVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 10.—J. R. Friserson, Ernest Caldwell, R. S. McGill, T. M. Robinson and W. J. McGill have been elected directors of the Sylvan Cotton Mills for the ensuing year. The board at once organized by the election of the following active officers: J. R. Friserson, president; T. M. McGill, secretary-treasurer and general manager; and Ernest Caldwell, attorney. A thorough examination showed that the mills were in excellent financial condition, and the recent placing of new machinery, while largely increasing the capacity of the mills, will greatly add to their value and efficiency.

WOOL MARKET STRONG

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 7.—A buyer for the American Woolen Co. has been here most of the week looking over the field and has given the wool market a stronger tone. It is reported that he has bought large lines of Soda Springs wools in original bags, and also a blood bright unwashed wools. Before his arrival the market here was drab, but holders now feel confident that the tide has turned. The effect of the purchases has certainly been beneficial.

THE CARPET MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—In the carpet and rug trade the fall season is fast proving to be one of the largest in the history of the trade. The demand for rugs, both domestic and imported, has been enormous, but this does not appear to have in any way cut down the demand for carpetings. Very large sales have been made in three-quarter goods, and the orders continue to come forward in a steady stream.

OFFER MADE

FOR THE FAIR GROUNDS IS PENDING.

In all probability the fair grounds will be sold to a Lowell party on Wednesday. The overtures of sale were made Saturday at a meeting of the committee empowered to sell. The papers have not been passed yet and the proposed purchaser has until next Wednesday to sign or decline final documents.

Quite a few of the larger retail

Letter to CARLETON & HOVEY, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sirs: Here's the difference between two pure paints; one strong; the other weak.

C. P. Hanger, Staunton, Va., painted two new houses, the houses exactly alike; one another pure paint, the other Devco. Devco cost a quarter less for paint and labor.

People generally are paying twice-over for paint.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVCO & CO.

P. S.—The Adams Hardware and Paint Co. sell our paint.

Preserving Time...

Two articles you need for preserving time that you can't afford to get along without:

OUR IDEAL FOOD CUTTER 95c

Cuts all kinds of fruit and vegetables.

Our Slanting Dial Scale, $1.19

Weights 24 lbs. and is accurate.

The dial is slanting, requiring no stooping to see the figures.

PARAFFINE WAX for sealing jelly, fruits, etc.

Time to Touch Up Your Floors

OUR NO-MAR FLOOR STAIN

does not scratch like ordinary stains, and gives splendid results.

FLOOR WAX—All kinds.

FLOOR BRUSHES—For hard wood floors.

WEIGHTED BRUSHES.

DRY MOPS.

BRONZE PAINTS.

The Thompson Hardware Co.
254-256 Merrimack Street

ELMS CHAMPS

Ketchups Badly Beaten in Deciding Game

The Elms defeated the Ketchups A. C. in the "rubber" game of the season and made them look like bad money, winning the game, championship, the purse and gate receipts by the decided vote of 30 to 5. The Elms played the two Ketchup pitchers and took the heart out of their opponents by scoring 5 runs in the first inning. The score:

ELMS.	AB.	R.	H.	E.
Exposito, 2b.	5	1	1	0
O'Brien, 2b.	5	1	1	0
Ducharme, c.	5	1	1	0
Page, 1b.	5	1	1	0
Lynch, 1b.	5	1	1	0
Gagne, 3b.	5	1	1	0
Hunt, 3b.	5	1	1	0
Allen, 3b.	5	1	1	0
Gandy, p.	5	1	1	0
Totals	40	21	27	0

KETCHUP CLUB.	AB.	R.	H.	E.
T. Roddy, 2b.	5	0	0	2
McAlister, 2b.	5	0	0	2
Foley, 2b.	5	0	0	2
McCarthy, 2b.	5	0	0	2
Gandy, p.	5	0	0	2
Phinney, 1b.	5	0	0	2
Kelly, 1b.	5	0	0	2
Donovan, 1b.	5	0	0	2
Malin, 1b.	5	0	0	2
Totals	40	0	0	14

N. E. LEAGUE STANDING.

Team	W.	L.	P.	C.
Worcester	13	4	2	3
Lynn	10	6	4	5
Lawrence	11	5	2	2
New Bedford	11	5	2	2
Manchester	11	5	2	2
Fall River	11	5	2	2
Haverhill	11	5	2	2
Lowell	11	5	2	2

N. E. LEAGUE RESULTS.

(Saturday Games.)

At Worcester—First game: Worcester 2, Lowell 1. (Second game: Worcester 14, Lowell 2. (Recreation.)

At Fall River—First game: Fall River 2, Manchester 1. (2 innings.) (Second game: Manchester 1, Fall River 1.

At Haverhill—First game: Haverhill 2, New Bedford 1. (Second game: New Bedford 1, Haverhill 1.

At Lawrence—Lawrence 3, Lynn 0.

AMERICAN LEAGUE STANDING.

Team	W.	L.	P.	C.
New York	17	4	2	3
Chicago	15	6	4	5
Cleveland	15	6	4	5
Philadelphia	15	6	4	5
St. Louis	15	6	4	5
Detroit	15	6	4	5
Washington	15	6	4	5
Boston	15	6	4	5

AMERICAN LEAGUE RESULTS.

(Saturday Games.)

Washington 5, Boston 2.

Chicago 4, Detroit 3.

Cleveland 1, St. Louis 0.

New York 11, Philadelphia 4.

(Sunday Games.)

At St. Louis—First game: Cleveland 3, St. Louis 0. (Second game: St. Louis 3, Cleveland 1.

At Chicago—Chicago 4, Detroit 0.

GAMES TODAY.

Boston at New York.

Washington at Philadelphia.

Detroit at Chicago.

GAMES THIS WEEK.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Monday—New York at Boston, Philadelphia at Brooklyn.

Tuesday—New York at Boston, Philadelphia at Brooklyn, Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.

Wednesday—New York at Boston, Philadelphia at Brooklyn, Cincinnati at Pittsburgh, Chicago at St. Louis.

Thursday—Philadelphia at Boston, Brooklyn at New York, Cincinnati at Pittsburgh, Chicago at St. Louis.

Friday—Philadelphia at Boston, Brooklyn at New York, Cincinnati at Pittsburgh, Chicago at St. Louis.

Saturday—Philadelphia at Boston, Brooklyn at New York, Cincinnati at Pittsburgh, Chicago at St. Louis.

Sunday—Pittsburgh at Chicago, St. Louis at Cincinnati.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Monday—Boston at New York, Washington at Philadelphia, Detroit at Chicago.

Tuesday and Wednesday—Boston at New York, Washington at Philadelphia, Philadelphia at Chicago, Cleveland at Detroit.

Thursday—Boston at Philadelphia, St. Louis at Chicago, New York at Washington, Cleveland at Detroit.

Friday—Boston at Philadelphia, New York at Washington, Detroit at Cleveland, St. Louis at Chicago.

Saturday—Boston at Philadelphia, New York at Washington, Detroit at Cleveland, St. Louis at Chicago.

Sunday—Detroit at Chicago, Cleveland at St. Louis.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

Saturday games:

At McCoy's field, Chelmsford 15, West Chelmsford 3.

At the Westlands, Lowell 5, 12, Dragons 6.

At Middlesex Village, Middlesex 24, Y. M. C. A. 8.

At Grantville, Westford A. A. 13, Lowell Americans 12.

At Billerica, T. R. & T's 13, Wamestes 9.

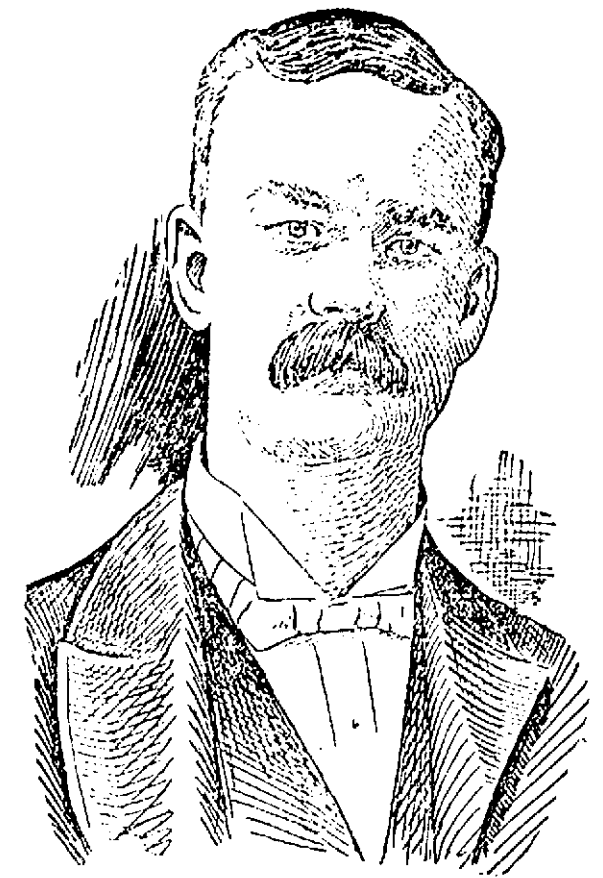

CARS COLLIDED

ON CURVE IN BOSTON SUBWAY

YESTERDAY.

There was a collision of electric cars in the subway on a curve near Scollay square in Boston yesterday afternoon. A Revere car crashed into another that was standing on the track on the curve. Two heavy women who were sitting near the front were thrown over the seat in front of them and a little girl was thrown forward out of the car and was seriously injured. The women were badly scared. There were three other passengers on the car and they saw the collision coming and escaped injury by bracing themselves against the seats.

MAINE ELECTION

HON. CHARLES E. LITTLEFIELD, REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

Big Vote Being Cast in Pine Tree State

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 10.—A fair stumped the state and asked the people to defeat Mr. Littlefield. Mr. Gompers's campaigning was peculiar in that he was affiliated with no party, as far as known and refrained from naming Daniel J. McGillicuddy, a Littlefield's only opponent, of any recognized strength. Prohibition has been the keynote of the campaign of Gov. W. T. Cobb, who is a candidate for another term in office, while the Democrats have protested against certain existing conditions by inserting in their platform a plank calling for the re-submission to the people of the Prohibition law. Littlefield summarized the situation which confronted the voters today was as follows: Gov. Cobb's re-election, on what is not only with the liquor question, but also indirectly with the question of labor legislation in the lower branch of congress. This condition was brought about by Charles E. Littlefield's failure to vote for certain labor measures advocated by the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Littlefield's candidacy for re-election brought about strong opposition from the leader of the federation, Samuel Gompers, who personally

DANIEL J. MCGILICUDY, DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

Inside Facts
C.C.A.
Only men of the first rank are employed in the making of C.C.A. cigars.
C.C.A. cigars are made of the finest tobacco.
C.C.A. cigars are of the highest quality.
10 cent cigar.

COAL DEALERS

To be Sued for Alleged Conspiracy

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 10. Papers are being prepared in a suit of conspiracy to be brought against a number of coal dealers in the United States, charged with conspiring to fix the price of coal. The suit will be brought by Charles H. Hale, a coal dealer against several coal dealers, under the criminal clause of the Sherman anti-trust law. The allegation being a conspiracy to injure Mr. Hale, who is an independent dealer, the plan of the conspiracy is to fix the price of coal. The suit is in restraint of trade. Mr. Hale says that the coal dealers have used their influence against him so that he cannot compete with them in getting coal. Wholesale prices of coal are being fixed by the dealers, who would make so much delay as to be embarrassing to Mr. Hale. Sixteen of the coal dealers will be made parties defendant in the suit.

PANIC ON A CAR

Explosion in Controller of Lowell Electric

of Lowell Electric

WOMEN TRAMPLED UPON

Several Persons Were Badly Injured

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—An explosion in the front controller on an outward bound Lowell electric car on Broadway, opposite Mr. Pleasant street, East Somerville, about 10:30 last night caused a small-sized panic among the passengers who rushed to the doors, and in the wild scramble some of them jumped or fell from the car and were injured more or less.

A number of women fainted in the car and on the street from the shock. They were assisted to the drug store of L. H. Carpenter & Co., where restoratives were applied to them. Mrs. W. T. Battle of 67 Adams street, Somerville, was the most seriously affected by the shock. She lapsed into unconsciousness upon being carried to the drug store. She was taken to her home in an ambulance. Mrs. J. J. Beals of 561 Broadway, Somerville, was assisted to the drug store, where she was given treatment. She was taken home by her husband. Mrs. William S. Atwell, who resides at the corner of Broadway and Adams street, Somerville, jumped off the car in her effort to escape being burned and was knocked down by the excited passengers in the rush behind her. She was trampled upon and bruised. She also suffered from shock. She was assisted home by her husband. Most of the women who suffered from shock at the sight of the flames leaping up were able to resume their journey home when given restoratives. Their dresses were soiled and torn in falling to the ground and by being walked upon by the excited crowd. The screams of the women added to the excitement in the car. The car was in charge of conductor 720 and motorman 767. It left the Sullivan square station about 10:15 with about 10 passengers aboard.

RIGBY FAMILY

SURPRISED BY THEIR FRIENDS SATURDAY NIGHT.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rigby of Pawtucketville were pleasantly surprised at their home Saturday night when forty friends called unexpectedly at their home. Mr. Rigby was formerly an overseer in the Merrimack print works, and owing to his popularity his friends presented him a gold watch, chain and charm. Miss Isabel Phelps made the presentation speech with words that were timely and well chosen; then Mr. Rigby, with some embarrassment, thanked them for the kindly proof of friendship exemplified by the gift. The evening passed in merry fashion and music and refreshments were enjoyed. There were guests from Boston, Everett and Nashua. Mrs. George Rigby and Miss Alice Axon served.

WHY DON'T YOU VISIT WOBRUN BY TROLLEY

Via Billerica and Burlington?

One of the most delightful of Trolley Trips from Lowell. Finest scenery all the way.

SEE Pinehurst Park Count Rumford's Birthplace And All the Many Interesting Sights of the Interesting City of Woburn.

HATHAWAY'S

DAILY MATINEE Beginning Monday, Sept. 10 DAILY MATINEE
PRICES—Matinee Only 10, 20, 30c. Evenings, 10, 20, 30 and 50c.

ANOTHER BIG SHOW

Vaudeville's CLEVEREST SINGING NOVELTY

SIDNEY DEAN & CO. Presenting "CHRISTMAS ON THE ISLAND."

Arthur & Mildred Boylan & Co. Presenting Jack and Jill.

THOMAS & PAYNE Colored Singers and Dancers.

FLORENCE SAUNDERS A Real American Soprano.

Barney—FERGUSON & MACK—John

STIFF PIANOS USED.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

3 Nights Commencing Tonight—1 Matinee, Wednesday, Sept. 12
Wm. A. Brady and Joe. St. AS YE SOW Prices—25c, 50c, 75c and $1.
The same great company as seen in Boston.

THURSDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 13, DENNIS THOMPSON'S SECRETS OF THE FUTURE

including the famous Old Homestead Double Quartette. Prices: 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00. Seats on sale Tuesday.

Friday and Saturday Evenings, Sept. 14 and 15—Matinee Saturday. Henry W. Sawyer's Opera COLLEGE WIDOW Prices: $1.50, $1.00, 75c, 50c and 25c. Seats on sale Wednesday.

COOK WILL DIE JEWS IN A PANIC

Legislator Stabbed by Irate Fugitives Throng Railroad Station at Siedloe

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 10.—State Representative Lawrence B. Cook, of the 8th legislative district in Mercer county, died of stab wounds inflicted by Justice of the Peace Andrew W. McMillan of Carnegie, McMillan is locked up.

McMillan for some time had been suspicious of undue intimacy between his wife and Cook. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. McMillan left her home in Carnegie, a borough adjoining the city, saying she was going to visit a sister in the East end. McMillan followed her and saw her meet Cook. He trailed ed the two until they entered a house on Lawn street, in a presumably respectable residence district of Pittsburgh. McMillan waited some time and went to the house. He brushed aside the woman of the house and finding a room with the door locked burst it open and discovered his wife and Cook under circumstances that left no doubt of their guilt. McMillan attacked Cook. The latter waved his hands for some minutes, when McMillan drew his pocketknife and stabbed Cook five times. Two of the wounds are in the breast, one in the side and two in the back.

ST. PITTSBURGH, Sept. 10.—The predictions made in these despatches on August 12 of a Jewish massacre at Siedloe, Russia, Poland, unhappily have been justified by the fighting which broke out Saturday night and developed yesterday into a carnival of indiscriminate slaughter and pillage in which the mob and the mob took part. Jews were shot and bayoneted in the streets of the town. Houses and shops were broken into and sacked. Valuables were carried off and offered for sale by peddlers to passengers on passing trains.

In addition to the Jews a number of Christians and even some officers met their death in the fighting. The number of victims has not yet been established but a conservative estimate places it at 10. The Jewish fugitives who thronged the railroad stations at Siedloe are in a state of panic.

Reports received here from Warsaw and other towns in the vicinity of Siedloe place the number of victims at several hundred. The early reports of the Siedloe massacre put the responsibility at the door of the terrorists but fugitives declare that the soldiers never would have been allowed to get so completely out of hand without the complicity, if not the actual direction of their officers. The first reports received of the Siedloe massacre last June said the terrorists to be blame there also.

It is difficult to obtain details of the trouble at Siedloe as the town was surrounded yesterday by soldiers who allowed nobody to enter. Passengers, however, who arrived at Warsaw during the night gave the following account of the slaughter.

After the murder of a policeman by terrorists on Saturday night and the firing of a volley by troops into the crowd which resulted in the killing of two citizens and the wounding of many more, the terrorists met and decided to exact vengeance by inaugurating a general campaign against the police and the troops, similar to the recent rioting along the same lines in Warsaw. During Sunday morning 12 policemen and soldiers were killed. As a result of this the Lithuanian regiment, in a state of infuriated anger left its barracks in the afternoon and marched into the Jewish quarter, shooting right and left as it went. The troops were joined by crowds of hoodlums who co-operated in the plundering and wantonly destroyed everything they were unable or unfeeling to carry away. The sale of booty by the soldiers went on under the very eye of their officers. A correspondent of the Associated Press who was not able to get into Siedloe yesterday started for Transilvania this morning.

IN FLAMES

BUILDINGS AND HAZARD WERE DESTROYED.

SIEDLOE, Sept. 10.—Six buildings and the big bazaar of the city are in flames, adding another terror to the killing and plundering which has been going on here for the last 36 hours.

Frequent shots and occasional volley-firing is still heard in various parts of the town but because of the general panic it is difficult to learn what is transpiring.

Apparently there have been thus far about 60 persons killed and 200 wounded. Hundreds of Jews today are at the railroad station trying to get out of town but Siedloe is surrounded by troops who do not permit exit or entrance.

Field guns occupy points of vantage on the principal streets. Without doubt the terrorists are responsible for provoking the massacre by their fusillades from roofs and windows on Saturday against soldiers and policemen. Troops firing came and poured in volleys through windows and doors. This was followed by a search of the premises, which soon developed into wholesale plundering and then into massacre and slaughter. The trouble began on Plenkina street and spread rapidly to a large portion of the town. Almost all the Jewish shops have been looted. Owners who defended their property were killed or wounded. Any person seen leaving a house or looking out of a window was shot without mercy.

REVOLUTIONISTS

FIRING AT SOLDIERS FROM THE WINDOWS.

WARSAW, Sept. 10.—A telegram received here from Siedloe today says the rioting and shooting there continue. The revolutionists are firing at the soldiers from windows and the troops reply with volleys. The Lithuanian regiment took the principal part in the massacre. Some passengers on a through train were hit by stray shots on Sunday. The authorities have sent in a detachment of artillery from Rombertoff.

The loss offered for sale by the soldiers consists principally of jewelry and clothing.

OPERA HOUSE

One of the most touching episodes ever written in a drama is the pathetic story of the father, for example, as told by Dr. Snyder, in his "LIFE OF THE SOUL" which will be presented here for three nights commencing tonight and one matinee on Wednesday at the Opera House has already lightened one part of the good for which the author is striving in writing this drama. Dora Leblond, the heroine, tells of her little girl who was stolen from her arms by her selfish and unfeeling father while she is holding the minister's adopted child sleeping in her arms. She tells how she is reminded of her own lost child. In her grief, she says "John, she makes me think of my own baby who, maybe is lying in rags and wretchedness, and maybe is dead."

Afterwards, she learns that the very child on whom she has lavished so much affection is her own child, who has always been tenderly cared for. In one of the large audiences that have characterized every performance of this rural drama, during its stay in Chicago, there was a quiet, unobtrusive woman who was much affected by this pathetic story, so realistically presented and sought out the author after the performance, to tell him the following story: "It is like a bit of my own story. Five years ago I lost a dear, little girl, in almost the same way, for I was divorced from my drunken husband, and the judge decreed that the child should be mine. My husband was much enraged at the decision and, watching his opportunity he came to my house and stole the baby. I have been unable to find the slightest trace of her. I have even searched every children's home I could learn of. I understand that my husband has married again, but I cannot ascertain if the child is still with him or not. The little child has brought back my sorrow and comforted me, for it is possible that my child is still living may have found a happy home, where she is as well taken care of as though I had her myself. Witnessing your play has been a great comfort to me. You all seem so real," she said, smiling through her tears.

"THE OLD HOMESTEAD" How far the famous old New England play, "The Old Homestead" will go in the affections of the theatre-goers, it seems to be a query as unanswerable as the famous question as to who snatched Billy Patterson. Suffice it to say that it is now in its twentieth year and is still vigorous in its drawing power and its ability to please. "Time does not wither nor childhood destroy its firm hold on the populace and it is not yet. This season it is being presented by a company which is practically the same as for a dozen years past. The scenic environment is superb, the music is elaborate and characteristic, and the famous double quartet is said to be the best that Mr. Thompson has ever had. The Old Homestead will be seen at the Opera House on Thursday evening, Sept. 13.

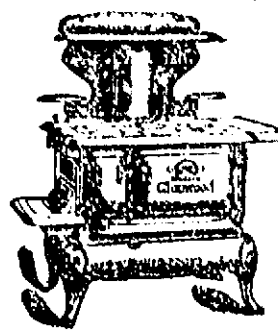

"THE COLLEGE WIDOW"

Miss Patty Allison has the laughing hit of "The College Widow" which comes to the Opera House on Friday and Saturday evenings, Sept. 14 and 15, and matinee on Saturday. She impersonates Flora Wiggins, the daughter of the boarding house keeper and the fiancée of any student behind his bills. Flora suggests several of Ade's final observations when he was a Chicago newspaper man. She was a proud unbending cashier in an all-night restaurant, where she was English. The restaurant was patronized by a number of rough and ready comedians who were always ready to give the cashier a shot. One night she had been under the fire of a long string of bantering customers, the last of whom had given her an awful broadside at which she merely smiled. Ade was right behind ready to pay his check. "You are not angry?" he asked. "Now, do you know," said Haughty Harriet, "that is something I never get."

HATHAWAY THEATRE

"We don't know how they do it, but they do." is the remark that is universally made by Hathaway's theatre patrons, in compliment to the excellence of the vaudeville talent with which the

A Sure Oven That's why the Glenwood

"Makes Cooking Easy"

COOKIN BROS. CO.
35 Market Street. Lowell, Mass.

Your old range taken in exchange.

TALK ON ATHEISM

Interesting Sermon by Rev. Mr. Billings

AT FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH

Supt. Whitcomb Spoke on Education

At the First Unitarian church Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. C. T. Billings, preached on "The Atheism of Today." He found his text in Gen. 3:8, and he said, in part:

"And the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of Jehovah God amongst the trees of the garden."

"There is a practical and a theoretical atheism," Mr. Billings said. "This hiding from God was practical atheism. The dwellers in Eden believed in God, yet felt there was a place where he was not. So our atheism is practical rather than theoretical. Most men believe in God or take refuge in agnosticism. Few deny this existence, and yet the practical atheism is very prevalent. Even with us there seem to be large tracts of God does not occupy."

"With most of us the vital sense of God is rare. It comes in crises, in the presence of the wonders of nature, or from the reading of great passages of literature, or from the contact with noble lives, or from the deeper experiences of our own lives."

"When evolution was first heralded, men thought it did away with God altogether. But deeper study showed that it was not a power in itself, but the way in which God manifests his power."

WHITCOMB ON EDUCATION.

Arthur K. Whitcomb, superintendent of the Lowell schools, spoke on "Education" at the Centralville M. E. church Sunday evening. He spoke of the educational movement in New England and of its progress everywhere on the planet during the last 40 years. He said that at the present time practically all the children in Massachusetts attend school. He spoke of the triumph of the public school system in France, and the movement along similar lines in England. He discussed the advantages of modern educational methods over the earlier methods, the better schoolhouses and school books, and the complete change in the feeling that exists between the pupils and the teacher, and he told of the necessity for education in competing with trained minds in modern days.

VISITING KNIGHTS

ENTERTAINED AT THE GENOA CLUB YESTERDAY.

Members of the Knights of Columbus, Brighton, Allston, Brookline and Newton, came to Lowell yesterday by special cars and went up the river to the Knights of Columbus camp, known as the Genoa club. There were three carloads of the members and they spent a most enjoyable day. The return trip was made during the evening.

J. V. DONOGHUE

ADDRESSES ST. JOHN'S T. A. SOCIETY.

The St. John's T. A. Society of North Chelmsford held a special meeting yesterday morning, and had for a guest, President John V. Donoghue of the C. T. A. lecturing bureau of New England, in whose charge that society is, as district deputy of the C. T. A. U. of the archdiocese.

Mr. Donoghue gave an interesting talk on the objects and aims of the union and also the lecturing bureau. He was warmly applauded at the close.

A. G. POLLARD & CO.

The Store for Thrifty People

High Grade Linens

At Unusual Prices

A few pieces from a belated importer that have come to us at under prices. Your Fall Linens may be bought cheaply at these prices.

A heavy bleached Damask, 72 inches wide, worth $1.39, only $1.00 a yard

A fine Irish Damask, worth $2, only $1.25 a yard

A heavy Double Damask, worth $2, only $1.39 a yard

22 inch full bleached Napkins, worth $3.98, only $2.75 a dozen

Odd dozen of 3-4 size Napkins, $7.50 quality, only $5.00 a dozen

Some of John S. Brown's Pattern Cloths, sizes 8-4 by 10-4, usually $7.50, only $5.00 each

40 dozen All Linen Huck Towels, sizes 22 inch by 40 inch, regular price 39 cents, only 25 cents each

On Sale Today, Palmer Street, Left Aisle

Allenburg's Foods

Will Save Your Baby

When mother's milk fails don't wait—begin at once with Allenburg's Foods. They have saved thousands of babies' lives—they will save your baby. Ask your dealer for book "Infant Feeding and Management" or write direct.

THE ALLEN & HANCOCK CO., LTD., TORONTO, CANADA.

SANITARY NECESSITIES

DISINFECTANT (Ask for instruction sheet) 15c PINT
SULPHUR CANDLES 10c-25c EACH
CHLORIDE OF LIME 10c CAN
C.B. Coburn Co., 63 Market Street

DIED OF INJURIES

Frank J. Murray Fell From Elevator

Frank J. Murray, aged 45 years, died at the Lowell hospital Saturday night at 10:15 o'clock as a result of injuries received while at work in the Lawrence mills last Tuesday.

Shortly before noon Tuesday Murray fell from an elevator in the new mill of the Lawrence company and was removed to the hospital with what were thought to have been slight injuries. Later internal injuries developed and the man's condition gradually grew worse until Saturday when he was placed on the dangerous list.

Deceased lived at 14 Ardell street and was a prominent parishioner of St. Patrick's church, being an active member of the Holy Name society. He is survived by his wife, two sons, William and George, two sisters, Mrs. Alice Murray and Miss Molly Murray of Montpelier, Vt., and four brothers, William Frederick, John and Edward, and a mother, all of Montpelier, Vt.

Deceased was a bookkeeper with Kraft & Co., and the other is attending the high school.

The body was taken to his home, 14 Ardell street, by J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

The funeral of Frank J. Murray will take place at 8 o'clock tomorrow from his home and at 2 o'clock a requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Patrick's church. O'Donnell & Sons undertakers.

KILLED HIMSELF

Boy Was Rebuked for Keeping Late Hours

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Jesse Weinstein, aged 16, who lived with his parents at 93 East 15th street, killed himself in the hallway of the home shortly after midnight yesterday morning.

The boy had a love affair, and had been cautioned by his father for remaining out after 12 o'clock. When he reached his home with two boy companions, he had them good night, adding, "I'm going on a long journey, and you'll never see me again." On entering the hall he placed a revolver to his head and killed himself.

His parents were sitting at the window and saw him enter the house, but did not rebuke him for the late hour he had kept Saturday night.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

Be careful of cheap imitations.

AUTOS CRASHED

SEVERAL PERSONS WERE BADLY INJURED.

HAMPTON BEACH, N. H., SEPT. 10.—In a head-on collision between two automobiles on the North Beach road yesterday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Endicott, chauffeur, and maid of Dedham, were badly shaken up and Miss Mary Toppin and Mrs. Chester Marston of Hampton had fractured ribs and were cut about the head, while Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sanborn of Hampton were bruised and H. H. Holmes, also of Hampton, was cut and bruised.

DANDROCIDE

A HAIR IN EVERY DROP
For Sale by ELLINGWOOD & CO.

MORE THAN 1200

Shirt waists were sold by us last week. Fashion says that white shirt waists will be the style all winter.

Waists of good lawn or batiste, open front or back, all long sleeves, values up to $1.50, now 69c

Waists of fine lawn, button front or back, long or short sleeves, values up to $1.98, now 97c

Waists of fine lawn or batiste, button front or back, long or short sleeves, values up to $2.98, now $1.93

White net face waists, front of dainty applique, wash silk lining, button back, long or short sleeve, worth $3.50 special at $1.93

Five styles of cambric corset covers, deep yoke of lace, run with ribbon front and back. You can't find as good value elsewhere for less than 39c; for a few days only 19c

Your choice of our entire stock of shirt waist suits and house dresses now 79c

Bring this ad. with you any time Monday and Tuesday you can have your choice of any of our "Johnny Jones" waists that sold up to $1.25 for 29c

We cannot allow any exchanges or refunds on these

THE UNDERWEAR STORE
WHITE
114 MERRIMACK ST.

THE LOWELL SUN

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, PROPRIETOR.

Member of the Associated Press.

Three Dollars per Year. Twenty-five Cents per Month

The Sun receives the full day service of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, the greatest news-gathering organization in the world. The entire service received over a leased wire, by our own operator, in our own office in The Sun building.

SWORN CIRCULATION OF THE SUN

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1905 was

14,829

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Rely, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1906.

JOHN J. HOGAN, Notary Public.

This is a larger circulation than the combined circulation of all the other daily papers in Lowell.

An advertisement placed in The Sun is of more value to the advertiser than if it were inserted in all the other newspapers in Lowell, and the cost of inserting it in The Sun is about ONE-THIRD the price charged by the other papers.

The navy has been indulging in target practice dangerously near the shore. The "navy" is apparently spotting for a fight.

The demand of the Cuban insurgents is preposterous. They want the present government, which was legally elected, driven from power and a government of their own number installed. Their action in precipitating a rebellion is the best proof that they are unworthy of confidence.

THE CUBAN CRISIS.

The crisis in Cuba shows no improvement, and now some are heard to propose annexation as a remedy. But the expenses of the insurrection will be so great as to form an obstacle to annexation on the American side. The United States does not want to take a state loaded down with debt.

SOME TARIFF OUTRAGES.

Barter is the basis of all trade. If we would sell, we must also buy. This is true of all nations and men. A tariff is "protective" only to the same extent to which it is prohibitive of trade, and is injurious to both buyer and seller to the extent to which it is prohibitive.

It gives an unjust advantage to one class, that is to those who have a monopoly in the exclusive market produced by it. It discriminates against all who buy in that market, and against all who use houses or commodities within the "protected" zone.

The protection of a monopoly enables it to fix its own price and levy tribute on the people, whereas if no such monopoly exists the importer adds the amount of the tariff to the price of the goods, thus increasing the cost to the consumer in the protected country.

But the plainest and most palpable proof of the overprotection afforded monopolies in this country is that they sell their products abroad much cheaper than at home and yet the stand-patters say there is no need of tariff revision.

AN EDITOR'S TROUBLES.

Our heart-felt sympathies go out to the editor of the Schenectady, N. Y. Monitor in the late inactivity shown him by the management of a local fair. To make the fair a success for several years past, the editor of the Monitor made great personal sacrifices even to the extent of risking his life on several occasions for the amusement of the crowd. But now that the management of the fair finds itself on solid footing with money to spend, it forgets all about the editor and his printing establishment and sends its printing to a concern out of town. But hear the editor tell the story himself:

"It will be remembered that in the year 1902 the fair management found themselves short of attractions, and at the request of the gentleman, the editor of the Monitor made a balloon ascension and parachute drop in order to advertise the fair. The stunt proved to be a drawing card and the largest attendance in recent years was the result. The following year, 1903, we were asked to repeat the act, and did so, with the result that the management was greeted with a large attendance.

"Balloon ascensions and parachute drops were becoming too tame for these fastidious gentlemen, and the next year, 1904, we were asked to enter a cage of lions two days in succession. Something had to be done to advertise the fair and we consented, and in the presence of the crowd we entered the cage of lions on the roof garden on two different days. The attendance was large on both these days.

"Most people would have appreciated a favor of this kind and would have reciprocated at the first opportunity. Not so with the members of the system. Forgetting that we had on four different occasions jeopardized our life in order to help advertise the fair, they have sent every dollar's worth of printing out of town, ignoring the home paper entirely."

This is but another proof of "man's ingratitude for benefits forgot" but the editor of the Monitor should not notice little things of that kind but should pursue the even tenor of his way unperturbed by the inability of some people to appreciate his service.

"Great minds, like heaven, are pleased in doing good. Though the ungrateful subject of their favors are barren in return."

The fair people apparently did not think much of the editor's parachute jumps so long as the rope did not break in mid-air so as to make the performance more thrilling.

GOVERNOR GULL'S PREDICAMENT.

Governor Gull is at odds with his party on the question of tariff revision. He has declared that he would not run again on any platform less liberal than that of last year.

That platform while declaring for the principle of protection, "approved the position taken by our senators and representatives at the last session of congress in favor of present action and we urge that they should continue to press upon their party associates in congress from other states the wisdom of a consideration of the tariff for the purpose of revision and readjustment."

But Gov. Gull had added to that declaration by insisting upon putting five articles on the free list—iron ore, coal, lumber, hides and paper pulp wood stock. "In his paper, the Commercial Bulletin," says the New York Evening Post, "he has argued long for the principles of revision and reciprocity. Now comes the Roosevelt letter. The chairman of the committee on resolutions for the republican state convention is already selected—Attorney General Moody. Of course a member of the cabinet cannot do otherwise than write tariff resolutions in line with the president's position. Therefore as the tariff revisionists see it today, the tariff plank for Massachusetts republicans is as good as written, for it must be on stand-pat lines to be in accord with the president."

All of which goes to show that in spite of the president leaving the tariff revision republicans in the lurch, the question of revision will not down. Those republicans who feel that they are being robbed by the tariff protected trusts must either take to the woods on election day, or boldly vote for the democratic candidates for congress and for the legislature, who will elect United States senators. The last hope of the republican revisionists for tariff reform within the party went glimmering when President Roosevelt went over to the stand-patters. He evidently regards party more than principle.

In this predicament then it is interesting to watch what Governor Gull will do. If he takes a position against revision this year or opposed to that which he held last year, the inconsistency will be difficult to explain. Under such a situation it should be easy for a strong democratic candidate to defeat him but at present there is no such candidate in sight.

SEEN AND HEARD

She was a thin, narrow, dark-skinned woman with "peppery" hair and she carried a package of books and letters, which she carried in a basket, among the things in the car. A man got on carrying a big watermelon. Out of his pocket protruded a glass flask with a rubber cork. The woman with the package handed one immediately to this last passenger.

"Thank you," he said, "trouble him, please."

"No, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

"You, sir," said the man, "I am a high school teacher. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary. I have just received my salary."

of the three 115 horse-power Thomas racers in the American elimination trials, has written to a friend in New York that the three cars will be ready for practice over the course on September 12, the day set by the A. A. A. racing board. The cars which Callidis and LeBlon are to drive have been put on the road, and the machine which Montague Roberts will drive for Harry S. Mount will be ready for the road by the end of this week. Callidis and LeBlon are both very well satisfied with their cars, and the former says the racers are very fast; in fact he thinks they are too fast to use their full power on the Nassau county circuit.

Ernest Keeler, who is to drive the old-model Vanderbilt cup candidate in the American elimination trials on September 22, will equip his racer with the fabric of his own invention. The fabric is of aluminum and the rest of the wheel is of standard pattern, with wooden spokes and metal hubs.

A slot is provided between the spokes so that another rim to which an inflated tire has been attached may be easily slipped on and twisted into place. The wheel has been held in place by springs of the rim when the driver wishes to drive the car backward. Keeler and his mechanic, Miller, have been at the factory for some time helping to put the racer together and trying it out on the road near Lansing. After the first trial Keeler telegraphed to a friend in New York as follows: "Try out of car myself, far beyond my expectations. I will surely deliver the goods with this car and expect to have it on the course in four or five days."

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

The firemen saved the main building, and damage to household goods was partially insured. Total estimated loss $1000. Insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

FAREWELL SERMON BILLERICA NEWS

Archbishop O'Connell Reviews Work in Portland

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 10.—There was a very impressive scene at the cathedral of the Immaculate Conception yesterday. Most Rev. William H. O'Connell, co-adjutor archbishop of Boston, formerly bishop of Portland, said farewell to his people here. There was a great congregation, one testing fully the capacity of the cathedral. The day was beautiful, and in the congregation were representatives of every Catholic church in the city. An attempt had been made to advertise the fact that the archbishop would preach his farewell sermon, and the attendance was in itself a high mark of love and respect.

Archbishop O'Connell was attended by Very Rev. Mr. Charles W. Collins. As the procession advanced out of the cathedral to the sanctuary the hymn, "Ecce Sacerdos Magnus" was sung by the full choir with beautiful effect. Mass was sung by Rev. James A. Carroll, assisted by Rev. T. H. Houlihan and Rev. John Quinn. The music was of a very high order.

When his grace advanced to the altar rail to deliver his last sermon, the scene was most touching, and at times the strain on his feelings showed itself in a trembling of his voice.

ARCHBISHOP'S ADDRESS. Archbishop O'Connell said in part: "I have come to say farewell to the city and diocese of Portland. The same voice of authority which five years ago gave the ecclesiastical government of the priests and people of this see into my hands—the only authority which has power to call and send in the church—has now spoken, dissolving the bond which bound us together and directing me to take up my duties in another see.

I look back upon the five years past among you and I am grateful to God for all they contain. Looking back to the day when I came to Portland as a young bishop, with a great task to be accomplished, I can say here in God's presence that I have given all I had to give in doing that work. And I can say with full consciousness of my duty that I have given all I had to give in doing that work.

And that has transpired during my occupancy of this see that as far as my lights, as far as my powers have reached, I have done my duty—to you—to this city—to this diocese and to this state.

"You know what has been done and with what limited means at my disposal. This temple has been completely renovated from the floor to the ceiling. If in all America there is a better equipped cathedral in all that pertains to the dignity of worship and the glory of the house of God, I do not know it. And the work has been so thorough and so complete that for many years to come nothing more will be needed.

"The same precious vestments which clothe the prelates in the great basilicas of the world adorn this sanctuary. The music of the church, so important a part of her liturgy, has been cultivated and is executed in a manner very seldom to be heard even in the great sanctuaries of the old world. Five hundred children and the whole congregation chanting from beginning to end, and the whole service of persons and benediction in all its entirety, and with a precision to excite wonder is a sight to be seen but rarely in a lifetime. Here it has grown so common as scarcely to call forth a comment.

"But the real glory of God's house is not in the beautifying of the walls nor even in the richness of ceremony and ritual. It is in the hearts of his children, the hearts which more than be the temples of the Holy Spirit.

"I feel confident, here also, that nothing which could be done was allowed to pass, to minister to the spiritual wants, to defy and raise up a people God-fearing and virtuous.

CIVIL AND SOCIAL LIFE. "More than this. Looking out on the civil and social life of Catholics here, I discerned that many needs not merely religious existed. The dock laborers stood in the cold of long winter nights without a roof to cover them, or a fire to warm them, unless, indeed, the roof and fire that led to bad company and vice. Today, facing the wharves at the very place where before interdependence lured them to stand, a splendid club house stands, equipped

PUTNAM & SON CO.

186 CENTRAL STREET

FALL OVERCOATS

In all of the new models—handiest garment in your outfit for these nights and mornings.

New French Back Overcoats

Body fitting, handsome grays and gray mixed chevrons, $15 to $25

Half Body Fitting, Regulation Length Fall Overcoats

In grays, gray mixtures and black, $10 to $30

Covert Coats

The new length, correct shades, all with satin sleeve linings $10 to $20

Long Raincoats

Of new and handsome fabrics, plain worsteds, neat dark mixed worsteds—stylish overcoats that are waterproof $8 to $25

Mills and Schools Resumed Today

Tree Warden Francis J. Dolan, who is also superintendent of the kypsy and brown fall moths, is incensed over the fact that some of the money appropriated at the town meeting in March for the suppression of the moths has been used to pay some of the bills of the former tree warden T. Emery Smith. Mr. Dolan alleges that Smith expended nearly $50 over the amount allowed him for 1905. The matter is now in the hands of the selectmen.

The tax rate for Billerica this year will be $16.50 per thousand, a reduction of 50 cents over last year.

CLAMBAKE YESTERDAY. The members of Engine Company No. 1 of North Billerica enjoyed a clambake yesterday. The bake was held at "Camp de Shallop" on the banks of the upper Concord river. The spread was one of the best that could be procured and was highly enjoyed by all present. At the conclusion of the feast a social hour was enjoyed and vocal and instrumental selections were rendered.

MILLS OPEN UP. The Talbot and Faulkner mills opened up this morning after the annual two weeks shutdown.

TALBOT SCHOOL REPAIRED.

The Talbot school has been greatly improved since the closing of the school term several months ago and when the pupils of that school entered the building this morning quite a change was noticed. The desks in each of the rooms have been varnished and repaired and are now in the best condition that they have been since the opening of the building, several years ago. The floors have been oiled, while the building has been thoroughly disinfected from top to bottom and is now in a clean and healthful condition. In doing this work the school committee has expended about $200.

Two new teachers began their duties in the school today. They are Misses Doris Kohrausch and Mary H. Downey. The former was appointed by the school committee some time ago while the latter was appointed at a meeting of the school board held Wednesday evening to take the place made vacant by the resignation of Miss P. Marion Dutton.

Miss Gertrude Watson of Billerica, daughter of Rev. W. W. Watson, has been appointed supervisor of drawing of the public schools, vice Miss Alice L. Bell, resigned.

To Break Up a Cold

before it breaks you. Search it out, check it, annihilate it. A lump of sugar—a few drops of

JOHNSON'S Anodyne LINIMENT

and it's done. So simple—so effective. Or if the trouble be bronchitis, asthma, croup, grip, tonsillitis or such like, the remedy is just as reliable and effective. Likewise cramps, cholera, colic, diarrhoea and kindred bowel disorders flee before it in quick order. Used externally it will readily relieve and cure cuts, burns, scalds, lame back, sciatica lumbago, muscular rheumatism and many other complaints. Cure your next cold with it. 25c and 50c everywhere.

I. S. JOHNSON & CO., Boston, Mass.

Fountain Pen

On presentation of this coupon and 59c at our store the holder will be entitled to a Fully guaranteed Regular price $2. Geo. H. Wood 137 to 151 Central Street.

THE Crawford Range

Patented Oven Damper Saves the Heat.

Heat is Coal.

And Coal is Cash.

And Cash Pays for the Range.

So a Crawford Range Will Pay for Itself.

Why buy any other range that wastes the heat? Heat is coal and coal is cash. Follow that reasoning and it will lead you to

A. E. O'Heir & Co.

MERRIMACK SQUARE

Dealers in Crawford Ranges and General House Furnishings.

PETER'S FUNERAL—The funeral of Peter H. McGinley took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Mr. H. McGinley & Sons. There were many floral offerings and a large attendance. Burial was in the Edison cemetery.

GARRIGAN—The funeral of Esther May Garrigan took place yesterday afternoon from the home of her parents at 60 Union street, at 2:30 and was largely attended. Among the many beautiful floral tributes were: "Fellow Traveling" from parents; barked, Mr. Reardon, spouse, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Reardon, spouse, John, In and Mrs. Charles Lawrence, Mr. P. Graham Bunkle and Mrs. J. C. Bunkle. The casket was in charge of Peter H. Savage.

BEAUFORD—The funeral of Mrs. Rose Beauford took place Saturday from her home, 3 McIntyre street. Funeral services were held at St. Jean Baptiste church at 9 o'clock, Rev. Fr. Dubouche officiating. The bearers were George Meekel, Fred Thielholt, George and Louis Beauregard. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery, and Rev. Fr. Audibert, O. M. I. officiated at the committal service at the grave. Undertaker Joseph Alheit conducted the services.

EPH F. DONOHOE
Estate and General Insurance
46-47 Donovan Bldg., 267 Central Mass. Tel.

TWO INDICTED

FOR CRIMINAL LIBEL

Dr. Demosthenes Generalis Indicted Today

The September term of the Middlesex superior court, criminal session, came in at the court house in Gorham street this morning with Judge Bell presiding, and Rev. Nathan W. Matthews delivering the opening prayer.

At the opening of court, when the clerk was instructed to call the roll of the jury the first name called was that of Freeman M. Bill. Mr. Bill was not in court at the time but appeared shortly afterward with a request to be excused from serving. Judge Bell upon hearing the facts immediately excused him. John C. King of this city, who is a clerk in the registrar's office, asked to be excused and was excused for four days.

Three other jurors were excused and there were three absentees.

The session of the morning was the notice of the indictment of Dr. Demosthenes Generalis for alleged criminal libel, the indictment containing several counts. Dr. Generalis was ordered in to plead at 10 o'clock this afternoon. He has retained John Harvey as counsel. The complainant in the case are the Terzakis brother and Prof. M. Intro.

Before taking up the cases Judge Bell made an address to the jury in which he cautioned them to so conduct themselves as not to cast suspicion upon themselves or the administration of justice. "Keep away from the parties in a case," said Judge Bell, "the counsel and witnesses. Do not read or have read to you any comment appearing in the newspapers regarding any case under consideration. If any one speaks to you about a case on trial tell him at once that you are a juror. If he persists in talking about the case with you come and tell me and I will deal with him."

The first case called was that of James E. Fisher who pleaded guilty to indictments for polygamy and adultery. Fisher's first wife testified to their marriage and Fisher had nothing to say in his own behalf. Fisher was sentenced to the house of correction for two years.

Albert E. Bailey, a Pepperell young man who pleaded guilty to four counts of breaking and entering, was sentenced to the house of correction for one year.

Ernest Lessard and Rene Perreault, charged with adultery; Frederick L. Fern, drunkness, and Peter Sughrue, assault and battery, were placed on probation.

Andrew Gorman, alias Edward Murphy, pleaded guilty of larceny of $150, back in 1905. Gorman disappeared immediately after the theft and was not apprehended until August of this year when he was arrested in Peabody by Inspector Maher. Dennis J. Murphy appeared in his behalf and asked that he be placed on probation. Judge Bell postponed final disposition until the probation officer could look up Gorman's family and home life.

George Trovork pleaded guilty of assault with a dangerous weapon and was sentenced to the house of correction for 30 days.

The first case for trial was reached at 11:15 o'clock when Samuel Miller, the Billerica farm hand who was indicted on several counts of larceny from a building, the house of Frederick A. Casey in the latter's absence.

In the superior court this afternoon the case of Samuel Miller accused of receiving stolen property occupied about the entire afternoon. Oliver E. Hartwell, who was charged with breaking and entering was placed on probation.

Late this afternoon Dr. Demosthenes Generalis was arraigned on a charge of criminal libel. Through his counsel, John J. Harvey, he waived the reading of the indictment and pleaded not guilty. He was held in $500 for his appearance during the session and was bailed by Dr. Samuel Patenaude and Frank A. M. Tobin.

John A. Smith pleaded guilty of purchasing stolen metal from minors and was fined $20.

James P. Scully and Mary Fraim, charged with adultery, pleaded guilty and were placed on probation.

JURY BOX CASES RIGHT TO VOTE

True Bills Against Alderman Hayes and Joseph H. Clark

JOSEPH H. CLARK, PROPRIETOR OF THE SAVOY HOTEL, WAS THIS AFTERNOON SUMMONED INTO THE SUPERIOR COURT AND WAS ARRAIGNED ON AN INDICTMENT CHARGING IN TWO COUNTS, WITH FRAUD IN THE DRAWING OF JURORS AND WITH CONSPIRACY.

MR. CLARK PLEADED NOT GUILTY AND WAS REPRESENTED BY GARDNER W. PEARSON AS COUNSEL.

JUDGE BELL FIXED MR. CLARK'S BAIL AT $500, WHICH WAS PROMPTLY FURNISHED. MR. CLARK'S INDICTMENT WAS THE SENSATION OF THE DAY AS AT THE GRAND JURY PROCEEDINGS OVER THE ALLEGED UNLAWFUL DRAWING OF THE NAME OF FREEMAN M. BILL FROM THE JURY BOX AT CITY HALL, BY ALDERMAN HAYES LAST WEEK, HIS NAME WAS NOT CONNECTED WITH THE CASE IN ANY MANNER, NOR WAS IT MENTIONED IN CONNECTION WITH ANY OF THE CITY CASES.

MR. CLARK WAS FOUND AT HIS PLACE OF BUSINESS BY DEPUTY SHERIFF EVELETH AND HE ACCOMPANIED THE SHERIFF TO COURT.

HE WAS BAILED BY HON. JAMES MCKINLEY AND JOSEPH M. McGRATH.

ALDERMAN HAYES INDICTED

DEPUTY SHERIFF EVELETH HAD BEEN HUNTING FOR ALDERMAN WILLIAM J. HAYES, WHO IS ALSO INDICTED, AND WAS UNABLE TO LOCATE HIM AS THE ALDERMAN WAS OUT IN THE DIRECTION OF LAKEVIEW.

WHEN JAMES F. OWENS, COUNSEL FOR MR. HAYES, HEARD OF THE INDICTMENT HE IMMEDIATELY TELEPHONED HIS CLIENT TO SURRENDER HIMSELF AT COURT.

AT 3:30 MR. OWENS RECEIVED WORD TO THE EFFECT THAT ALDERMAN HAYES WAS ON HIS WAY TO THE COURT HOUSE AND JUDGE BELL WAITED FOR HIM.

Shortly before the time for court to adjourn Alderman Hayes in shirt sleeves and overalls entered the court room but did not plead to the indictment. He was held in $500 bonds and as his bondsmen were not present he was taken to jail.

The court then adjourned to tomorrow.

It was announced that the case of Arthur McDonald, charged with manslaughter, would not be heard until the next session. It was also stated that

John J. Clancy and Arthur Lafond, charged with manslaughter, would plead guilty.

The only Lowell cases now remaining to be disposed of are the liquor case and the case against Joseph Clark and Alderman Hayes.

will reasonably allow, and said streets are to be put in substantially as good order and condition when said tracks shall have been constructed or moved as the same now are or shall be put in to before said tracks are constructed or moved, and without expense to said city.

"If said board of aldermen or supervisors of highways shall require said Lowell and Suburban Street Railway company to construct its tracks below the surface grade of said streets, said company shall not be required to change the grade of said streets other than that portion occupied by its tracks."

Awaiting an early decision, I beg leave to remain.

Truly yours,

JAMES B. CASEY, Mayor.

THE CITY LIBRARY.

Mayor Casey today sent this letter to the city council today:

Lowell, Mass., September 10, 1906.

Gentlemen:—As a result of the decreased appropriation placed to the credit of the City Library the trustees have been unable to purchase books of current fiction, the demand for which is incessant. The library is handicapped in being unable to meet this demand.

I would respectfully recommend that the unexpended balance of $252.63 from the Fourth of July appropriation be transferred to the General Treasury Fund and that the sum of $500 be appropriated from the General Treasury Fund and placed to the credit of the city library appropriation.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES B. CASEY, Mayor.

Dear Sir:—

Public convenience, in my opinion, requires that the provisions of section 59 of the building ordinance be enforced at the Chaffoux building now in course of construction. Part of this section reads as follows:—

"Whenever any new building fronting a street within the fire limits shall have attained the height of one (1) story, or whenever it may become necessary to unroof or take down any building within the above described territory, or to perform any work thereon whereby risk may be incurred to any person or persons passing the same it shall be the duty of any person or persons erecting, unroofing, taking down or performing any work on such building, or of the owner thereof, to erect a good and substantial covering over the sidewalk, at least six (6) feet wide and ten (10) feet high, to be approved by the inspector."

"During the time of such occupation of the street for such building operations, the person or persons so occupying said street shall maintain and keep in repair both said temporary sidewalk and fence."

The fence now erected and extending half way into the street causes much inconvenience to the public, which may be obviated by the construction of a temporary sidewalk in accordance with the provisions of the building ordinance.

Truly yours,

JAMES B. CASEY, Mayor.

A TEMPORARY SIDEWALK.

Mayor Casey has addressed the following letter to Supt. O'Connor of the lands of buildings department:

Lowell, Mass., Sept. 10, 1906.

John J. O'Connor, Inspector of Buildings, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir:—

The issue between the city and the company is upon the construction of the following paragraphs of the resolution granting the location:—

"All tracks, spurs, turnouts and side-tracks shall be constructed so as to conform to the present grade of said streets, unless otherwise ordered by the board of aldermen or the supervisors of highways, and except as herein provided, as near the center of said streets as a proper construction of said tracks

Street Railway company, under the terms of a resolution passed by the board of aldermen May 5, 1901, to cooperate with the city to place Fletcher street in a safe condition for public travel.

The city is about to macadamize Fletcher street. Recently the Boston and Northern Street Railway company laid tracks in Fletcher street. This street is in wretched condition, largely as a result of the laying of the car rails. This office requested the company to assume the expense of macadamizing the easterly side of Fletcher street from Cross street to West Clark street. The company has refused to accede to the request, claiming that when the company paved between the tracks, and eighteen inches outside that all legal obligations were complied with.

The issue between the city and the company is upon the construction of the following paragraphs of the resolution granting the location:—

"All tracks, spurs, turnouts and side-tracks shall be constructed so as to conform to the present grade of said streets, unless otherwise ordered by the board of aldermen or the supervisors of highways, and except as herein provided, as near the center of said streets as a proper construction of said tracks will reasonably allow, and said streets are to be put in substantially as good order and condition when said tracks shall have been constructed or moved as the same now are or shall be put in to before said tracks are constructed or moved, and without expense to said city.

"If said board of aldermen or supervisors of highways shall require said Lowell and Suburban Street Railway company to construct its tracks below the surface grade of said streets, said company shall not be required to change the grade of said streets other than that portion occupied by its tracks."

up the unfortunate lad and laid him nearly and word was sent for Undertaker Wright and Dr. Coles, acting medical examiner, while a messenger was despatched to carry the sad news to the parents who were attending the parish mass. The remains were later removed to the warehouse of Undertaker Wright and later to the home of deceased, where the sorrow-stricken parents were almost prostrated by the sad occurrence.

For one who had passed through a railroad accident his body was free of the horrible disfigurements that usually set in and the only serious injury was one at the base of the skull which was his death.

Deceased was a most lovable and devoted son, kind yet unassuming though always of an industrious turn. In class in many things and had hoped to resume studies later. For one of his fall and always had a smile for everyone. Many were the tears that were shed for the unfortunate lad in the town yesterday, for everywhere he went he was universally beloved. Indeed his industry and thrift at so early an age might have brought him success had his life been spared. He was a frequent visitor to his relatives in Lowell.

Besides his parents, James and Bridget Donohoe, he is survived by one brother, Joseph, and one sister, Alice.

FOOT CRUSHED

LOWELL MACHINE SHOP EMPLOYEE MET WITH SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Thomas Gergert, residing at 462 Market street, while at work at the Lowell machine shop today met with a painful accident, a heavy casting falling on his foot crushing it severely. The ambulance was summoned and the injured man was removed to the Lowell hospital.

DEATHS

MAQUIRE—Miss Mary Ann Maguire, aged 40 years, died this morning at her home, 48 Chambers street. She was an employee of the Bay State mills and leaves to mourn her loss a mother, Rose Maguire, three sisters, Mrs. Sarah Miner, Mrs. Elizabeth Moran and Miss Rose Maguire and two brothers, James and John Maguire.

City Solicitor Hill has decided that the right to vote at election.

Chapter 454 of the Acts of 1902, the joint-primaries act, in sections 2 and 7 provides that certain provisions of the election law shall apply to caucuses held under it, but it does not intend, in my opinion, that the sections relating to the qualifications of voters should apply so as to prevent participation in the caucus by those who will be qualified to vote at election.

I did not see any other statutory provision that tends to change the general principle above laid down.

The corollary of the above proposition is also true, that a nomination cannot be made by those who for any reason are not entitled to vote, though they may have been qualified electors previous to making the nomination.

Therefore, it would seem that said voters could not participate in the caucuses to be held in Lowell. As the act of the Legislature of 1902, and not by any act of their own, and an election statute are to be interpreted with a leaning to liberality, in view of the great public purposes to be accomplished by them, the equity of the case are in their favor, and in my opinion the courts would be slow to constrain the statutes so as to prevent their exercising the right to nominate candidates to be voted for by them in November.

It is in my opinion then, that said inhabitants have the right to vote in the coming primaries to be held in Lowell on September twenty-fifth, current.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES GILBERT HILL, City Solicitor.

Dear Sir:

In answer to your request under date of September 7th, asking, in behalf of your board, my opinion as to whether or not the inhabitants of that portion of the town of Tewksbury, recently annexed to the city of Lowell, and who are otherwise qualified to vote in the coming state election, have the right to vote in the coming primaries held in Lowell on the twenty-fifth day of September, current, I have the following reply to make.

The right to nominate is founded upon the right to vote. Unquestionably the voters in the annexed district will be entitled to vote in Lowell at the coming state election.

They are to vote in Lowell they have the right to participate in the primaries to nominate the candidates to be voted for at the state election, unless there is some statutory provision preventing.

Section 12 of Chapter 11 of the Revised Laws relates to the qualifications of voters at elections but does not refer to caucuses, and this apparently because of the general principle that the right to vote in caucuses is founded upon the right to vote at election.

Chapter 454 of the Acts of 1902, the joint-primaries act, in sections 2 and 7 provides that certain provisions of the election law shall apply to caucuses held under it, but it does not intend, in my opinion, that the sections relating to the qualifications of voters should apply so as to prevent participation in the caucus by those who will be qualified to vote at election.

I did not see any other statutory provision that tends to change the general principle above laid down.

The corollary of the above proposition is also true, that a nomination cannot be made by those who for any reason are not entitled to vote, though they may have been qualified electors previous to making the nomination.

Therefore, it would seem that said voters could not participate in the caucuses to be held in Lowell. As the act of the Legislature of 1902, and not by any act of their own, and an election statute are to be interpreted with a leaning to liberality, in view of the great public purposes to be accomplished by them, the equity of the case are in their favor, and in my opinion the courts would be slow to constrain the statutes so as to prevent their exercising the right to nominate candidates to be voted for by them in November.

It is in my opinion then, that said inhabitants have the right to vote in the coming primaries to be held in Lowell on September twenty-fifth, current.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES GILBERT HILL, City Solicitor.

POOR JOSEPHINE

Josephine Raymond went out on a dark Sunday morning. She quaffed a few "high balls" before leaving home and then she said she didn't care what happened.

As she passed Michael Gladys's wood yard in Front street she saw a horse and wagon. It was Michael's gray gelding. Josephine allowed that it would be an ideal day for a ride and she decided to take the team.

She drove "over town" and on her way over she collided with a number of teams in Bridge street. "Excuse me," Josephine would say every time she bumped into a team and everybody seemed disposed to excuse her. She drove up Merrimack street to Moody and in Tremont street, and various other streets in that locality.

Josephine was about all in and somebody suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

body suggested that it would be well to notify the police, and while plans were being discussed a fellow stepped up and said he knew the woman. He volunteered to take her home. Josephine was asleep and the fellow who so willingly went to her rescue jumped in and took the reins.

Later it was discovered that the volunteer wasn't doing much toward taking Josephine home. He was going in another direction entirely when the team was recognized and the police were notified. The fellow was allowed to go and Josephine was taken to the police station. The team was returned to Mr. Gladys. Mary was not a great favorite with car conductors, motorman or automobilists and she registered several very narrow escapes on her trip from Front street to Tremont. She was arraigned in police court today for drunkenness and was fined $5.

6 O'CLOCK HE GOT $110,800 Methods Employed by Hering to Loot Bank

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Secret memoranda covering illegal transactions in the Standard bank were found today by Police Inspector Shipley among the effects of Frank Kowalski, the teller whose suicide followed the exposure of the bank's condition. The record kept by Kowalski, it is alleged, indicates apparently that in less than a year Henry W. Hering, the imprisoned cashier personally obtained $110,800 of the money of depositors by the same means adopted by Stensland in his systematic looting of the vaults. In four months by the use of cash tickets which he placed in the drawer he obtained $650,000 more, according to Kowalski's schedule and in another month $50,000. The discovery of Kowalski's tell-tale figures was a result of the opening yesterday of a wooden cupboard in one of the bank vaults that had remained unnoticed since Bank Examiner Jones took charge of the institution Aug. 4.

BOARD OF CHARITY

Wants the Relatives of Paupers to Pay

FOR CASES IN OUT-
SIDE HOSPITALS

Cemetery Employees
Unpaid for 6 Weeks

The board of charities will meet in special session at city hall Thursday evening for the purpose of listening to the parents and relatives of people who are confined in different institutions and whose board is being paid by the city of Lowell. The purpose of the meeting is to ascertain how many of the relatives of the inmates can afford to reimburse the city.

The meeting will be confined to the discussion of cases at the dispensary hospital at Foxboro, epileptic hospital at Andover and Cottage hospital at Andover. The city of Lowell has been paying $125 per week for each inmate. According to law the next of kin or some relative of the inmate if able is supposed to reimburse the city.

The members of the board of charities think that there is a number of relatives of inmates who are in good circumstances and able to contribute.

ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE.
The committee on accounts will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of taking action on the transfer of $150 interest money which the cemetery department has earned, and pay the employees of that department.

The employees of the cemetery department have not received any pay for the past six weeks owing to the fact that the transfer has been held up by the committee on accounts. At the meeting of the committee on accounts held last Friday Messrs. Hogan and Cheney were present, but owing to the absence of Chairman Crosby the two committees refused to take any action in the matter.

As Alderman Crosby has been in favor of the transfer of the money he has called a special meeting of the committee for tonight and in all probability the transfer will be made.

The committee on industries will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. The special committee appointed to make arrangements for the outing to be held at Hooksett will also meet at the same hour.

The regular meeting of the board of aldermen will be held tomorrow night at eight o'clock.

WATER EXTENSION LOAN.
Mayor Casey made a tour of inspection of the Wiscasset and South Lowell districts where it is proposed to extend the water system, this afternoon. As a result of his inspection it is understood that he will call a special meeting of the common council for tomorrow night to take action on the $100,000 loan extended by the water board to complete the work.

The matter was acted upon favorably last night.

LOWELL COMMERCIAL COLLEGE
The Oldest School
Teaching the Newest Methods
ESTABLISHED 1859 INC. 1905

Register Now.....
Fall Term Begins Sept. 4
Day and Evening Sessions. Endorsed by Business Men
ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE FREE.
No Better School Anywhere
7 MERRIMACK STREET.

BOARD OF CHARITY

Wants the Relatives of Paupers to Pay

FOR CASES IN OUT-SIDE HOSPITALS

Cemetery Employees
Unpaid for 6 Weeks

The board of charities will meet in special session at city hall Thursday evening for the purpose of listening to the parents and relatives of people who are confined in different institutions and whose board is being paid by the city of Lowell. The purpose of the meeting is to ascertain how many of the relatives of the inmates can afford to reimburse the city.

The meeting will be confined to the discussion of cases at the dispensary hospital at Foxboro, epileptic hospital at Andover and Cottage hospital at Andover. The city of Lowell has been paying $125 per week for each inmate. According to law the next of kin or some relative of the inmate if able is supposed to reimburse the city.

The members of the board of charities think that there is a number of relatives of inmates who are in good circumstances and able to contribute.

ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE.
The committee on accounts will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of taking action on the transfer of $150 interest money which the cemetery department has earned, and pay the employees of that department.

The employees of the cemetery department have not received any pay for the past six weeks owing to the fact that the transfer has been held up by the committee on accounts. At the meeting of the committee on accounts held last Friday Messrs. Hogan and Cheney were present, but owing to the absence of Chairman Crosby the two committees refused to take any action in the matter.

As Alderman Crosby has been in favor of the transfer of the money he has called a special meeting of the committee for tonight and in all probability the transfer will be made.

The committee on industries will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. The special committee appointed to make arrangements for the outing to be held at Hooksett will also meet at the same hour.

The regular meeting of the board of aldermen will be held tomorrow night at eight o'clock.

WATER EXTENSION LOAN.
Mayor Casey made a tour of inspection of the Wiscasset and South Lowell districts where it is proposed to extend the water system, this afternoon. As a result of his inspection it is understood that he will call a special meeting of the common council for tomorrow night to take action on the $100,000 loan extended by the water board to complete the work.

The matter was acted upon favorably last night.

LOWELL COMMERCIAL COLLEGE
The Oldest School
Teaching the Newest Methods
ESTABLISHED 1859 INC. 1905

Register Now.....
Fall Term Begins Sept. 4
Day and Evening Sessions. Endorsed by Business Men
ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE FREE.
No Better School Anywhere
7 MERRIMACK STREET.

WILLIAM SMITH Set Upon by Thugs in Dutton Street RECEIVED MANY KNIFE WOUNDS

Another Man Sent to the Hospital

With several knife wounds on his body, a frightened look on his face and unable to tell what it was all about, William T. Smith, 22, called at the police station Saturday night and asked for protection. After "beating about the bush" for a while he said he had been set upon by a gang of thugs in Dutton street about 10:30 o'clock and that they "knived" him.

He said he was with a companion at the time and had reached a point in the vicinity of Fletcher street and near the canal bridge. He said he was walking along in the crowd when one of a gang of fellows going in the same direction pushed him from the sidewalk. He remonstrated and received a few short jolts that made his head dizzy. One of his assailants, he said, used a knife.

He was sent to the Emergency hospital where his wounds were attended to. Dr. Tughrill, who dressed the wounds, said they looked like knife wounds. There were eight or ten in all and one near the left elbow required three stitches to close. There were lacerations on the left hip and right knee. A book in the left hip pocket was cut as if with a knife.

Smith was unable to give a very good description of his assailants. He said they were foreigners. Smith's story was verified by his companion who was not molested.

FELL OR WAS PUSHED.
Dent Lowrey was taken to St. John's hospital last night suffering from a few bruises and slight lacerations on the head. Lowrey said he was attacked by two men in Bridge street near South and a resident of that district averred that Lowrey was drunk and fell from the sidewalk. Lowrey told the following story:

"I was walking along Bridge street, near South, minding my own affairs, when along came two men behind me and struck me on the head, felling me. When I came to, I found myself lying headlong to the pavement, striking my head and face. No one was near him when he fell."

They took him to the Centralville resident was as follows: "Lowrey was walking along the sidewalk in Bridge street, near South. He was staggering so that it was quite noticeable. In an endeavor to keep on the straight and narrow path he stumbled and fell headlong to the pavement, striking his head and face. No one was near him when he fell."

VESPERS WON
BEAT LEXINGTON IN INTER-CLUB TENNIS MATCH.

The Vesper tennis team beat Lexington in their first match to date Saturday in the first inter-club tennis match ever held at Tyngs Island. The scores were as follows:

Miller and Garrison, Lexington, beat Bayard and Martin, Vesper, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3.
Abbott and Young, Vesper, beat Redwood and Hollins, Lexington, 6-3, 8-6.
J. H. Martin, Vesper, beat Hugh Miller, Lexington, 6-3, 6-4.
C. F. Young, Vesper, beat Mr. Garrison, Lexington, 5-6, 6-0, 6-4.
P. Bayard, Vesper, beat Mr. Redwood, Lexington, 6-3, 3-6, 6-1.
Vesper four points, Lexington one.

GOV. HIGGINS
TO BE THE GUEST OF THE PRESIDENT.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Gov. Higgins of New York is expected to visit President Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill today, arriving on the 12:30 p. m. train. Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life of America society, is expected to arrive on the same train to call on the president. Secretary Loeb said that there was no connection between the two visits.

LARGE VOTE
CAST IN THE ROCKLAND, ME. ELEC. TIONS.

ROCKLAND, Me., Sept. 10.—An unusually large vote was thrown in the elections in this city during the early morning hours today. Governor Cobb and Congressman Littlefield voted early. They were given a reception at the polls. Two rear admirals of the United States navy took part in today's election. Rear Admiral A. S. Shaw, commander at the United States navy yard and Rear Admiral Royal Bradford, retired at Auburn.

MURDER CHARGE.
HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 10.—Francis Curtin, the 17-year old boy under arrest charged with the murder of Robert J. Jardine, was arraigned in court today. The hearing went over until Saturday to await the coroner's report. Curtin cut Jardine's throat with a razor Saturday as a result of a dispute over a ball game.

BROWN FOOTBALL TEAM.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 10.—The candidates for the football eleven went to Weber's farm near Brooklyn, Conn., today and will stay here until college opens, nine days hence. Brown's first game does not come until the last week in September, so that there will be sufficient time for the coaches to develop what material there is into fairly good shape before the season opens.

CHICKEN EYE PILLS
THE DIAMOND BRAND
Largest and most complete
eye medicine ever sold
in the world. It cures
all eye troubles, such as catarrh, inflammation,
itching, burning, watering,
and all other eye troubles.
It is the only eye medicine
that is safe and reliable.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.

PENNYROYAL PILLS
THE DIAMOND BRAND
Largest and most complete
eye medicine ever sold
in the world. It cures
all eye troubles, such as catarrh, inflammation,
itching, burning, watering,
and all other eye troubles.
It is the only eye medicine
that is safe and reliable.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.

CHICKEN EYE PILLS
THE DIAMOND BRAND
Largest and most complete
eye medicine ever sold
in the world. It cures
all eye troubles, such as catarrh, inflammation,
itching, burning, watering,
and all other eye troubles.
It is the only eye medicine
that is safe and reliable.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.

PENNYROYAL PILLS
THE DIAMOND BRAND
Largest and most complete
eye medicine ever sold
in the world. It cures
all eye troubles, such as catarrh, inflammation,
itching, burning, watering,
and all other eye troubles.
It is the only eye medicine
that is safe and reliable.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.

CHICKEN EYE PILLS
THE DIAMOND BRAND
Largest and most complete
eye medicine ever sold
in the world. It cures
all eye troubles, such as catarrh, inflammation,
itching, burning, watering,
and all other eye troubles.
It is the only eye medicine
that is safe and reliable.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.

PENNYROYAL PILLS
THE DIAMOND BRAND
Largest and most complete
eye medicine ever sold
in the world. It cures
all eye troubles, such as catarrh, inflammation,
itching, burning, watering,
and all other eye troubles.
It is the only eye medicine
that is safe and reliable.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.

CHICKEN EYE PILLS
THE DIAMOND BRAND
Largest and most complete
eye medicine ever sold
in the world. It cures
all eye troubles, such as catarrh, inflammation,
itching, burning, watering,
and all other eye troubles.
It is the only eye medicine
that is safe and reliable.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.
It is the only eye medicine
that is sold in the United States.

NEGRO CREMATED He Tried to Burn His Way Out of Jail

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—A despatch to the Tribune from Miami, Tex., says: In an effort to burn his way out of jail yesterday, Elias Johnson, a negro, lit his own funeral pyre. He was cremated while a mob barged around the jail watching his last agonies through the iron window bars but unable to save him.

Johnson was arrested on a drunkenness charge and started a fire in the prison hoping to burn his way out. The fire got beyond his control and the turnkey could not be found until too late.

A general fire alarm was turned in and crowds rushed to the burning building. Impelled by the screams of the negro frantic attempts were made to rescue him. A heavy battering ram was procured but the iron doors were too strong. Axes and sledgehammers had no more effect and the crowd was forced to look on and watch the negro burn to death. The town is without adequate fire service. While the negro was crying out in his agony after the first attempt at his rescue, one of the walls of the jail fell in and he was buried beneath the debris.

OPPOSES BRYAN Williams Against Government Ownership of Railroads

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 10.—The Times Despatch yesterday telegraphed that John Sharp Williams, minority leader in congress at Yazoo City, Miss., for an exposition of his views on Bryan's plans for government ownership of railroads, and received the following reply:

"I am opposed to government ownership of railroads, irrevocably, now and forever, in theory and in practice—a question concerning which Mr. Bryan and I agree to disagree. But I see no good to be attained by rushing into the subject. We will simply vote it down if offered as a plank of the democratic platform. Meanwhile let us not magnify democratic differences. There are so many things we are agreed upon, let us magnify them. Push them to the front if we can. Bryan is not infallible and does not pretend to be. He is right about so many things, eloquently and greatly right, but absolutely and altogether wrong about this one thing, especially from the standpoint of each peace and quiet in the south. Let us strongly reiterate railroad rates but not operate railroads."

CHARLES GLIDDEN FORM ALLIANCE

Tumbled Down Flight of Stairs

Loomfixers of Three Cities to Meet

Charles Glidden, the harmonica expert, fell down a flight of stairs at the lodging house numbered 29 Bridge street and sustained a slight concussion of the brain. He was removed in the ambulance to St. John's hospital. Glidden has suffered from rheumatism for months and at times his legs would give way. That was what happened to him when he came to the stairs. He tumbled backward. He was employed in the house as janitor. He will be able to leave the hospital today.

ONE KILLED
FIVE OTHERS INJURED BY COLLAPSE OF BUILDING.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—One man was killed and five others seriously injured by the collapse of a new building at Mineola, L. I., today. Another man is reported buried in the ruins and is probably dead. The building was to be a garage and was being built for Robert Graves. The men buried in its ruins were Italians.

SIXTY INDICTED
Charged With Complicity With Rebels

HAVANA, Sept. 10.—Sixty more residents of Havana and its immediate vicinity have been indicted for complicity with the rebels. They have been returned to the privilege of bail.

It now appears that the rebels are in possession of the junction at Lincoln of the United Railway branches and trains on the western line are stopped and searched at will. Lincoln is 15 miles southwest of Havana.

USED CLUB
AND PATROLMAN IS HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 10.—Patrolman Arad B. Holloway was arraigned in the third district court today on the charge of manslaughter in having caused the death of Edward Greenwood. Greenwood was arrested Saturday afternoon by the patrolman on the charge of drunkenness. As the result of the blows struck by the patrolman's club, the newly-dead body of a fractured skull. Patrolman Holloway pleaded not guilty and was held in bonds of $500 for a further hearing September 25.

MORE GOLD ENGAGED.

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—The National Shawmut bank of this city announced today that it had engaged a second million dollars of gold for shipment to Boston from abroad.

THE COTTON YIELD.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The crop estimating board of the department of agriculture estimates the yield of the cotton crop of 1906 up to Aug. 25 to 77.

BRYAN ACCEPTS.
JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 10.—Gov. Vardaman yesterday received a despatch from W. J. Bryan accepting an invitation to visit this city and fixing Sept. 22 as the date.

WORK RESUMED.
MAHANOTY CITY, Pa., Sept. 10.—After being idle since Sept. 1 the 39 colliers of the Philadelphia & Reading coal and iron Co. in the schuylkill field, employing 30,000 men and boys, resumed operations today.

MOSQUITO AND MINARD'S BLACK FLY BITES LINIMENT.
Quickly relieved
25c. and 50c.

P. P. HAGGERTY
Choir Director, Tenor Vocalist, Teacher of Singing
Room 21, Swan Building
Will receive pupils on and after the 15th of September.

EMPEROR'S FAVORITE Is Charged With Maintaining Liquor Nuisance

TAUNTON, Mass., Sept. 10.—Once a famous beauty and stage favorite and a friend of the late Emperor Dom Pedro of Brazil, who paid her marked attention and lavished many jewels upon her, Mrs. Emma Burke, known widely in a quarter of a century ago as Miss Emma Linden, is to be given a hearing in the Taunton district court next Saturday on a charge of maintaining a liquor nuisance. She is under bonds of $100 pending the disposition of the case. The prosecution is the result of two raids made by town constables at her home in Raynham, a village three miles from here.

She was born in Raynham and passed her girlhood there until her beauty attracted the attention of a theatrical manager and as she proved to have some talent for the stage, she was started in various attractions. She was presented to the emperor Dom Pedro in Brazil and remained on the stage for some time after returning from that country, but more recently conducted a large cafe in New York. After suffering business reverses and with her health shattered, she returned to her old home in Raynham. Her husband, M. Balbriggan, who was at one time a magician of considerable note died several years ago. Mrs. Burke entered a plea of not guilty through her attorney to the liquor nuisance charge brought against her.

CUT HIS THROAT STARVING MAN

Man Then Regretted
His Act

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 10.—Hospital and police ambulances throughout the state and especially in this city were kept busy all day yesterday and, in fact, far into the night, responding to hurried calls. There were eight accident reports on the various station blotters, all narrow escapes from death. One man was found suffering with ivy poisoning and in a starving condition, while three men narrowly escaped death from a small sail boat in the bay. There was but one death reported.

Afflicted with ivy poisoning until he was unable to walk and suffering from hunger for two days, one night, Michael Daley, 59 years old, was found yesterday on the edge of a pond by a boy. He was taken to the Rhode Island hospital with prospects of recovery.

HEAD OF JESUITS

Gives Apostolic Benediction to Delegates

ROME, Sept. 10.—At today's meeting of the Society of Jesus, Father Wernz, the newly elected general of the society in a speech in Latin summarized the program of the order in its complex fields of work. Father Wernz conveyed to all present the apostolic benediction as he had been charged to do by the pope. The meeting then turned its attention to the consideration of the internal affairs of the society.

Something New

Vermont Yellow Colored Butterine at 15 cents per pound. Absolutely impossible to tell it in color or taste from the best creamery butter.

FLYNN'S MARKET, 137 Gorham St.

Wall Paper

97 Appleton St.

Every Woman
Illustrated and should know about the wonderful
MARVEL Hairing Spray
The new hair spray, 25c. per bottle and 50c. per bottle. It gives full particulars and directions in the latest issue of MARVEL CO. 44 N. 2nd St., NEW YORK.

SICK ON A CAR.
Cora Hollis of Warren street, Chelmsford Centre, was taken ill on a Lowell bound Boston car last night and was removed to St. John's hospital in a semi-conscious state. A weak heart was the cause of the trouble.

THE COTTON YIELD.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The crop estimating board of the department of agriculture estimates the yield of the cotton crop of 1906 up to Aug. 25 to 77.

BRYAN ACCEPTS.
JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 10.—Gov. Vardaman yesterday received a despatch from W. J. Bryan accepting an invitation to visit this city and fixing Sept. 22 as the date.

WORK RESUMED.
MAHANOTY CITY, Pa., Sept. 10.—After being idle since Sept. 1 the 39 colliers of the Philadelphia & Reading coal and iron Co. in the schuylkill field, employing 30,000 men and boys, resumed operations today.

MOSQUITO AND MINARD'S BLACK FLY BITES LINIMENT.
Quickly relieved
25c. and 50c.

P. P. HAGGERTY
Choir Director, Tenor Vocalist, Teacher of Singing
Room 21, Swan Building
Will receive pupils on and after the 15th of September.

MORE GOLD ENGAGED.

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—The National Shawmut bank of this city announced today that it had engaged a second million dollars of gold for shipment to Boston from abroad.

THE COTTON YIELD.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The crop estimating board of the department of agriculture estimates the yield of the cotton crop of 1906 up to Aug. 25 to 77.

BRYAN ACCEPTS.
JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 10.—Gov. Vardaman yesterday received a despatch from W. J. Bryan accepting an invitation to visit this city and fixing Sept. 22 as the date.

WORK RESUMED.
MAHANOTY CITY, Pa., Sept. 10.—After being idle since Sept. 1 the 39 colliers of the Philadelphia & Reading coal and iron Co. in the schuylkill field, employing 30,000 men and boys, resumed operations today.

MOSQUITO AND MINARD'S BLACK FLY BITES LINIMENT.
Quickly relieved
25c. and 50c.

P. P. HAGGERTY
Choir Director, Tenor Vocalist, Teacher of Singing
Room 21, Swan Building
Will receive pupils on and after the 15th of September.

MOSQUITO AND MINARD'S BLACK FLY BITES LINIMENT.
Quickly relieved
25c. and 50c.

P. P. HAGGERTY
Choir Director, Tenor Vocalist, Teacher of Singing
Room 21, Swan Building
Will receive pupils on and after the 15th of September.

MOSQUITO AND MINARD'S BLACK FLY BITES LINIMENT.
Quickly relieved
25c. and 50c.

P. P. HAGGERTY
Choir Director, Tenor Vocalist, Teacher of Singing
Room 21, Swan Building
Will receive pupils on and after the 15th of September.

LATEST TERRIBLE MASSACRE

Soldiers, Police, Jews and Christians Slaughtered

SIEDLCE, Russian Poland, Sept. 10.—Terrorists Saturday evening shot and killed two soldiers who were on guard at a government alcohol store in this city. A detachment of infantry called to the scene fired a volley into the crowd that had gathered with the intention of avenging their comrades, killing two persons and wounding two. Immediately afterward the troops began to attack the Jews.

Yesterday morning the terrorists retaliated by beginning a massacre of policemen and soldiers patrolling the streets, and at noon the infuriated troops took matters into their own hands and began a general massacre, paying special attention to the Jewish quarter, of which the houses and shops were early destroyed. All the rest of the day the soldiers attacked civilians, robbing and murdering Jews and Christians without discrimination. Fires were set and many streets were nearly devastated. Hundreds of persons have been killed and wounded, and the slaughter is still in progress, while the city is in flames. Troops have now surrounded the city and no one is allowed access to it.

Siédlice is the capital of the province of the same name in Russian Poland, and is situated about 55 miles east-southeast of Warsaw. It is of no particular commercial importance, being little more than an administrative center. Its population is less than 20,000.

CHRISTIANS

WERE WARNED BY THE SOLDIERS

SIEDLCE, Poland, Sept. 10.—The Jewish massacre surpassing in seriousness all previous ones in this vicinity, took place here Saturday and Sunday. It had been carefully planned, the soldiers warning all of the Christian population in advance to hang out their lights so that they might remain undisturbed. Saturday night some terrorists killed two soldiers and then upon the Jewish quarter broke forth in unrelenting fury. They began murdering Jews on every hand and continued the work of slaughter all night Saturday and Sunday. The ghastly work of murdering and pillaging continued until an early hour this morning when General Skellon telegraphed for batteries then opened fire upon the Jews. The destruction was horrible. As a result of the general slaughter it is estimated that fully 50 Jews have been killed and 1000 wounded. There are 3000 prisoners in custody, a great many of whom are wounded. Not a soldier was killed.

This morning squads of soldiers were parading through the streets, selling pillaged watches and jewelry. The pillaging was openly countenanced by the soldiers. The local governor, Engelke, took no steps to prevent the outrage.

ASSAULTED HER SCHOOLS

John Ferretier Was Very Bold

HE ASSAULTED MARY DUGAS

And Judge Hadley Fined Him $15

John Ferretier, a member in the Merrimack mill, was arraigned before Judge Hadley in police court today on a complaint charging him with assaulting Mary Dugas.

Mary said that John was an entire stranger to her. She was standing in French street, she said, waiting for her brother, when the defendant came along and spoke to her.

"He asked me," said Mary, "who I was waiting for."

"I told him I was waiting for my brother. He said that was an old gag and it wouldn't go with him. He swore at me and called me the worst kind of names."

"I told him that I would call an officer and have him arrested, and as started to go in search of an officer he pushed me back and swore at me. My brother came along and I told the story to him. Later I pointed the man out to the officer and the officer arrested him."

Mary's story was corroborated by other witnesses including her brother. Ferretier claimed to know nothing about the affair. He said he had never seen the woman before and said she must have mistaken him for somebody else. "It's a case of mistaken identity," he said.

Judge Hadley didn't think so and a fine of $15 was imposed. The judge suggested that it was too bad a big brother with a good right arm didn't appear upon the scene at the right time. His Honor said a good thrashing would fit the case better than a fine.

SCHOOL CHILDREN ON THEIR WAY TO RESUME THEIR STUDIES THIS MORNING.

Supt. Whitcomb Assisted at Greenhalge School

Today marked the opening of the school term and shortly after eight o'clock this morning the doors of the public schools were thrown wide open to welcome the pupils. All the parochial schools except the French were also open today.

The attendance at the different schools showed a perceptible gain over last year, though it is difficult at the present time to learn just how big the attendance is. It is safe to say, however, that it is several hundred larger than at the opening of the school term last year.

Supt. A. K. Whitcomb of the school department, who generally makes a tour of the different schools on the first day, spent the greater part of the forenoon at the Frederic T. Greenhalge School in Daniel street, owing to the fact that the formal opening of the school, while there are but some in the school, but seven are now in use, but those are filled so that it is expected that an eighth room will have to be opened tomorrow. The list of teachers to be assigned to the school was previously given, but changed have been made, and the list now reported at the school this morning was as follows:

Misses Mary E. Thomas and Anna V. Donoghue, formerly of the Yarnall school; Miss Maude E. Moore, a newly elected teacher who taught temporarily at the Lakeview avenue school last year; Miss Anna L. Mahoney, a newly elected teacher, who taught temporarily at the Franklin street school; Miss Josephine Donahue and Martha Rogers of the Lakeview avenue school and Miss Leslie Davidson, a newly elected teacher, who taught temporarily at the Lakeview avenue school last year.

Of the seven rooms opened today in the new school four were of the grammar grade and three of the primary. Owing to an accident at the Munroe State Works a short time ago some of the Franklin street school, but it is hoped the boards will soon be on hand. The four teachers in the Lakeview avenue school are on duty today, but the annex has been discontinued.

At the school there are about one thousand pupils, this being practically the same number as last year, though the entering class of 35 is large. Principals, during the applications made, expected about 100 pupils, but there is generally a drop of about ten per cent. in the number who apply, but this year the drop is about 15 per cent.

Of course pupils will be entering the different schools for the next three or four weeks to come and this will bring up the attendance.

The principals of the schools throughout the city are to submit a report of the number of pupils in their schools by next Friday night and in all probability by Saturday of this week or the first of next week the total number of pupils in the different schools can be given.

At a meeting of the school committee held last week an arrangement of the year was made, but since that time changes have been made and the arrangements are as follows:

At 2 p. m. the Wannee was clearly in the lead with the Vim second on the Auk's weather quarter.

At 2:11 the Wannee was a mile to leeward of the weather mark, the wind had changed to a light breeze from the west and the Auk had bettered her lead considerably.

The Wannee split tacks with the Auk, and the Vim followed suit. The Wannee's lead was established a good lead on her opponent.

At 2:24 the Wannee tacked to port and stood toward the flag mark. She was third boat.

At 2:29 p. m. the Vim tacked to port, stood for the weather mark and was in first place. The Auk was second. The Vim rounded the weather mark at 2:30.30.

The Auk rounded the weather mark at 2:31.45.

The Wannee rounded at 2:34.26. All three yachts broke out inland for the reach to the second turn of the triangle.

Lowell Woman Fixes Damages at $3000

There was filed today at the court affecting breach of promise, against Arthur E. Huntley of this city, Burke, Norman of this city, through counsel, John H. and William A. Hogan, a suit in $3000.

BURIED ALIVE

255 Persons Met With Horrible Fate at Tiflis

TIFLIS, Sept. 10.—Practically without warning, the pile of a mountain, rising above the township of Karsel, broke away and in a sea of semi-liquid mud, sand and stones, swept down on the township and overwhelmed and obliterated it. Some 255 persons have been buried alive. Fifty-five bodies already have been recovered from the mire which is about six feet deep. In addition to the lives lost, countless head of cattle perished and the crops were destroyed.

Karsel township occupies an area of five kilometers in the district of Telav in the Caucasus. Similar disasters are of common occurrence in Caucasian valleys.

FRANK E. DUNBAR

Awaits Acceptance of His Challenge

Col. Chadwick this afternoon sent the following note to Col. Ames' representative:

Dear Sir:—Congressman Ames' Headquarters, Dear Sir:—

Mr. Dunbar has just telephoned me that he feels kindly the humiliation which our honest and earnest republicans must share with him because of the unanimously protracted negotiations for meeting Mr. Ames in debate.

He wishes to refer to the only challenge to debate at Lowell, Lawrence and Harding in accordance with Mr. Ames' own promise to meet him, "at any time and at any place."

Mr. Dunbar eagerly awaits a definite acceptance or a definite rejection of the challenge.

Yours truly,
A. M. CHADWICK.

The other statement bearing on this matter will be found on page 7.

INJURED HIS HAND.
Ernest Dufur, residing at 65 Suffolk street, while at work in one of the local shoe shops today sustained a lacerated wound of the left hand as a result of having that member caught under a shoe die. He was taken to the Emergency hospital where he received treatment.

GOVERNMENT'S SECRET.
ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10.—The British embassy has received from the foreign office expressions of the government's regret for the attack in Daku, Sept. 8, upon Lord Leolin (Troughart, the British vice consul and assessors that everything would be done to discover and punish the perpetrators of the act.

NO NEWS FROM KAMYBIN.
ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10.—No further news has been received here concerning the situation at Kamybin on the Volga. It was reported yesterday that during the absence of troops and fears were expressed that the town might be in the hands of a mob. Communication with Kamybin is still interrupted.

TWELVE HURT

MOTORMAN MAY BE INJURED FATALITY

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Twelve persons were injured, one of them a motorman, probably fatally, in a collision between two trolley cars at the New York end of the Broadway bridge today. None of the passengers was dangerously hurt, though nearly all had painful cuts or bruises.

WAR GAME

ENDED IN COLLISION BETWEEN CAVALRY AND ARTILLERY

BERLIN, Sept. 10.—The German war game culminated today in a collision between the cavalry and artillery divisions of the Red and Blue in which ten thousand hussars and two hundred quick firing machine guns took part. Emperor William, accompanied by his American and other foreign guests, and attended by a numerous staff observed the game from elevated grounds. The blues drove back the reds.

His majesty talked with Major Barry for ten minutes on military subjects. He was especially jolly and his remarks were instructive.

WILL NOT RESIGN.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co., bankers, in this city, received a telegram today from Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railways of San Francisco, in which Mr. Calhoun denies that he is to resign from the company. The telegram follows:

"I have no intention of resigning. You are authorized to deny the report emphatically and state that my interest in the property is just as great as ever."

METROPOLITAN OPERA CHORUS.
NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Fifty members of the Metropolitan Opera chorus arrived today on the steamer La Bretagne. Later the chorus may have to go to Ellis island to prove that they are not contract laborers. A theatrical agent, John J. Barry, filed a complaint with the department of commerce and labor in Washington with the immigration authorities in this city in which he alleges that the chorus singers come under the contract labor law in that they are laborers brought to this country under contract.

LOCOMOTIVE FIREMEN.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 10.—The tenth biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen opened here today with about 70 delegates present. The convention will continue for about three weeks. The business will be secret. Frank B. Sargent, formerly head of the order is here and will remain a short time, his visit being of a social nature.

BIG GOLD OFFERING.
LONDON, Sept. 10.—The United States secured practically the entire $2,500,000 gold offering on the market today, although the price had advanced one penny and three-eighths over Saturday.

In addition the United States took also $1,010,000 in eagles at the Bank of England.

BOSTON COPPER MARKET.
BOSTON, Sept. 10.—The Boston copper share market, during the early trading today had a firm tone but quickly turned strong under the leadership of Utah. The strength of American Telephone was the feature of the general list, the stock advancing to 125%, up 1/2 on moderate transactions. American Agricultural Chemical was strong, advancing 1 1/2 to 275.

DAUGHTERS OF REVOLUTION.
BOSTON, Sept. 10.—Many members of the Massachusetts Daughters of the American Revolution left the city by boat and train today for Plymouth where the annual outing of the society was held today. Exercises in the First church of Plymouth included addresses by several prominent members of the state society.

MAYOR McCLELLAN

REMOVED PARK COMMISSIONER FROM OFFICE

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Mayor McClellan today removed from office Park Commissioner George H. Walgrove of the borough of The Bronx and charged him with the misuse of his department for political purposes against the mayor. Former Coroner Joseph J. Terry was appointed to succeed Walgrove. "No officer can run his department for political purposes in this administration. I don't care whether it is in my interests or not. The departments of this city must be run in the interests of the people."

Asked whether he would support the democratic ticket if Mr. Hearst were elected by the democrats, Mr. McClellan replied:

"This is a hypothetical question. I am not dealing in the hypothetical just now nor the conditional, nor the subjunctive. The present indicative is enough for me."

The mayor reiterated his opinion that District Attorney Jerome would be the candidate for governor on the democratic ticket.

CUBAN GENERAL

TRAVELING INCOGNITO IN THIS COUNTRY

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 10.—A Cuban general arrived here today traveling incognito on his way to Washington, to receive a mission. Three hundred passengers also came on the steamer and report that the rebel army now has more than a thousand men armed and equipped. The situation they report is more gloomy than ever before and the Cuban government is powerless to help itself.

MANAGER STALLINGS FINED.
BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 10.—President Taylor of the Eastern League today said that he had fined Manager Stallings of the Buffalo team, who "struck and kicked" Umpire Connah who umpired Saturday's game here, $100 and suspended him for ten days.

INSURANCE ACTUARIES.
BERLIN, Sept. 10.—The fifth international congress of insurance actuaries opened here today. All the leading countries of Europe and America as well as Japan were represented. Prof. Gore, of the department of commerce and labor, represents the United States government. Under Secretary Wernuth tendered the greetings of the government. He referred to the success of Germany's system of workingmen's insurance and said that other countries were beginning to agitate legislation for similar purposes.

THE COTTON GIN.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—A bulletin issued today by the census bureau places the cotton ginned by the United States up to Sept. 1, 1906, at 403,209 bales, counting round bales as half bales. Up to the same time last year 476,655 bales had been ginned.

INDEPENDENCE LEAGUE MEETING.
NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Delegates to the first state convention of the Independence league of which William R. Hearst is president are arriving in the city today in large numbers.

The first session of the convention will be held in Carnegie hall tomorrow. It will be called to order by Max P. Thomsen, the state chairman. A meeting of the full state committee will be held tonight at the Gilsey House headquarters to complete the details of the temporary organization. The various committees on credentials, platform, etc., will be named at tomorrow's session and the convention will adjourn until 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. There will be no dry session of the convention being held Wednesday evening when it is expected the nominations will be made.

On the subject of nominations there was much discussion today. Some of these favored only the nominations of the heads of the ticket. Mr. Hearst's name being the only one heard in this connection.

THE DRUNKEN OFFENDERS.

Mary Orr pleaded for another chance. It was her third appearance within a year, and she was well known to the court.

"I'm doing well now and so is George," said Mary. "And I'd like another show." George Orr is her husband and he was in the court room.

"Come here George," said Deputy Welch.

"Yes, come up here George," said Mary. "and say a word for your wife."

George went to the front for Mary. He said she had been doing well of late.

"Did you have a drink this morning," George asked the deputy.

"Just a few," said George. "I can stand more drink than she can."

Mary was the day and was placed on probation.

Judge Hadley was disposed to be lenient and passed out four suspended sentences, to old offenders, in quick succession.

James Powers and Joseph Provencer were fined $2 each for drunkenness and $5 each for assault and battery on Joseph Gurin.

Mary Finley was sent to the prison for women at Sherborn, Julius Hyer, three months in jail; Michael McGrath, Patrick Kleron and Leon Teller were fined $5 each; Daniel Lynch, Edward Tompkins, James Hennessey and Josephine Raymond were fined $5 each. John Kelly was sent to the state farm. Four first offenders were fined $2 each and six were released.

MESSENGER DISCHARGED.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—William A. Nelthorpe, messenger of the New Amsterdam bank, who was arrested Sunday on complaint of George Barnum, vice-president of the bank, under suspicion of having stolen $300 from the bank, was discharged in police court today at the request of the bank's officials.

CLAP PIERCE ARRESTED.
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 10.—Clay Pierce, chairman of the executive board of the Waters-Pierce Oil Co., was arrested today at the corner of Broadway and Olive streets on an attachment issued and served several weeks ago to compel his attendance as a witness in a civil suit. Mr. Pierce was taken to the sheriff's office in the court house.

STEAMER ENGINEERS.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 10.—The international union of steam engineers met in convention here today with about 200 delegates in attendance. During the session several proposed amendments to the constitution will be acted upon.

12 YEARS OLD.
A pleasant party was held at 32 Bridge street Saturday evening, the occasion being the twelfth anniversary of the birth of Miss Frances Hamber. During the evening a fine literary and musical program was carried out and refreshments were enjoyed.

MRS. STEWART TO MARRY.
INVERNESS, Scotland, Sept. 10.—Plans for the marriage of J. H. Smith of New York to Mrs. Rhineclander Stewart were read in the parish church of Alwa, Invernesshire, yesterday. Mrs. Stewart arrived in England only a few days ago.

SHOOTING AT SEA GIRL.
SEA GIRL, N. J., Sept. 10.—Shooting at 500 yards in the national individual match, the last of the big rifle tournament was begun today. About 175 men were on the firing line when the shooting was begun. The 1000 yard stage will be shot as soon as the firing at 500 yards is completed. Lieut. Dillon, of the engineer corps who was the leader on Saturday was shooting well at 600 yards.

7-20-4

Cigar factory monthly output is now 641,000, or more than Ten Millions annually. Largest sale of any 10c cigar in New England. Quality counts. R. G. Sullivan, Mr. Manchester, N. H.

DR. TEMPLE and associates will give consultation all this month free of charge. All those who are sick or true physical condition.

DR. TEMPLE and associates cure pains in the side, back, under shoulder blade, smothering sensations, palpitation of the heart, tired feeling in the morning, poor appetite, coated tongue, blotches, or pimples on the face, bad taste in the mouth, roaring, buzzing sounds in the head, dizziness, some, sick or bloated stomach, pains in head, dreams, feeling of fear, stiffness of limbs, skin troubles and all blood disorders.

You can consult with Dr. Temple and associates—Free of charge—at their office, 97 Central street, Mansur block, every day, 10 to 12, 2 to 5; evenings, 7 to 8. Sun. for treatment is within the reach of all, payable as able. Free X-Ray Exam.

COKE-$4.50

Horne Coal Company

FREE THIS MONTH

COOK WILL DIE JEWS IN A PANIC

Legislator Stabbed by Irate Fugitives Throng Railroad Station at Siedloe

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 10.—State Representative Lawrence B. Cook of the 5th legislative district is in Mercy hospital, dying of stab wounds inflicted by Justice of the Peace Andrew W. McMillan of Carnegie. McMillan is locked up.

McMillan for some time had been suspicious of undue intimacy between his wife and Cook. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. McMillan left her home in Carnegie, a borough adjoining the city, saying she was going to visit a sister in the East end. McMillan followed her and saw her meet Cook. He followed the two until they entered a house on Lawn street, in a presumably respectable residence district of Pittsburgh. McMillan waited some time and went to the house. He brushed aside the woman of the door, burst in, opened and discovered his wife and Cook under circumstances that left no doubt of their guilt. McMillan attacked Cook. The battle waged fiercely for some minutes, when McMillan drew his pocket knife and stabbed Cook three times. Two of the wounds are in the breast, one in the side and two in the back.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10.—The prediction made in these despatches on August 11 of a Jewish massacre at Siedloe, Russia, Poland, unhappily have been justified by the fighting which broke out Saturday night and developed yesterday into a carnival of indiscriminate slaughter and pillage in which the soldiers and the mob took part. Jews were shot and bayoneted in the streets of the town. Houses and shops were broken into and sacked. Valuables were carried off and offered for sale by soldiers to passers-by on passing trains.

seen leaving a house or looking out of a window was shot without mercy.

REVOLUTIONISTS

FIRING AT SOLDIERS FROM THE WINDOWS.

WARSAW, Sept. 10.—A telegram received from Siedloe today says the fighting and shooting there continue. The revolutionists are firing at the soldiers from windows and the troops reply with volley. The laboring infantry regiment took the principal part in the massacre. The authorities have sent a detachment of artillery from Rembertow.

The loss offered for sale by the soldiers consists principally of jewelry and clothing.

OPERA HOUSE

One of the most touching episodes ever written in a drama is the pathetic story of the baby stolen from the mother by the father, for revenge, as told by Dr. Snyder, in his "A Y. Y. SOW," which will be presented here for three nights commencing tonight and one matinee on Wednesday at the Opera House. The author has already lightened one part of the good for which the author is striving in writing this drama. Dora Leland, the heroine, tells of her little girl who was stolen from her arms by his selfish and immature father while she is holding the mother's adopted child sleeping in her arms. She tells how she is reminded of her own lost child. In her act, she says "John, she makes me think of my own baby who, maybe is living in rags and wretchedness, and maybe is dead."

One of the large audiences that have characterized every performance of this rural drama, during its stay in Chicago, there was a quiet, pale-faced woman who was much affected by the pathetic story, so emotionally presented and so realistically following the story. "It is like a bit of my own story. Five years ago I lost a dear, little girl, in almost the same way, for I was divorced from a cruel, drunken husband, and the Judge decreed that the child should be mine. My husband's child, which I carried at the decision and, with the opportunity to come to my house and see the baby, I have been unable to find the slightest trace of her, though I have searched every children's home I could find. I understand that my husband has married again, but I cannot ascertain if the child is still with him or not. The story is still with me, and the little child has brought back my sorrow fresher than ever. But it has also comforted me, for it is possible that my child is still living may have found a happy home, where she is as well as I. Witnessing your play has been a great comfort to me. You all seem so real," she said, smiling through her tears.

IN FLAMES

BUILDINGS AND BAZAAR WERE DESTROYED.

SIEDLOE, Sept. 10.—Six buildings and the big bazaar of the city are now in flames, adding another terror to the killing and plundering which has been going on here for the last 30 hours. Frequent shots and occasional volley firing is still heard in various parts of the town but because of the general panic it is difficult to learn what is transpiring.

Apparently there have been thus far about 50 persons killed and 200 wounded. Hundreds of Jews are at the railroad station trying to get out of town but Siedloe is surrounded by troops who do not permit exit or entrance.

Field guns occupy points of vantage on the principal streets. Without doubt the terrorists are responsible for provoking the massacre by their fusillades from roofs and windows at which the soldiers and police on Saturday surrounded the houses from which this firing came and poured in volleys through windows and doors. This was followed by a search of the premises, which soon developed into wholesale plundering and then into massacre and slaughter. The trouble began on Plenska street and spread rapidly to a large portion of the town. Almost all the Jewish shops have been looted. Owners who defended their property were killed or wounded. Any person

Allenbury's Foods

Will Save Your Baby

When mother's milk fails don't wait—begin at once with The Allenbury's Foods. They have saved thousands of babies' lives—they will save your baby. Ask your dealer for "Infant Feeding and Management" or write direct.

THE ALLEN & HARRIS CO., LTD.
NAGARA FALLS, N. Y.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

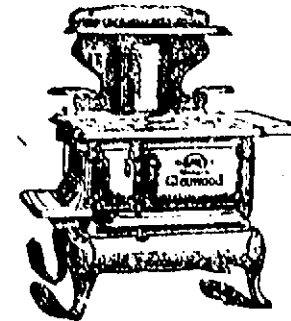

"We don't know how they do it, but they do," is the remark that is universally made by the Hathaway theatre patrons in compliment to the excellence of the vaudeville talent with which the

SANITARY NECESSITIES

DISINFECTANT 15c PINT
SULPHUR CANDLES 10c-25c EACH
CHLORIDE OF LIME 10c CAN

C.B. Coburn Co., 63 Market Street

A Sure Oven That's why the Glenwood

"Makes Cooking Easy"

COOKIN BROS. CO.

35 Market Street. Lowell, Mass.

Your old range taken in exchange.

AUTOS CRASHED

SEVERAL PERSONS WERE BADLY INJURED.

HAMPTON BEACH, N. H., SEPT. 10.—In a head-on collision between two automobiles on the North Beach road yesterday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Endicott, chauffeur, and maid of Dedham, were badly shaken up, and Miss Mary Toppin and Mrs. Chester Marston of Hampton had fractured ribs and were cut about the head, while Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sanborn of Hampton were injured and H. H. Holmes, also of Hampton, was cut and bruised.

DANDROCIDE

A HAIR IN EVERY DROP
For Sale by ELLINGWOOD & CO.

MORE THAN 1200

Shirt waists were sold by us last week. Fashion says that white shirt waists will be the style all winter.

Waists of good lawn or batiste, open front or back, all long sleeves, values up to $1.50, now 69c

Waists of fine lawn, button front or back, long or short sleeves, values up to $1.98, now 97c

Waists of fine lawn or batiste, button front or back, long or short sleeves, values up to $2.98, now $1.93

White net lace waists, front of dainty applique, wash silk lining, button back, long or short sleeves, worth $3.50 special at $1.93

Five styles of cambric corset covers, deep yoke of lace, run with ribbon front and back. You can't find as good value elsewhere for less than 39c; for a few days only 19c

Your choice of our entire stock of shirt waist suits and house dresses now 79c

Bring this ad. with you any time Monday and Tuesday you can have your choice of any of our "Johnny Jones" waists that sold up to $1.25 for 29c

We cannot allow any exchanges or refunds on these

THE UNDERWEAR STORE

WILLIE
114 MERRIMACK ST.

THE LATE FRANK J. MURRAY.

DIED OF INJURIES

Frank J. Murray Fell From Elevator

Frank J. Murray, aged 45 years, died at the Lowell hospital Saturday night at 10:15 o'clock as a result of injuries received while at work in the Lawrence mills last Tuesday.

Shortly before noon Tuesday Murray fell from an elevator in the new mill of the Lawrence company and was thrown to the hospital with what were thought to have been slight injuries.

Later internal injuries developed and the man's condition gradually grew worse until Saturday when he was placed on the dangerous list.

Deceased lived at 11 Ardell street and was a prominent parishioner of St. Patrick's church, being an active member of the Holy Name society.

He is survived by a wife, two sons, William and George, two sisters, Mrs. Alice Murray and Miss Molly Murray of Montpelier, Vt., and four brothers, William Frederick, John and Edward, and a mother, Mrs. Murray of Montpelier, Vt.

One of Mr. Murray's sons is a book-keeper with Swift & Co., and the other is attending the high school.

The body was taken to his home, 11 Ardell street, by J. E. O'Donnell & Sons undertakers.

playwright has made an exquisite selection from the wealth of romance that clusters about the sunny South. It contains a well-defined and reasonable plot, and abounds in dramatic situations of more than ordinary force. The play has been carefully rehearsed and will be staged without regard to expense. The second week also marks the return of an old Academy favorite, Mr. A. F. Buchanan, the popular character actor who made many friends while at the Academy last season.

When here, the verdict of the patrons of the house in commenting on the work of the players, in regard to Mr. Buchanan, was: "Mr. Buchanan comes from St. Louis, where he has been filling a summer stock engagement, and will begin rehearsing at once. The regular feature, which will be made a regular feature of the theatre during the season, will be on Tuesday afternoon, when each lady holding a 25 or 50 cent seat will receive a box of Russell's convenient chocolate bonbons. These bonbons are still open, and those who have not yet placed their names on it and intend doing so, are reminded that the chocolate seats are rapidly being taken.

Part of the program are Sidney Dean & Co., in a remarkable standing novelty, "Christmas on the Island." Mr. Dean is seen in the part of a wealthy and somewhat spoiled New York City millionaire, who is arrested for oversteering his auto on the night before Christmas. It is his ultimatum to be imprisoned to obtain bail, and he goes to prison at Blackwell's Island for the night. While there he is assigned to the duty of passing out the dinner to the prisoners, and during the scene he introduces a number of the most delightful ensemble sketches. The conversation between the effeminate young aristocrat and the tough old jail-bird supplies an abundance of fun and in addition to the fine singing and dancing has several a tremendous hit where scenery is used. Elaborate special effects are used, the scene, with the convicts in their cells, making a very striking stage picture. In a novelty Dutch scene, the Kouffman Sisters give an exhibition of the very finest in character dancing. These attractive and talented young women come here direct from the London Embassy, this being their fourth week in the United States. Florence Saunders is a singer with the highest degree by years of training, and music-lovers will find her number a treat. Arthur and Mildred Doylan have the reputation of being the two of the cleverest children who ever appeared on a stage. Their play, "Jack and Jill," is dainty and full of pathos, and the children are not only excellent actors, but very clever comedians. The act is beautifully costumed, and the scene is a beautiful exhibition of the very finest in character dancing. These attractive and talented young women come here direct from the London Embassy, this being their fourth week in the United States.

Florence Saunders is a singer with the highest degree by years of training, and music-lovers will find her number a treat. Arthur and Mildred Doylan have the reputation of being the two of the cleverest children who ever appeared on a stage. Their play, "Jack and Jill," is dainty and full of pathos, and the children are not only excellent actors, but very clever comedians. The act is beautifully costumed, and the scene is a beautiful exhibition of the very finest in character dancing. These attractive and talented young women come here direct from the London Embassy, this being their fourth week in the United States.

Boy Was Rebuked for Keeping Late Hours

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Jesse Weinstock, aged 15, who lived with his parents at 40 East 10th street, killed himself in the hallway of the home shortly after midnight yesterday morning.

The boy had a love affair, and had been cautioned by his father for maintaining out after 12 o'clock. When he reached his home with two boy companions, he had them good night, adding, "I'm going on a long journey, and you'll never see me again." On entering the hall he placed a revolver to his head and killed himself.

The parents were sitting at the window and saw him enter the house, but did not rebuke him for the late hour he had kept Saturday night.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

THE LOWELL SUN

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, PROPRIETOR.

Member of the Associated Press.

Three Dollars per Year. Twenty-five Cents per Month

The Sun receives the full day service of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, the greatest news-gathering organization in the world. The entire service received over a leased wire, by our own operator, in our own office in The Sun building.

SWORN CIRCULATION OF THE SUN

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1905 was

14,829

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1906.

JOHN J. HOGAN, Notary Public.

This is a larger circulation than the combined circulation of all the other daily papers in Lowell.

An advertisement placed in The Sun is of more value to the advertiser than if it were inserted in all the other newspapers in Lowell, and the cost of inserting it in The Sun is about ONE-THIRD the price charged by the other papers.

The navy has been indulging in target practice dangerously near the shore. The "navy" is apparently spoiling for a fight.

The demand of the Cuban insurgents is preposterous. They want the present government, which was legally elected, driven from power and a government of their own number installed. Their action in precipitating a rebellion is the best proof that they are unworthy of confidence.

THE CUBAN CRISIS.

The crisis in Cuba shows no improvement, and now some are heard to propose annexation as a remedy. But the expenses of the insurrection will be so great as to form an obstacle to annexation on the American side. The United States does not want to take a state loaded down with debt.

SOME TARIFF OUTRAGES.

Barter is the basis of all trade. If we would sell, we must also buy. This is true of all nations and men. A tariff is "protective" only to the same extent to which it is prohibitive of trade, and is injurious to both buyer and seller to the extent to which it is prohibitive.

It gives an unjust advantage to one class, that is to those who have a monopoly in the exclusive market produced by it. It discriminates against all who buy in that market, and against all who use houses or commodities within the "protected" zone.

The protection of a monopoly enables it to fix its own price and levy tribute on the people, whereas if no such monopoly existed the importer adds the amount of the tariff to the price of the goods, thus increasing the cost to the consumer in the protected country.

But the plainest and most palpable proof of the overprotection afforded monopolies in this country is that they sell their products abroad much cheaper than at home and yet the stand-patters say there is no need of tariff revision.

AN EDITOR'S TROUBLES.

Our heart-felt sympathies go out to the editor of the Schenectady, N. Y., Monitor in the base ingratitude shown him by the management of a local fair. To make the fair a success for several years past, the editor of the Monitor made great personal sacrifices even to the extent of risking his life on several occasions for the amusement of the crowd. But now that the management of the fair finds itself on solid footing with money to spend, it forgets all about the editor and his printing establishment and sends its printing to a concern out of town. But hear the editor tell the story himself:

"It will be remembered that in the year 1902 the fair management found themselves short of attractions, and at the request of the gentlemen, the editor of the Monitor made a balloon ascension and parachute drop in order to advertise the fair. The stunt proved to be a drawing card and the largest attendance in recent years was the result. The following year, 1903, we were asked to repeat the act, and did so, with the result that the management was greeted with a large attendance.

"Balloon ascensions and parachute drops were becoming too tame for these fastidious gentlemen, and the next year, 1904, we were asked to enter a cage of lions two days in succession. Something had to be done to advertise the fair and we consented, and in the presence of the crowd we entered the cage of lions, the roof garden on two different days. The attendance was large on both these days.

"Most people would have appreciated a favor of this kind and would have reciprocated at the first opportunity. Not so with the members of the system. Forgetting that we had on four different occasions jeopardized our life in order to help advertise the fair, they have sent every dollar's worth of printing out of town, ignoring the home paper entirely."

This is but another proof of "man's ingratitude for benefits forgot" but the editor of the Monitor should not notice little things of that kind but should pursue the even tenor of his way unperturbed by the inability of some people to appreciate his service.

"Great minds, like heaven, are pleased in doing good. Though the ungrateful subject of their favors are barren in return."

The fair people apparently did not think much of the editor's parachute jumps so long as the rope did not break in mid-air so as to make the performance more thrilling.

GOVERNOR GUILD'S PREDICAMENT.

Governor Guild is at odds with his party on the question of tariff revision. He has declared that he would not run again on any platform less liberal than that of last year.

That platform while declaring for the principle of protection, "approved the position taken by our senators and representatives at the last session of congress in favor of present action and we urge that they should continue to press upon their party associates in congress from other states the wisdom of a consideration of the tariff for the purpose of revision and readjustment."

But Gov. Guild had added to that declaration by insisting upon putting five articles on the free list—iron ore, coal, lumber, hides and paper pulp wood stock. "In his paper, the Commercial Bulletin," says the New York Evening Post, "he has argued long for the principles of revision and reciprocity. Now comes the Roosevelt letter. The chairman of the committee on resolutions for the republican state convention is already selected—Attorney General Moody. Of course a member of the cabinet cannot do otherwise than write tariff resolutions in line with the president's position. Therefore as the tariff revisionists see it today, the tariff plank for Massachusetts republicans is as good as written, for it must be on stand-pat lines to be in accord with the president."

All of which goes to show that in spite of the president leaving the tariff revision republicans in the lurch, the question of revision will not down. Those republicans who feel that they are being robbed by the tariff protected trusts must either take to the woods on election day, or boldly vote for the democratic candidates for congress and for the legislature, who will elect United States senators. The last hope of the republican revisionists for tariff reform within the party went glimmering when President Roosevelt went over to the stand-patters. He evidently regards party more than principle.

In this predicament then it is interesting to watch what Governor Guild will do. If he takes a position against revision this year or opposed to that which he held last year, the inconsistency will be difficult to explain. Under such a situation it should be easy for a strong democratic candidate to defeat him but at present there is no such candidate in sight.

SEEN AND HEARD

She was a thin, narrow, dark-visaged woman with "traces" on, and she carried a package of traps and bottles, which she scattered broadcast among the sun-baked earth. A man got on carrying a bag was seen. Out of his pocket protruded a glass flask with a rubber cork. The woman with the traps handed one immediately to this last passenger.

"Thank you," he said, "I'm thirsty."

"No, sir," said the woman, "in a high falsetto voice. 'To save your honor,' she said, 'and, indeed, not to handle the water, but to give you a glass of pure water from the glass flask protruding from her coat pocket."

"Oh, I see," said the man, "that this bottle is for me, yes, yes."

"Well, into that," she said, "she poured her drink," she said, "and she handed a warning hand high above her head."

"I don't exactly my neighbor, either," said the man, "You see it's for the new bottle, and safe, it's to bring him up by hand."

But the woman with the traps, hurriedly left the car at the next corner, followed by the smiles of the passengers.

A very interesting continued story on color photograph, is being furnished to the Lowell American by William T. Atwood, chief of the Hamilton Mfg. Co., of this city.

A clergyman was writing when his little daughter walked into the study. "What are you writing, papa?" "I am writing a sermon, pet." "How do you know what to write?" "God tells me," said her father, gravely. After waiting for father a few minutes the child went back to her writing. "If God tells you what to write, papa, why do you scratch some of it out afterwards?"

AUTOMOBILE NEWS

Henri Bollan of Lyons, France, has been engaged to drive the H. L. M. Vanderbilt cup candidate and his name was sent to Chairman Jefferson De Mont Thompson of the American Automobile Association's racing board yesterday with word that he will have charge of the 30 horse-power racer in the American elimination trials. Bollan was brought to the attention of the three young motorists of the R. L. M. racer, Messrs. Brooks, Lawrence and Moulton, by Georges Dupuy, the American correspondent of L'Auto. Dupuy said yesterday that Bollan is 26 years old, weighs 160 pounds, and belongs to the Thely school of drivers, having been a pupil of the famous French driver who won the Bennett cup in 1904 and 1905 with a Bleriot. Bollan is studying the Nausau county circuit daily in James L. Brooks's 60 horse-power Mercedes.

Gustave Caillou, who is to drive one of the three 115 horse-power Thomas racers in the American elimination trials, has written to a friend in New York that the three cars will be ready for practice over the course on September 12, the day set by the A. A. A. racing board. The cars which Callou and LeBlon are to drive have been put on the road, and the machine which Montague Roberts will drive for Harry S. Houpt will be ready for the road by the end of this week. Callou and LeBlon are both very well satisfied with their cars, and the former says the racers are too fast to use their full power on the Nausau county circuit.

Ernest Keeler, who is to drive the Oldsmobile Vanderbilt cup candidate in the American elimination trials on September 22, will equip his racer with removable rims of his own invention. The wheels are of standard pattern, with wooden spokes and metal hubs. A slot is provided between the spokes so that another rim to which a different tire has been attached may be easily slipped on and twisted into place. Two dowl pins held in place by springs have been added to secure the staybolts of the rim when the driver wishes to drive the car at backward. Keeler and his mechanic, Miller, have been at the factory for some time helping to put the racer together and trying it out on the roads near Lansing. After the first trial Keeler telegraphed to a friend in New York as follows: "Try-out of my successful, far beyond my expectations. I will surely deliver the goods with this car and expect to have it on the course in four or five days."

NARROW ESCAPE

OCCUPANTS OF BURNING HOUSE NEARLY SUFFOCATED.

CLAREMONT, N. H., Sept. 10.—The barn, ell and main upper portion of the two-story, double tenement at 21 Fremont street, owned by Austin L. Hurd, were burned at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, together with a horse and 40 boxes belonging to Mr. Hurd. The fire started in the barn. The lower tenement was occupied by Mrs. Charles Mulhern and daughter Mary and Winifred, the upper by Mrs. L. J. Green and granddaughter Florence Fisher, Charles Mackey and little daughter Fannie, and Mr. Hurd.

The firemen saved the main building, loss and damage to household goods partially insured. Total estimated loss $2500, insurance of $1000 on buildings. It is thought the fire was set.

WATER WAGON

COLLINS HAS BOARDED IT AGAIN.

NEW BRUNSWICK, Sept. 10.—John T. Collins of this city, who once published that he had signed the pledge and who later fell from the wagon again, has today brought to a local newspaper office an announcement informing the public that he will be strictly temperate hereafter and offering a reward of $200 to whoever shall find him intoxicated.

Collins had the notice drawn by Arthur M. Clark, a lawyer of this city. It reads:

"John T. Collins, wish to announce to the public that I have taken and signed the pledge to abstain from the use of all liquor for the rest of my natural life, and that if any person whoverever find me intoxicated from now on, and prove the same to the satisfaction of my lawyer, I will pay to such person the sum of $200."

BABY UNINJURED

LITTLE ONE WAS CAST OFF TRAIN.

LIMA, O., Sept. 10.—Thrown or fallen from the Pennsylvania New York Central 19-hour flyer, a two-month-old boy baby was picked up in the woods and bushes east of this city yesterday in perfect health and uninjured, having alighted in soft clay and marshy lands. The babe was found in costly linen, marked in French monogram, and has been cared for temporarily by a good family until an investigation can be made.

A DECREASE

IN THE POPULATION OF IRELAND NOTED.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The annual report of the Registrar-General for Ireland, issued Saturday afternoon, shows an excess of births over deaths of 27,761. The loss by emigration was 30,675, leaving an apparent decrease of population of 2,914.

This, however, is offset by immigration, of which no official record is obtainable at present. The population of Ireland in the middle of 1905 was 4,391,565.

Saves Hard Work

6-5-4 is prepared particularly for GAS COOKING RANGES and is also a labor saving substitute for blacking, on the sides of any cook stove burning hard coal. It is better than an enamel for STOVE PIPES or WIRE SCREENS; it covers more surface, is applied easier, dries quicker and wears longer.

6-5-4 Kills Rust

For sale by Thompson Hardware Co., Adams Hardware & Paint Co. and Map. D. Lafleur.

SYRUP PINE OF TAR

WILL CURE That Cough

Carter & Sherburne's Drug Store In the Waiting Room

PUTNAM & SON CO.

166 CENTRAL STREET

FALL OVERCOATS

In all of the new models—handiest garment in your outfit for these nights and mornings.

New French Back Overcoats

Body fitting, handsome grays and gray mixed chevrons, $15 to $25

Half Body Fitting, Regulation Length Fall Overcoats

In grays, gray mixtures and black, $10 to $30

Covert Coats

The new length, correct shades, all with satin sleeve linings $10 to $20

Long Raincoats

Of new and handsome fabrics, plain worsteds, neat dark mixed worsteds—stylish overcoats that are waterproof $8 to $25

FAREWELL SERMON

Archbishop O'Connell Reviews Work in Portland

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 10.—There was a very impressive scene at the cathedral of the Immaculate Conception yesterday. Most Rev. William H. O'Connell, co-adjutor archbishop of Boston, formerly bishop of Portland, said farewell to his people here. There was a great congregation, one testing fully the capacity of the cathedral.

The day was beautiful, and in the congregation were representatives of every Catholic church in the city. No attempt had been made to advertise the fact that the archbishop would preach his farewell sermon, and the attendance was in itself a high mark of love and respect.

Archbishop O'Connell was attended by Very Rev. Mr. Charles W. Collins. As the procession advanced out of the sanctuary to the altar, the hymn, "Ecce Sacerdos Magnus" was sung by the full choir with beautiful effect. Mass was sung by Rev. James A. Carroll, assisted by Rev. T. H. Houlahan and Rev. John Quinn. The music was of a very high order.

When his grace advanced to the altar to deliver his last sermon, the scene was most touching, and at times the strain on his feelings showed itself in a trembling of his voice.

ARCHBISHOP'S ADDRESS.

"I have come to say farewell to the city and diocese of Portland. The same voice of authority which has pronounced of the priests and people of this see into my hands—the only authority which has power to call and send in the church—has now spoken, dissolving the bond which bound us together and directing me to take up my duties in another see.

"I look back upon the five years passed among you and I am grateful to God for all they contain. Looking back to the day when I came to Portland as a young bishop, with a great work to be accomplished, I can say here in God's presence that I have given all I had to give in doing that work. And I can say with full consciousness in all that has transpired during my occupancy of this see that as far as my lights, as far as my powers have reached, I have done my duty—to you—to this city—to this diocese—and to this state.

"You know what has been done and with what limited means at my disposal. This temple has been completely renovated from the floor to the ceiling. If in all America there is a better equipped cathedral in all that pertains to the dignity of worship and the glory of the house of God, I do not know it. And the work has been so thorough and so complete that for many years to come nothing more will be needed.

"The same precious vestments which clothe the altar in the great basilicas of the world adorn this sanctuary. The music of the church, so important a part of her liturgy, has been cultivated and is executed in a manner very seldom to be heard even in the great sanctuaries of the old world. Five hundred children and the whole congregation chanting from beginning to end the whole service of vespers or benediction in all its entirety, and with a precision to excite wonder is a sight to be seen but rarely in a lifetime. Here it has grown so common as scarcely to call forth a comment.

"But the real glory of God's house is not in the beautifying of the walls nor even in the richness of ceremony and ritual. It is in the hearts of his children, the hearts which more than even cathedrals are destined to be the temples of the Holy Spirit.

"I feel confident here, also, that nothing which could be done was allowed to pass, to minister to the spiritual wants, to defy and raise up a people God-fearing and virtuous.

CIVIL AND SOCIAL LIFE.

"More than this. Looking out on the civil and social life of Catholics here, I discerned that many needs not merely religious existed. The dock laborer stood in the cold of long winter nights without a roof to cover them, a fire to warm them, unless, indeed, the roof and fire that led to bad company and vice. Today, facing the wharves at the very place where before intemperance lured them to itself, a splendid club house stands, equipped with every form of innocent amusement, and where every form of food and drink, except those which destroy the body and the soul, is at their disposal. That workman's club has transformed that district.

"Does this really great work, not less great because its results come silently, during the five years were formed the Catholic union, for the older men, the Ozannum club, for the younger men, the Holy Name society for the boys. Among the societies founded here during my regime none deserves higher praise than the reading circle. Financially these five years have been very successful. The cathedral debt has been very materially diminished.

"Going over again in memory the events of my government, recalling minutely the many details of questions, of causes, of persons and affairs, again here in this sacred place, I feel profoundly at peace in spirit.

"The archbishop said it was his deepest desire to attach the people to the see as the surest means of promoting unity of faith. He spoke of Christian education and said that he has always endeavored to lend his best aid to the religious engaged in this work. He urged his people to love their church and respect their priests and prelates. He referred to the many kindnesses of the people of Maine irrespective of their religious belief, and expressed his thanks to the governors, mayor and other public men who had been so kind to himself, the priests and people of the Portland diocese. In closing he asked God's blessing for the diocese of Portland and the state of Maine.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

MIDDLEBORO, Sept. 10.—The fears of the White family at White's hill carried out his threat to take his life were confirmed yesterday morning when his body was found hanging to an oak tree, not 200 feet from his house.

TAUBOT SCHOOL REPAIRED.

The Taubot school has been greatly improved since the closing of the school term several months ago and when the pupils of that school entered the building this morning quite a change was noticed. The desks in each of the rooms have been varnished and repaired and are now in the best condition that they have been since the opening of the building, several years ago. The floors have been oiled, while the building has been thoroughly disinfected from top to bottom and is now in a clean and healthful condition. In doing this work the school committee has expended about $250.

Two new teachers began their duties in the school today. They are Misses Doris Kohlrausch and Mary H. Downey. The former was appointed by the school committee some time ago while the latter was appointed at a meeting of the school board held Wednesday evening to take the place made vacant by the resignation of Miss F. Marion Dutton.

Miss Gertrude Nason of Billerica, daughter of Rev. W. W. Nason, has been appointed supervisor of drawing of the public schools, vice Miss Alice L. Belt, resigned.

BILLERICA NEWS

Mills and Schools Resumed Today

Tree Warden Francis J. Dolan, who is also superintendent of the gypsy and brown tail moths, is increased over the fact that some of the money appropriated at the town meeting in March for the suppression of the moths has been used to pay some of the bills of the former tree warden T. Emery Smith. Mr. Dolan alleges that Smith expended nearly $500 over the amount allowed him for 1905. The matter is now in the hands of the selectmen.

The tax rate for Billerica this year will be $16.39 per thousand, a reduction of 30 cents over last year.

CLAMBAKE YESTERDAY.

The members of Engine Company No. 1 of North Billerica enjoyed a clam bake yesterday. The bake was held at "Camp de Shalloo" on the banks of the upper Concord river. The spread was one of the best that could be procured and was highly enjoyed by all present. At the conclusion of the feast a social hour was enjoyed and vocal and instrumental selections were rendered.

MILLS OPEN UP.

The Taubot and Faulkner mills opened up this morning after the annual two weeks shutdown.

TAUBOT SCHOOL REPAIRED.

The Taubot school has been greatly improved since the closing of the school term several months ago and when the pupils of that school entered the building this morning quite a change was noticed. The desks in each of the rooms have been varnished and repaired and are now in the best condition that they have been since the opening of the building, several years ago. The floors have been oiled, while the building has been thoroughly disinfected from top to bottom and is now in a clean and healthful condition. In doing this work the school committee has expended about $250.

Two new teachers began their duties in the school today. They are Misses Doris Kohlrausch and Mary H. Downey. The former was appointed by the school committee some time ago while the latter was appointed at a meeting of the school board held Wednesday evening to take the place made vacant by the resignation of Miss F. Marion Dutton.

Miss Gertrude Nason of Billerica, daughter of Rev. W. W. Nason, has been appointed supervisor of drawing of the public schools, vice Miss Alice L. Belt, resigned.

To Break Up a Cold

before it breaks you. Search it out, check it, annihilate it. A lump of sugar—a few drops of

JOHNSON'S Anodyne LINIMENT

and it's done. So simple—so effective. Or if the trouble be bronchitis, asthma, croup, grip, tonsillitis or such like, the remedy is just as reliable and effectual. Likewise cramps, cholera, colic, diarrhoea and kindred bowel disorders cease before it in quick order. Used externally it will readily relieve and cure cuts, burns, scalds, lame back, sciatica lumbago, muscular rheumatism and many other complaints. Cure your next cold with it. 25c and 50c everywhere.

J. S. JOHNSON & CO., Boston, Mass.

On presentation of this coupon and 50c at our store the holder will be entitled to a

Fountain Pen

Geo. H. Wood 137 to 151 Central Street.

